The Winthrop High School Class of 2022 will participate in graduation ceremonies Friday, June 3 at 6 p.m. at Miller Field.

A total of 139 graduates will receive their diplomas. It was a very challenging journey to graduation day due to the COVID-19 pandemic that has disrupted all aspects of student life since March, 2020.

Three-sport standout Mia Martucci, who has been class president for all four years, said despite the obstacles posed by the pandemic, she and her classmates will still look back at their experience as a very positive one, thanks to the unity of the class and a dedicated and sup-

Winthrop Beach's water quality gets a perfect score on annual Report Card

By John Lynds

On Memorial Day Winthrop Beach was packed with swimmers and sun-bathers for the unofficial start of summer.

From here on in as the weather warms to summer temperatures residents and visitors to Winthrop Beach are sure to enjoy months of fun-filled beach activities at the neighborhood's public beach.

Just in time for summer Save the Harbor/Save the Bay released its annual Metropolitan Beaches Water Quality Report Card on the 2021 beach season and Winthrop Beach once again received high marks last year.

According to Save the Harbor/Save the Bay's Annual Beach Water Report Card, Winthrop Beach scored a percent 100 percent for a second year in a row.

Winthrop Beach scored a 100 percent last summer after posting a 100 percent in 2020.

In 2019 Winthrop Beach scored a 78 percent; a 100 percent in 2018; a 94 percent in 2017; and a 100 percent in 2016.

Overall Winthrop Beach's six year average for water quality is 95 percent with three perfect scores since 2016.

Save the Harbor/Save the Bay's Executive Director Chris Mancini said rainfall in 2021 had a significant impact on the water quality at other Metropolitan Beaches but Winthrop emerged unscathed by a dip in water quality.

The report released showed that in 2021 there were far more rain events in the region than in 2020, with 19 storms exceeding a half-inch of rain, 12 of which exceeded one inch of rainfall.

The report points out that 2020 was a relatively dry year, with only a few large summer storms and relatively fewer wet weather impacts.

However, Winthrop Beach seemed to be more

Fire Department offers fire pit safety tips as warm weather ramps up

- Staff Report
- Chief Scott Wiley and the Winthrop Fire Department would like to provide safety tips for grilling and fire pit use as warmer weather approaches.

The Winthrop Fire Department would like to remind residents of fire pit and outdoor grill safety, as the start of summer and
- outdoor gatherings are expected to take place.

Chief Wiley would like to share the following safety tips provided by the Massachusetts Department of Fire Services:

 - Make sure the fire and/or smoke does not pose a hazard to any property
 - Smoke from the fire should not create a nuisance or health hazard in the neighborhood
- an outdoor fireplace or fire pit

 - No construction debris, leaves, hazardous waste, or chemicals may be burned at any time
- Ensure that your fire pit is on a non-combustible surface

AIR FRYER BACON-WRAPPED CHICKEN THIGHS

INGREDIENTS:

- ½ stick butter, softened
- ½ clove minced garlic
- ¼ teaspoon dried thyme
- ¼ teaspoon dried basil
- ½ teaspoon coarse salt

- freshly ground black pepper
- ½ pound thick-cut bacon
- 1½ pounds boneless skinless chicken thighs
- 2 teaspoons minced garlic

DIRECTIONS:

STEP 1: Combine softened butter, garlic, thyme, basil, salt, and pepper in a bowl. Place butter on a piece of wax paper and roll up tightly to form a butter log. Refrigerate until firm, about 2 hours.

STEP 2: Lay one bacon strip flat on a piece of wax paper. Place chicken thigh on top of the bacon and sprinkle with garlic. Open up the chicken thigh. Place 1-2 tsp of the cold finishing butter in the middle of the chicken thigh. Tuck one end of bacon into the middle of the chicken thigh. Fold over the chicken thigh and roll the bacon around the chicken thigh. Repeat with remaining thighs and bacon.

STEP 3: Preheat an air fryer to 370 degrees F (190 degrees C).

STEP 4: Place chicken thighs in the basket of the air fryer and cook until chicken is no longer pink and the juices run clear, about 25 minutes. An instant-read thermometer inserted near the bone should read 165 degrees F (74 degrees C).

Sen. Lydia Edwards secures $80K for Winthrop programs in Senate version of budget

By John Lynds

Last week the state Senate approved a nearly $50 billion budget with Senator Lydia Edwards able to earmark $80,000 for Winthrop-based programs and initiatives as well as another $1 million for a regional ferry.

Edwards' $1 million amendment, by far her largest earmark during the senator's first budget negotiations since being elected this past winter, will be used to operate a regional water ferry that would connect Winthrop,

East Boston, Lynn, Quincy, and the North End. The ferry extension will add Lynn and Eastie to the Winthrop and Quincy line and bring it under the MBTA.

Edwards said this ferry will mitigate transportation as MassDOT begins its project next month to overhaul the Summer Tunnel with weekend closures culminating in a four month closure in 2023.

"I was proud to work with my colleagues in the legislature to secure the funds for the necessary mitigation," said Edwards. "The closing of the Summer Tunnel impacts the entire region. The funds will be used to subsidize and expand ferry service within the MBTA. We need to be investing in our waterfront transportation."

Edwards said the $1 million in funding will be used next year when the tunnel is shut down between May and September.

"The people of Winthrop will be dramatically affected by the Summer Tunnel renovation project," said Winthrop State Rep. Jeffrey Turco. "For this reason, Senator Edwards and I have worked hard in this budget process to make $1,000,000.00 available to cover the cost of both a more regional, expanded and sustainable scope of the Winthrop Ferry."

As far as Winthrop-specific programs and initiatives Edwards secured $50,000 for the Friends of Belle Isle. This money will allow the group to continue their preservation program's at the marsh.

"Salt marshes like Belle Isle offer various environmental and economic benefits, as our region is increasingly threatened by a rising sea level and temperatures," said Edwards.

Edwards also secured $30,000 for Winthrop's CASA (Community Against Substance Abuse) to support the non-profit's programs.

CASA was created in 1997 in response to a growing substance abuse problem in Winthrop. The organization partners with a variety of local, state and federal partners to advocate for and serve youth and families impacted by substance misuse and oftentimes corresponding mental health needs. CASA's current programs include youth-led drop-in groups for middle and high schoolers that provide youth directed activities that address topics relevant to them. Additionally CASA provides a specified LGBTQ+ support group, young women and men's groups, and a social justice group.

portive WHS faculty and administration.

"It has been the best experience having these past four years at Winthrop High School," said Martucci. "I know I speak for the class officers when I say we are truly lucky to have been a, part of this amazing class and everything that came with it."

Martucci, who will deliver her presidential address at the graduation, thanked Supt. of Schools

Lisa Howard, Principal Matt Crombie, Assistant Principal Michael Cappaso, Athletic Director Matt Serino "and truly the rest of the Winthrop High staff for being the best to us for these past four years."

"Each and every one of us is so lucky to have had you in our daily lives through the years," Martucci said.

Winthrop Town Manager Tony Marino, who took office May 23, will be at the graduation ceremony. Town Council President Jim Letterie, Police Chief Terence Delehanty, and Fire Chief Scott will join Supt. Howard, Principal Crombie and members of the Winthrop School Committee in honoring the graduates.

Rep. Jeff Turco and Sen. Lydia Edwards are also invited guests.

Daniel Tracy will deliver the valedictory address. Nora McCarey will deliver the salutatory address.

Class Marshall Jonathan Parker and President Mia Martucci will lead the procession of graduates.

Parker will also lead the recitation of the Pledge of Allegiance.

A total of $300,000 in scholarships will be awarded to graduates at the ceremony, according to Guidance Department Administrative Assistant Marisa Indrisano, the Class of 2022 graduation coordinator.

impacted by weather events in 2019 when it recorded its lowest score of 78 percent.

"Considering the wet weather, most of the region's beaches scored quite well, earning A's and B's" said Mancini. "Sadly the Department of Public Health's beach posting and flagging protocols failed to make the grade again this year."

According to Save the Harbor's Director of Strategy & Communications Bruce Berman working with the DPH Save the Harbor/Save the Bay can provide more accessible, timely and accurate water quality data to beachgoers, improving public access to the beach and better protecting the public's health.

"On many beaches, simply installing an accurate and accessible rain gauge and making the information available online in real time with a QR code would provide better information," he said. "We can – and should – do better than the current system, which relies on yesterday's results and is a terrible predictor of today's water quality."

Beach safety scores are calculated as the percent of samples that comply with the DPH's single sample limit for bacteria. Weekly water quality testing began in late May of 2021. Additional daily testing at Winthrop Beach, King's Beach, Malibu Beach, Teanean Beach and Wollaston Beach began in early June and ended on Labor Day.

ART 951 - WINTHROP SHORE DRIVE 1890 - 1914

One of Winthrop's greatest assets is our access to the ocean and the largest such area is, of course, along Winthrop Shore Drive. The large panoramic view picture taken in 1868 as six individual photographs, a copy of which is included in the second edition of our Mapping Winthrop Book, shows no development between Shirley Street and the ocean from the Highlands down to Water Tower Hill except for a very small Lifesaving Station on the shore about where Cutler Street intersects Shore Drive today. In 1875 Dr. Ingalls purchased the Northern area on Shirley Street that ran to the ocean from Forrest Street up to Hawthorn Avenue. The eight new streets laid out in this area were all given nautical names, Dolphin, Pearl, Wave Way, Sea Foam, Trident, Coral, Mermaid, and Neptune. The area was named Ocean Spray and it's unique development will be the subject of a future article. Picture one, taken about 1895, looks down the coastal road, then named Crest Avenue, which ran from Beacon Street at the base of Cottage Hill North to Grovers Avenue and then around to Revere Street. Note the unpaved road surface, the wooden railing along the beach and the wooden bridge in the foreground that passes over the Narrow Gauge Railroad Tracks which came up what is now Veterans Road. In the distance on Great Head one can see that the Water Tower, built in 1910, had not yet been constructed. On June 3, 1893, the Massachusetts Legislature established the Metropolitan Park Commission which acquired the land along the coast between Lynn and Swampscott in 1899 where they constructed what is now known as the Lynn Shore Drive and its adjoining seawall. By 1913 this commission had also acquired Winthrop Beach and the road beside it which, as was previously stated, had been named Crest Avenue. Picture two depicts the new sea wall made of granite blocks that that were hauled into place by the small temporary railroad shown in the picture. In the distance, to the right, one can see Grover's Cliff where Fort Heath was located from about 1895 to 1966. Picture three shows the seawall as it was being constructed. The section of Crest Avenue from Grover's Avenue to Cottage Hill was renamed Winthrop Shore Drive, the name it bears today. As can be seen in picture four taken about 1912, the new road way had been carefully laid out with a stone barrier on its shore side upon which the original green Ball and Cap metal railing was mounted for the full length of the beach. This style of railing is officially called the "Century Metropolitan Ball Cap Rail", a trademark of the Schiff Architectural Detail Company who now manufactures the components. This railing design was introduced in the Boston area by the noted landscape architect F.L. Olmstead who laid out the "Emerald Necklace of parks that he envisioned would someday encircle Boston. In the distance, on Cottage Hill, the water tower constructed in 1910 can now be seen. Many of the seaside hotels have made their appearance along Shore Drive and people in their finery are enjoying walking along the beach. Today, looking out to sea, one can observe the stone breakwaters called the five sisters, three of which were constructed in 1933 and the final two in 1935. The first were called the three sisters after the three Bill girls who brought new blood into our peninsula by marrying young men from the Belcher, Floyd and Tewksbury families in the early 1800's.

The 110 members of the Winthrop High Class of 2012 will receive their diplomas tomorrow evening (Friday) at Miller Field. Class Marshall Rachel DelSolio will have the honor of leading the procession of students onto the field while proud parents and guests look on from the bleacher seating area. DelSolio will also lead the recitation of the Pledge of Allegiance. Class Valedictorian and Treasurer Catherine Loomis will sing the National Anthem. Class President Leo Haskell will make remarks during the ceremony and present the class gift to Junior Class President Joseph Gobiel. The other senior class officers are Vice- President Mairead McCarthy and Secretary Janelle Gillespie. Nicole Black will deliver the salutatory address.

Winthrop's annual Fourth of July fireworks will highlight the town's celebration of the nation's 236th birthday. Speaker of the House Robert A. DeLeo and Town Manager James McKenna joined 11 Foundation In Memory of Michael Mason officials Joseph Ferrara and Robert Noonan, Fire Chief Paul Flanagan, and Patrick Lally of Congressman Edward J. Markey's Office at a press conference Tuesday morning at Town Hall to announce that the tradition of fireworks lighting up the Winthrop sky will continue this year.

Olivia Goncalves has faced adversity in her life but she has never let any obstacle get in the way of pursuing her goals. Goncalves, a Class of 2011 Winthrop High graduate, has been helped greatly along the way by her mother, Sandra, a single parent who always gave her daughter every opportunity to excel in any endeavor. That teamwork of mother and daughter has produced a momentous achievement: Olivia Goncalves is a new member of the United States Marine Corps.

Town Meeting's second session Monday night showed sharp disagreement among the members and boards, as department heads from the School Department and library made pleas for Town Meeting not to cut their budgets. In the end, Town Meeting voted to use $135,000 from the Stabilization Fund for the schools and library. However, Town Meeting also voted to eliminate a variety of positions in other departments, including inspectional services, parks, the Council on Aging, and the Animal Control Officer.

The 110 members of the WHS Class of 2002 received their diplomas Sunday in exercises that began in the high school auditorium under a threat of rain, but ended on Miller Field when the sun broke through. Valedictorian Gerta Sinani and Salutatorian Newton Ikhariale gave inspiring speeches and Class President Corinne Petraglia also spoke to her classmates.

Most of the delegates to the Democratic State Convention expressed dissatisfaction with the logistics and handling of the process. Winthrop Democratic Town Committee Chairman Joseph Ferrino termed it "horrendous." Local delegates split their support for the gubernatorial nomination between Senate President Tom Birmingham and State Treasurer Shannon O'Brien, who won the convention's endorsement on the third ballot.

State and local officials rededicated French Square last week with a ribbon-cutting ceremony to mark the conclusion of the revitalization of Winthrop Centre. Gov. William Weld was supposed to attend, but could not make it. Funds for the project were obtained by the town through a grant from the State Office of Community Development.

Saturday's annual Winthrop Hospital/Mike Eruzione Gold Medal Day was a huge success. More than 450 runners competed in the 10K Road Race, which was the championship race of the New England Athletic Congress Grand Prix series.

The Board of Appeals heard a petition from Thomas Green, owner of G&G Removal at 248 Revere St., for a permit to accept recyclables in seven bays on his property. However, town officials who spoke against the petition said that there are no by-laws permitting a recycling facility in the town.

Town officials told a Special Town Meeting of the steps they are taking to recover up the $830,000 in town funds that presently are in jeopardy in the wake of the takeover by the FDIC of the defunct Surety Bank and Trust Company of Wakefield. The town thus far has received a check for only about $260,000 of the money the town had on deposit. Town Counsel Joseph Harvey said the town can make the argument that some of the money represented pension funds for about 200 town employees, most of whom had less than the $20,000 which is covered by FDIC insurance. However, Harvey said that most of the money, which the town had set aside for the construction of the new junior high school, may be lost.

The Rapid Transit Company, which carries 4500 Winthrop fares daily, said it may have to reduce service drastically if its subsidy from the MBTA is reduced.

One of the hottest town meetings in town history, already fired up by a final flurry of letters to the editor, charges, and countercharges, gets underway Monday with the subject being the construction of new schools, including a new senior high school. Although most agree that a new high school should be built at Veterans Field, the battle lines have been drawn over the issue of whether it should be a three year or a four year school.

The 196 members of the WHS class of 1962 received their diplomas in exercises held Wednesday evening in Memorial Auditorium.

Winthrop residents who live along the inner harbor once again are being advised to hold their noses and close doors and windows in their homes, as it is expected that they will be in for another summer season of foul odors from rotting algae on mudflats at low tide. Experts in the field say the odors are expected to be even stronger than last year, which saw foul fumes strong enough to peel paint off houses.

OBITUARIES

Marina Demetriou

Gifted Pianist, Vocalist and former Director of Personnel for Lord & Taylor in Boston

On Saturday, May 28, Marina Demetriou, 85, of Naples, FL died unexpectedly in North Collier Hospital with her husband Steve at her side.

She was born in Brooklyn, NY, a daughter of the late Philip Pavles and Nellie Sommese Pavles. Marina grew up in New York City and graduated from High School of Music & Art. At the age of 17, she made her debut at Carnegie Hall as an opera singer. She furthered her education by attending New York University. Marina was a very gifted pianist and vocalist. She had accomplished not only speaking Greek and Italian, but was able to share the gift of music vocally in those languages and serenaded her family at holiday gatherings.

On June 30, 1955, Marina married Savvas "Steve" Demetriou. They met at a Greek event in New York and it was love at first sight. Steve and Marina lived and raised their family in Winthrop. While living in Winthrop, Marina worked as the Director of Personnel for Lord & Taylor in Boston. After retiring to Naples, FL in 1990, Marina sang for several years with the prestigious Naples Philharmonic Chorus.

Surviving are her husband of 66 years, Steve Demetriou; son, Steve (Dana) Demetriou of Dallas, TX; two daughters, Christina Demetriou of South Yarmouth and Nella Demetriou of Sarasota, FL. She also leaves seven grandchildren, six great grandchildren and two sisters, the Honorable Judge Harriett George and Diana (James) Obbard.

Friends are welcome on Friday, June 3 from 10 to 11 a.m. at St. Katherine Greek Orthodox Church, 7100 Airport Pulling Road, Naples, FL where a Funeral Service will follow at 11 a.m. Entombment will take place at Naples Memorial Gardens.

Grace Falzarano

Loving mother, aunt and grandmother

Grace O. "Candy" Falzarano of Winthrop passed away at the Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston on May 20. She was 76 years old.

Born in Boston, the beloved daughter of the late Elaine (Moriarty) and George Petrillo, she was a life-long resident of Winthrop and worked as a waitress for many years.

A Loving Mother, Aunt and Grandmother, in her younger years she was a fun-loving entertainer always singing, playing the guitar and bringing joy to everyone. She was a 45-year friend of Bill Wilson, always willing to help countless others, serving the Lord and always loving thy neighbor first! A Devout Catholic she will be loved in heaven singing with the Angels playing her guitar, while missed and forever loved on earth.

She was the loving mother of Donald Falzarano of Peabody and Roxanne Herger of Vancouver; dear sister of Elaine "Bunny" Covino of Revere, cherished grandmother of Isabella, Sophia, Luke, Matthew, Jessica, Vanessa and Meghan; great grandmother of Brooklyn and loving aunt of Richard Covino, Robyn Covino and the late Robert Covino.

Family and friends are cordially invited to attend the Funeral Mass in St. John the Evangelist Church, 320 Winthrop St., Winthrop on Monday, June 6 at 11:30 a.m. Services will conclude with the interment in the Cross Street section of Winthrop Cemetery. For directions or to sign the online guestbook, go to www.caggianofuneralhome.com.

Arrangements were under the direction of the Caggiano-O'Maley-Frazier Funeral Home, Winthrop.

Margaret Frances Hinckley

She was well loved and will be missed

Margaret (Peggy) Frances (Phinney) Hinckley passed away peacefully on Friday, May 27 at Sunrise at Gardner Park, Peabody surrounded by family.

She was born in Boston to Grace (Sullivan) Phinney and Hugh Phinney and lived most of her life in Winthrop.

Margaret graduated from Winthrop High School and obtained her bachelor's degree in English as well as graduate credits for Library Science from Salem State College. She married her high school sweetheart, Horace Vincent Hinckley, when he returned from service in the Pacific theater during WWII and together they raised their seven children who attended St. John the Evangelist School and Winthrop High School, well guided by their mother toward college and career readiness.

She was a communicant of St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church, raised her children in the faith and modeled organically what it meant to do God's work by nurturing her family, equipping her children to succeed and be of service in their adult lives and ministering to the needs of her elderly mother and aunt. She celebrated her family's special occasions and supported them through their challenges.

Once all of her children were in school, she began her secondary career working as an administrative assistant to the Visiting Nurses Association and Winthrop Hospital before combining her lifelong loves of literature and research and settling into her career as a public librarian at Winthrop Public Library.

While her greatest joy was to have her family gathered under her roof sharing each other's company and her home cooking, she also found satisfaction in researching and presenting information. Her interests included the History of Winthrop, its notable residents and the Narrow Gauge Railroad. Her research of the Boston Harbor islands helped protect them from being turned into airport runways and remain significant archaeological, historic and natural treasures.

Before and after her retirement, Margaret continued to provide books and literature to shut-ins, friends and family. She was known as "Grandma Books" by her grandchildren and great grandchildren. Despite her decline and her own challenges later in her life, she continued to cherish visits from loved ones and desired, as always, to be a part of their lives, supporting them in whatever way she could. She was well loved and will be missed.

Margaret was predeceased by her husband, Horace "Hink" Hinckley and son, Thomas Hinckley and is survived by her sister, Marylou (Phinney) Strain, as well as her remaining children and their spouses, Claire and Dan Wholley, Martha and Don Neufeld, Christine and Grayson Holl and daughter-in-law, Cynthia Hinckley, Louis and Lee Hinckley, Francis and Pamela Hinckley and Mary Beth and Jay Smith, as well as her grandchildren, Rebecca, Samuel and Matthias Wholley, Nathan Nemeth, Anthony and Dominic Foti, Christopher Hinckley, Lydia Hinckley, Nicholas Hinckley, Rachael (Hinckley) Corcoran, Benjamin Hinckley, Eric, Abigail, Hannah, and Noah Smith, 12 great-grandchildren, and many beloved nieces, nephews and their families.

Margaret's funeral was held in St. John the Evangelist Church, 320 Winthrop St. Winthrop, on Wednesday, June 1 at 10 a.m. Interment was in Winthrop Cemetery (Belle Isle Section). Donations in her memory can be made to Care Dimensions Hospice, 75

Sylvan St., Suite B102, Danvers, MA 01923.

Funeral arrangements were from the Maurice W. Kirby Funeral Home, 210 Winthrop St., Winthrop. To sign Margaret's guestbook, please visit: www.mauricekirbyfh.com

John Martin Cross

Revere Journal retiree, Suffolk Downs Trainer and avid sportsman

John Martin Cross died peacefully at his home in Winthrop on May 26 after a long battle with vascular dementia. He was 87 years old.

The beloved husband of 65 years of Frances Marie (Stavredes) Cross, he was born in Chelsea, the cherished son of the late Earl Lester "Babe" and Alice M. (Grady) Cross.

John was an avid sportsman. He played on multiple softball teams in Winthrop, Revere and East Boston. His favorite moment of all time was pitching for the Royals at the softball nationals in Georgia. In his later years, John could be found playing golf at the Winthrop Golf Club where he enjoyed meeting his friends. John was also a member of the Winthrop Lodge of Elks #1078.

Upon retiring from the Journal Publishing Company (Revere Journal), John worked as a trainer at Suffolk Downs Horse Racing Track, which was a lifelong dream.

His competitive nature had shown the brightest when he played with his children and grandchildren in all types of games that included swimming, cornhole, touch football and jarts at his favorite vacation spot, Sesuit Harbor Beach on Cape Cod. Those days spent with his family at the beach were some of John's fondest memories.

John was the devoted father of the late Theodore E. "Teddy" Cross and his wife, Virginia "Ginger," Pamela J. Hinckley and her husband, Francis, Julie Ann Andrews and her husband, Phil Bourgelais and Aimee L. Carter and her husband, John. He was the adored grandfather of John Cross and his wife, Cheryl, Jesse Cross and his soon to be wife, Tanya Spitaleri, Nicholas Hinckley and his fiancé, Allison Gould, Rachael Corcoran and her husband, Patrick and Benjamin Hinckley and his partner, Paige Nye, Christian Andrews and his partner, Kasey Harding, Caroline M. Carter and John C. Carter and the loving great-grandfather of Lana, Lilah and Penny Cross and Callan Corcoran. John was the dear brother of the late Earl T. Cross, and uncle to Mary Blue Anderson and Dear Friends of the Family, Dawn (Woods) Dagg and Laurie Acone.

At the family's request, John's funeral service was private. Donations in his memory can be made to Care Dimensions Hospice, 75 Sylvan St., Suite B-102, Danvers, MA 01923. Funeral arrangements were from the Maurice W. Kirby Funeral Home, 210 Winthrop St., Winthrop. To sign John's guestbook, please visit: www.mauricekirbyfh.com.

Anna Mathios

Retired Shore Collaborative Teacher's Aide

Anna M. Mathios of Winthrop passed away at the Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston on May 25. She was 82 years old.

Born in East Boston, the beloved daughter of the late Christina (Capone) and Michael Masello, she was a resident of Winthrop for over 50 years and worked as a teacher's aide at Shore Collaborative prior to her retirement.

She was the devoted wife of Spiros Mathios and the loving mother of Sophia Aravena and her husband, Carlos of Winthrop; dear sister of Helen Biddle of Florida and the late Joseph Masello and cherished grandmother of Carla, Ana, Christina, Sofia and Carlos Jr.

Her funeral was conducted from the Caggiano-O'Maley-Frazier Funeral Home on May 31 followed by a Funeral Mass in St. John the Evangelist Church. Services concluded with interment in the Belle Isle section of Winthrop Cemetery.

ication ceremony held on May 26 in Winthrop.

Winkler, the franchise co-owner of Sea Tow Boston for 29 years, passed away suddenly on July 16, 2021 at the age of 73 following a lifelong career in the boating industry. Prior to establishing Sea Tow Boston with his brother Dave, he served 14 years as president of Duplin Marine, and nine years as general manager of Community Boating Inc. In addition, Winkler held a 100-ton Near Coastal Master, Captain's License from the U.S. Coast Guard.

The Sea Tow Foundation hosted a special dedication in Winkler's memory at his personal boating venue of choice, the Cottage Park Yacht Club in Winthrop. Donations were submitted to the national, non-profit organization Sea Tow Foundation from members of Winkler's local boating community as well as from friends and colleagues throughout the country as a tribute to his lifelong focus on instilling boating safety and education. The decision was made to use these funds to establish a Life Jacket Loaner Station with custom signage in his honor, and to do so at his hometown yacht club during National Safe Boating Week.

Several speakers paid tribute to Winkler including Cottage Park Yacht Club Past-Commodore Peter Towner; US Coast Guard Sector Boston Commander Joel Carse; Ray Julian of the USCG Auxiliary; Capt. Dave Winkler, brother and current franchise owner of Sea Tow Boston; and Gail R. Kulp, Executive Director of the Sea Tow Foundation. Family, friends, colleagues and community leaders along with other Sea Tow captains also attended the special gathering.

"We are so very pleased to honor the life of Capt. Steve Winkler and appreciate his countless contributions to the boating community over many decades throughout the Greater Boston area," said Sea Tow Foundation Executive Director Gail R. Kulp. "This Life Jacket Loaner Station established in his memory will be a lasting legacy for years to come, while extending a wonderful, free service to area boaters. We are especially pleased to time our commemoration during National Safe Boating Week, as Steve was such a champion and advocate for boating safety."

Following the ceremony, Sea Tow Boston's new 27-foot Ameracat towing and assistance vessel was on display for the first time at the Cottage Park Yacht Club, named the Steven W. Winkler in honor of the late franchise owner.

With a vision of a world where boaters are safe and responsible, the Sea Tow Foundation – a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization – was established in 2007.

Through the Foundation's Life Jacket Loaner Program, which prevents drowning, more than 90,000 life jackets are available to borrow and return free of charge at over 950 life jacket loaner stations located across the United States. The Sea Tow Foundation's Sober Skipper Campaign aims to eliminate boating under the influence accidents by encouraging boaters to be or designate a sober skipper before each boating trip. And the Foundation's Boating Safety Advisory Council presents the National Boating Industry Safety Awards annually to for-profit boating businesses who promote and advocate for safe boating. For more information on the Sea Tow Foundation, please visit boating-safety.com.

For the first time ever, the Class Day and Graduation exercises of the WHS Class of 1942 were held on the same day on May 28. After the Class Day banquet and dancing in the gymnasium, the grads gathered for the traditional ivy planting ceremony at 5:30 and then marched en masse to the Winthrop Theatre to receive their diplomas.

Identification cards for members of the Public Safety Committee who have been photographed are available at the police station.

The Elks' several weeks of preparation for a gala Flag Day event at Miller Field on June 14 will feature a stage with seating for the officers and 200 persons. News writer and radio commentator Bill Cunningham, known as one of the best orators in this part of the country for his fiery, two-fisted speeches, will be the guest speaker. A gala parade will precede the ceremonies at

The first graduation day at Winthrop High School took place yesterday afternoon when a goodly number of citizens and parents attended the school to listen to the exercises of the children, who acquitted themselves in a very creditable manner, which reflects great credit upon their master, Rev. L.O. Frost. Many of our town residents are not aware that a thorough high school education can be pursued at our high school. Those who received their diplomas were Miss E. Carter, Miss Lilly Russell Pierce, and Miss Florence Louis Pomeroy.

CAPPUCCIO WINS TWO MEDALS AT STATE MEET

Freshman Nicholas Cappuccio earned two medals at this past week-end's Division 6 State Meet.

Nicholas brought home a sixth-place medal in the 200 meter dash and a fifth-place medal in the long jump. Medals, and points, are awarded to the top eight finishers in each event.

In the 200 dash event, Nicholas placed second in the heats with a time of 22.93 seconds. His sprint of 22.55 in the final brought him across the line in sixth-place.

In the long jump, his flight of 20'-4.5" earned him a fifth-place ranking.

Cappuccio also qualified for the state meet in the 100 meter dash. His time of 11.68 ranked 15th among the field.

WHS BASEBALL TEAM ENDS REGULAR SEASON; AWAITS TOURNAMENT MATCHUP

The Winthrop High baseball team ended the season on a winning note with a victory over Chelsea last Thursday.

The triumph boosted the Vikings to the .500 mark with a record of 10-10, the first time since 2008 that a Winthrop baseball squad has attained a .500 record.

Winthrop wasted little time in assuring that the game would enter the win column. Pete Silverman and Colin Kinsella socked back-to-back home runs to start the game. Joe Ferullo, the Vikings' starting pitcher, had a good day at the plate, helping his own cause by going 3-for-4 with 3 RBI.

Joe Hayes went 2-for-4 on the day and Evan Rockefeller placed an exclamation point onto the Viking victory with a grand slam in the fourth inning.

Ferullo tossed three strong innings, striking out eight Red Devil opponents.

"All in all it was a whole team performance," said WHS head coach Mark DeGregorio. "It was great to see the team end the season with a win. I have been stressing to the team over the past few weeks we needed to get to 10 wins to earn the tournament bid. We knew that we were currently in based on the power rankings, but I wanted to see them earn it based on their record and not worry about where we fell with the power rankings on May 31st."

"I think it was a harder feat than just getting in based on power rankings and teams that you play," DeGregorio continued. "We play in a very tough conference, and we have had some signature wins this year with three seventh-inning walk offs vs. Peabody, Danvers, and Lowell Catholic. We also had a great win versus another tough conference team in Saugus who is playoff-bound in Division 3. The coaches have always believed in this team and it has been great to see the team earn a tournament bid."

"This was a nice way to close out the season," added DeGregorio. "We feel as though there were some games that we were in earlier in the year that we could have won, but all in all I am overjoyed with where this team is right now and where the program currently is."

"It has been a long year and the hard work of my fellow coaches has helped contribute to the success of this program," DeGregorio noted. "The dedication from Anthony Sorrentino, Joseph Murphy, Michael Vatalaro, Neil Cacciola, and Eric Mathieu has been greatly appreciated. The kids have learned so much from this group and has set us up for success, hopefully for years to come. I also would like to thank Frankie Fabiano for coaching with us this year.

He has been great for the kids this year and assisted us with our big win over Peabody with his speech before the game that got all the kids motivated."

The Vikings received some standout performances from a host of players. The pitching staff was led by the duo of Cam Martin and Zach Bogusz. Cam finished the season with a 3.75 ERA and 49 strikeouts in 36 innings pitched. Zach struck out 31 batters in 25.1 innings pitched. Winthrop also received many clutch pitching performances from freshman Jay Fotiades, who accumulated the second-most appearances on the mound this season.

DeGregorio stressed being aggressive on the base paths in order to score runs and the emphasis paid off. Winthrop stole a total of 72 bases this year and at a very high clip -- the Vikings were close to 90% successful on stolen base attempts.

Colin Kinsella led Winthrop in the SB category with 12 stolen bases on 12 attempts, a rare feat for a catcher.

Winthrop scored 125 runs this year in 20 games. Pete Silverman, the Vikings' lead-off hitter, led the team with a total of 16 runs scored on the season.

"Our goal going into the year was to score 6-7 runs per game and that put us at our number," said DeGregorio.

In the hitting department, a number of Vikings turned in outstanding seasons at the plate.

Winthrop's top four hitters in batting average were all underclassmen, which bodes well for the future. Junior Colin Kinsella led the team with a .425 batting average, including three doubles, four triples, a home run, and 14 RBI. Colin also finished with an on base percentage (OBP) of .559 and a slugging percentage of .723.

Sophomore Matt DeCarney finished with a .405 batting average and solidified himself as a steady hitter who can be depended upon each and every game.

Sophomore Pete Silverman finished with a .327 batting average, a .463 OBP, and also recorded 11 steals for the year. "Pete was a tone setter for us all year," said DeGregorio.

Freshman Phil Boncore batted .319, "which is rare for a freshman to have so much success against solid varsity pitching," DeGregorio noted.

Winthrop also had a pair of seniors, Joseph Hayes and Joseph Ferullo, who contributed greatly to the Vikings' success this year at the plate. Hayes finished with a batting average of just under .300 and led the team in home runs with two. He also swiped eight bases and delivered some of the most-timely hits throughout the season.

Ferullo also finished with a batting average just under .300 and contributed 10 RBI for the year.

"We also had some great defense this year from so many players," said DeGregorio. "We knew going in that our defense had to be strong in order to compete. That was exemplified by some great defensive outings this year from second baseman Chris Gibbons, shortstop Joseph Hayes, first baseman Zach Bogusz, and outfielder Pete Silverman. That is just to name a few of some of our defensive contributors.

"We are very excited for the tournament and hope to compete at a high level over the next few weeks to try and make a run in Division 4," DeGregorio added. "This is a very different year and I told the team they must be ready. There are potentially 35-36 teams making the tournament in Division 4 this year, compared to only 11 last year. We must be ready for tough competition and understand that to make a run we must be ready day in and day out."

The Vikings were expected to learn of their final seeding and first-round opponent yesterday (Wednesday).

WHS BOYS LACROSSE COMPLETES FINE SEASON

The Winthrop High boys lacrosse team, which competed on a club level this season, wrapped up its 2022 campaign on a high note with a 10-0 victory over the Revere varsity squad last week.

The triumph gave coach Brian Donnelly and his crew a superb final mark of 14-1.

In addition, prior to the Revere contest, the Vikings avenged their lone loss of the year, defeating the Danvers junior varsity squad by a score of 16-8.

"We received goals from all over our lineup in the Danvers game," said Donnelly, "and then we went on to beat Revere's varsity team, 10-0.

"In the Revere game, we were able to take control early, which allowed some of our players to try some different positions and for some of our more inexperienced guys to get some good minutes," Donnelly added.

"Overall, I am very happy with how the season went," Donnelly continued. "I think we made the right decision going down to a club/JV team for the season to get everyone more experience, have some competitive games, and develop our fundamentals.

"Robert Rich was an excellent leader and an unbelievable offensive weapon," said Donnelly. "He led the team in both goals and assists. His athleticism and stick skills create a lot of opportunity for other players to get open and thrive.

"Hunter Fife was another awesome captain who held it down in net for us, averaging well over 10 saves per game and giving our defense the confidence to play aggressively," Donnelly said.

"Our defensive corps of Donovan Cassidy, Dan Tomi, and eighth grader Dylan Hovermale played shut down defense all year," the coach said. "They improved their stick skills throughout the year to be able to clear the ball well.

"Once Jack Hayes came back from injury, he made a massive impact and proved to be the best pure shooter on our team," Donnelly continued. "He also came through with some great face-off wins in close games that gave us the advantage we needed to win.

"The future is bright, with many sophomores and freshmen stepping up and contributing big, including Colin Cifuni, Michael Holgerson, Glenn Calla, and Stephen Lindinger," said Donnelly.

"With everyone returning besides Dylan Hovermale, who will take his talents to the Voke, and some promising eighth graders coming up next year who have developed in the feeder program, we are excited to make a return to the NEC and compete against some talented teams. If our players put in the time in the off season to develop some fundamentals and mature mentally and physically, we will be in a good position to make waves next year."

WHS SOFTBALL ENDS YEAR ON WINNING NOTE

The Winthrop High softball team wrapped up its 2022 campaign on a winning note with a victory over Chelsea last week.

Senior captain Summer Tallent led the way for the Lady Vikings, going 3-for-4 with three runs scored and two RBI.

Other major contributors to the winning Winthrop effort were Lily Tallent (2-for-3, three RBI, two runs scored, including a home run), Izzy Cash (2-for-4, including two homers, a walk, three RBI, and three runs scored), and Sammy Harrison (2-for-3 with an RBI and two runs scored).

Ava Martello tossed three innings, allowing one hit, one run, walking one, and fanning five.

McKenzie Margardo pitched a scoreless frame, striking out two.

Summer Tallent led the Lady Vikings in the hitting department in 2022 with a batting average of .477 and an on-base percentage of .493. She also was the team leader in hits with 31, doubles with five, and RBI with 15.

Izzy Cash was next in BA at .400 and was the extra-base leader with four doubles, two triples, and two homers. Izzy also contributed 13 RBI.

Lily Tallent had a .385 average with two homers, three doubles, a triple, and 11 RBI.

Ava Martello hit .380 with three doubles and 14 RBI.

Amelia Spencer hit .358 with five doubles, two triples, and reached double figures in RBI with 11.

refereeing career in 2018. Both are graduates of Suffolk University. Gena is also close friends with Vasili's cousin, former Winthrop High basketball standout Nikki Tsiotos.

"Vasili was my mentor when I first started refereeing," said Restiano. "He was the one who helped guide me through the IAABO candidates' process and written exam."

Like many other college basketball fans, Gena watched Vasili referee the Vermont-UMBC America East championship game on ESPN2 in March.

"He did a great job," said Restiano. "His refereeing techniques are awesome and from speaking with him, his knowledge of the rules is so impressive."

Gena reached out again to Vasili before her own college basketball refereeing tryout, a session at the M-Plex facility in Mansfield that drew 65 candidates, of which only 12 were women.

"I contacted Vasili before I went to my tryout and he was so helpful and encouraging," said Gena. "It's been inspiring watching him referee some big-time college basketball. He's a really good guy."

Restiano excelled at her on-court tryout session during which she refereed four games and her technique was evaluated by a panel of long-time college basketball referees. She has now received her certification as a women's college basketball referee and will make her debut as a Division 3 college basketball official at the start of the 2022-23 season.

Like her mentor, Vasili Mallios, Gena Restiano hopes to soar through the officiating ranks, with Division 1 women's basketball, the WNBA, and the NBA among her long-range goals.

As she embarks on her new journey, Restiano will be continuing in her full-time position as a physical education teacher at Chelsea High School. She is also pursuing her Master's degree in Education with a concentration in Physical Education from Salem State University.

Suffolk District Attorney Kevin Hayden launches pilot alternative justice program

Staff Report

Suffolk District Attorney Kevin Hayden announced the creation of a restorative justice pilot program that will bring victims, offenders and community members together to create a case resolution option outside of the traditional court sentencing process.

The Suffolk Restorative Justice (SRJ) program will roll out in Chelsea District Court and the Charlestown and Roxbury Divisions of Boston Municipal Court.

Restorative justice is a voluntary, inclusive, confidential and collaborative process by which offenders, victims and members of the community identify and address harms, as well as any needs and obligations resulting from an offense, to help all parties understand the impact of that offense. During the restorative justice process the offender accepts responsibility for their actions and is supported in making reparations to the victim or community harmed. Restorative justice is an essential component to allow for community healing and restoration.

Hayden, who has championed progressive approaches to criminal system matters since starting as a prosecutor in the 1990s and has instituted major alternative-to-prosecution programs and diversion initiatives as DA, said the participants in the program “will collaborate on guided resolutions that feature both healing and accountability.”

“We’re always seeking paths to justice that take an innovative approach beyond the traditional adjudication and sentencing route. Restorative justice is a perfect example of the types of approaches modern prosecution offices should embrace. The results for participating victims, community members, and offenders can be immensely powerful,” Hayden said.

The program will include pre-adjudication cases that fall within the final jurisdiction of the district or municipal court and do not carry a mandatory minimum, do not involve allegations of sexual assault, violence against children, elders, intimate partners, persons with disabilities, serious bodily injury or death.

The applicants could include victims, defendants and/or their attorneys, Suffolk County community members impact by crimes, and law enforcement agencies.

Hayden’s office is partnering with Communities for Restorative Justice (C4RJ) on the SRJ program. C4RJ will facilitate the restorative process and will communicate status updates throughout a case to stakeholders and provide a conclusion memo at the end.

C4RJ Executive Director Erin Freeborn said, “As a community-based restorative justice program, C4RJ provides a process toward healing and repair for victims, communities, and responsible parties while minimizing further involvement with the system. As we continue to expand access to restorative justice in Suffolk County, launching this pilot out of the Charlestown, Roxbury, and Chelsea courts is a significant stride. We are inspired by the long-time commitment at the SCD-AO to restorative practices and are excited to support the DA’s office as it launches a formal referral process for cases at the district court level in an effort to center the needs of victims and communities, while supporting responsible parties, and building up an infrastructure for alternative approaches to cases.”

BOOK REVIEW

'A Rabble of Dead Money: The Great Crash and the Global Depression' by Charles Morris Reviewed By Bernie Kelly

“A Rabble of Dead
Money” by Charles R.
Morris is an informative study of the crash of 1929 and the Great Depression that followed. Morris has an inquisitive mind, and he explores the magnitude of the world's most financial disaster.

The book opens with a history of the Jazz Age of the 1920's when all seemed to be on the upswing. From innovators like Edison to Ford, Morris explicates the advances in technology that made America the financial and cultural behemoth that it was to become. Part one of the book ranges from the extravaganzas of New York City to the sociological studies of the Midwest, best exemplified by Muncie, Indiana. Everything was going well throughout the Twenties, and in Herbert Hoover, Americans thought they had elected the ideal president to lead them through good times.

Unfortunately, this was not the case. In October of 1929, the Stock Market collapsed, sending shock waves throughout the country and the world.

Millions of people lost their jobs, which in turn forced people and families to frequent bread lines and soup kitchens, which thankfully sprung up on city boulevards. The unemployed took to selling apples in order to achieve some kind of income.

Hoover was nonplussed
by the whole experience, despite having extensive experience as a food insecurity specialist; During World War 1, and later in Belgium, Germany and Russia. Due to his inaction, the populace from the United States sought relief from the opposition party electing Democrat Franklin D. Roosevelt to the presidency in 1932.

The second half of the book is largely devoted to Roosevelt's New Deal.
The president instituted a number of programs, including the Civilian Conservation Corps, the WPA and the Tennessee Valley Authority to assist unemployed workers attain a source of income. We also began a series of welfare programs to help the poor.

Morris also details the events that led up to World War 2. He doesn't dwell on them, but does maintain that it was not the War that brought us out of the Depression.

The Great Depression was one of the most traumatizing occurrences in the nation's history, and Morris does a nice job of restructuring Roosevelt's response to it. The New Deal exacerbated the restoration of the physical and mental health of the country's citizens. Without Roosevelt, millions of people would have augmented the history they felt due to straited economic circumstances.

Charles R. Morris is a prolific writer. He has penned fifteen books.
Among his works are “Comeback, America's new Economic Boom”
“The Sages, Warren Buffet,
George Soros, Paul Volcker
and the maelstrom of Markets”, and “The Tycoons:
How Andrew Carnegie,

J o h n
D Rockefeller, Jay Gould and J.P. Morgan invented the American Super Economy.”

Morris is a lawyer and a former banker, and he has written extensively on matters economic. His articles and reviews have appeared in many publications.

‘A Rabble of Dead
Money’ is an excellent study of the Great Depression and its repercussions, both here in the U.S. and abroad. Morris has crafted a work of art. Enjoy your reading!

WINTHROP AMERICAN LEGION POST 146 AND WINTHROP LODGE OF ELKS 1078
HOST ANNUAL MEMORIAL DAY SERVICES

The Winthrop Am-Vets Post 146 remembered their fallen comrades with their annual Memorial Day services behind the Winthrop Lodge of Elks, dockside. The Winthrop Lodge of Elks 1078 gracefully hosts the event and readily takes a part in the services as well. Winthrop's Director of Veterans Services, Roseann Trionfi-Mazzuchelli officiates the event and takes a very active part in all services and programs for the Winthrop veterans' groups.
