School Committee approves policy overhaul

By Laura Plummer

The Winthrop School Committee met on Tuesday, where it approved a policy overhaul.

Policy Review

The committee will be working with the Mass. Assoc. of School Committees to realize an extensive review and update of all its policies, around 500 of them.

"This is a liability and compliance issue," explained Supt. Lisa Howard. "We have policies that are outdated and we are probably lacking policies that we should have."

"This is a long overdue look at what we have in place to determine what revisions are needed," she continued. "It will also make the policies more accessible to students, parents, and the community."

The policy update process comes with an initial investment is $10,500 and could take up to three years.

Results of the review will then be available online for community members to see.

Other News

The district is starting a new system for monitoring progress in social emotional learning for students in grades K to 12. The system will highlight areas in need of improvement. Teachers will assess students throughout the year, and students in grade three and above will assess themselves as well. The system also provides age-relevant class lessons meant to enhance social and emotional intelligence.

There is a total of 1,958 students, including 15 international students, enrolled in Winthrop Public Schools this year: 494 at the Gorman Fort Banks, 426 at Cummings Elementary School, 426 at the Middle School, and 597 at the High School.

MBTA student bus passes are available to students at a discounted rate.

Winthrop joins MBTA Youth Pass Program

Special to the Transcript

The MBTA and the Town of Winthrop are pleased to announce that Winthrop has joined the T's Youth Pass program, which helps provide affordable transit access for young people with low-income.

"We're excited to see Winthrop partner with us on the Youth Pass program, and join our growing list of participating municipal partners in offering the Youth Pass's benefits to so many eligible young people," said MBTA General Manager Steve Poflak. "The Youth Pass provides discounted fares to eligible young people with half-off one-way fares and monthly passes for just $30. Better access to transit is a critical component in increasing broad access to jobs and educational opportunities, and we're so glad to see this option now provided to young adults in the Winthrop community."

"Winthrop is excited to join this program and offer this valuable service to our eligible youth," said Winthrop Town Manager Tony Marino. "Having this service makes it easier for our young people to get to work and other programs offered in the surrounding Cities and Towns. Special thanks to the MBTA and all involved for making this a reality!"

The Youth Pass is a card that can be used by eligible young adults with low incomes to purchase roughly 50% reduced one-way fares and/or $10 7-Day LinkPasses or $30 monthly LinkPasses for the bus, subway, and Commuter Rail Zone 1A stations at MBTA Fare Vending Machines, the CharlieCard Store, fare boxes on buses and trolleys at street-level stops, or at retail sales locations. Youth Pass cards can also be used to purchase

Healey, Diehl top tickets in Winthrop and statewide

By Adam Swift

Winthrop voters largely fell in line with voters across the state during Tuesday's primary election.

Attorney General Maura Healey topped the Democratic ticket for governor, while Trump-backed former State Representative Geoff Diehl doubled up Chris Doughty's vote total in Winthrop on the Republican side. Healey and Diehl will square off in the state general election on Nov. 8.

Healey finished with 1,760 of the 2,021 votes cast for governor on the Democratic ballot. State Senator Sonia Chang-Diaz, who withdrew from the race but was still on the ballot, finished with 252 votes.

Diehl garnered 457 of the 678 votes cast for governor on the Republican ballot to Doughty's 220.

In the lieutenant governor's race, Salem mayor Kim Driscoll easily outdistanced the other two candidates in Winthrop and statewide, and will be on the ticket with Healey. On the Republican side, Leah Allen topped Kate Campanale 409 to 224 locally. Statewide, Allen was less than 10,000 votes ahead of Campanale as of Wednesday morning.

The toughest local contest on the ballot was the Democratic race for Suffolk County District Attorney between current DA Kevin Hayden and Boston City Councilor Ricardo Arroyo. Hayden was the projected winner of the race, and in Winthrop, he easily topped Arroyo, 1,357 to 553.

Other Democratic races where Winthrop fell in line with the statewide winners included auditor, attorney general, and secretary of state.

Locally, Andrea Campbell outpaced Shannon Liss-Riordan in the AG's race 1,007 to 699. Longtime Secretary of State William Galvin outpolled Tanisha Sullivan 1,595 to 437, and Diana DiZoglio beat Christopher Dempsey 977 to 885.

Winthrop State Representative Jeff Turco ran unopposed in the Democratic primary and faces no competition on the ballot in the general election in November. Likewise, State Senator Lydia Edwards and Congresswoman Katherine Clark ran unopposed in the primary.

Edwards faces no competition in November, while Clark will face Republican nominee Caroline Colarusso, who ran unopposed in the Republican primary.

CLIMATE CHANGE IS EVERYWHERE, ALL AT ONCE

About a dozen years ago, the New York Times columnist and Pulitzer Prize-winning author Tom Friedman wrote a column in which he explained that "global warming" was a misnomer for the coming changes to the earth's environment. He quoted some climate scientists who suggested that the more-appropriate way to think about the coming changes in our weather pattern is to call it "global weirding."

That's because, wrote Friedman, the effects of spewing fossil fuels into the environment will not become manifest in something as benign-sounding as "global warming." After all, if the planet gets a little bit warmer, the term "global warming" suggests that we only need to crank up the AC in the summer and we can turn down our thermostats in the winter. No big deal, right?

But by using the term "global weirding," the scientists were telling us that extreme weather events, fueled by a warming atmosphere, would become the norm in every part of the globe.

Consider that in this summer alone, the American West is facing a drought that appears to be the worst in 1200 years and the northeast is also now experiencing drought conditions.

Yet at the same time, record rainfalls have brought about floods that have overwhelmed St. Louis, Kentucky, Yellowstone National Park, Dallas, Mississippi, and Georgia.

Boise, Idaho just experienced its hottest August and has seen the most days over 100 degrees (already at 22) in a year since the city's record-keeping began in 1875.

Some parts of China are experiencing their longest sustained heat wave since record-keeping began in 1961, according to China's National Climate Center, leading to manufacturing shutdowns owing to a lack of hydropower because of dried-up rivers.

Yet there also has been dramatic flooding in other parts of the country where the highest-ever water levels in history have been recorded on some rivers.

Parts of Japan are in extreme drought and that country recently endured its hottest June since record-keeping began in 1874.

In Europe, the drought affecting Spain, Portugal, France, and Italy is on track to be the worst in 500 years.

Yet two weeks ago, torrential rains once again drenched England, turning London's streets into rivers and flooding the underground train system. Oh, and London earlier this summer recorded its hottest day on record that precipitated wildfires in the city's outskirts.

A dozen years after Mr. Friedman's column, the term "global warming" has been retired and we now use the more-accurate term of climate change.

On the other hand, given how crazy the weather has been all across the planet these past few weeks, "global weirding" does have a better ring of truth to it.

But whatever we want to call it, it is clear that there is no escaping the inevitable effects of our warming planet -- and about the only thing we can say for sure is that things are going to get a lot worse.

While we certainly applaud the recently-passed bill (the so-called Inflation Reduction Act) by Congress that will set the U.S. on a world-leading path to reducing fossil fuel emissions, we can't help but think that it is too little, too late.

SERENA WILLIAMS IS AN INSPIRATION FOR EVERYBODY

We wish to add our voice to the universal acclaim for tennis star Serena Williams, who played her last match this past week at the U.S. Open.

The life story of Serena and her sister Venus, as depicted in the movie King Richard (named after their father), would be too fantastical even for Hollywood if it were not true.

Their rise from the hard-scrabble asphalt courts of Compton, California, to the pinnacle of tennis greatness, in which they overcame the obstacles of overt racism and near-poverty, serves as an inspiration for all of us. Their success is a testament to the virtues of hard work, dedication, and perseverance in the face of adversity.

We congratulate Serena Williams on her success as the greatest female athlete of all time and wish her the best of luck in her life off the court in the years ahead.

Massachusetts Department of Environmental Protection waste ban on mattresses, box springs and textiles goes into effect November 1

By Wendy Millar Page

What does this mean to you as a resident of Winthrop, MA?

MassDEP issued its final 2030 Solid Waste Master Plan. The final Master Plan establishes goals to reduce disposal statewide by 30 percent (from 5.7 million tons in 2018 to 4 million tons in 2030) over the next decade. It sets a long-term goal of achieving a 90 percent reduction in disposal to 570,000 tons by 2050. Among its strategies for reaching these objectives, MassDEP will expand its current waste disposal bans by:

- Lowering the threshold on commercial organic/food waste to facilities generating more than one-half ton of these materials per week; and
- Adding mattresses, box springs and textiles to the list of materials banned from disposal or transport for disposal in Massachusetts.

The Town of Winthrop Department of Public Works, Solid Waste and Recycling department has worked with the MassDEP, and our vendors to provide a way for residents to comply with the new waste bans. Eliminating these items from our waste stream will boost recycling and support the recycling industry, which contributes thousands of jobs and millions of dollars to the Massachusetts economy. By cutting down on disposal, the waste bans also help us capture valuable resources, save energy, reduce greenhouse gas emissions, and lessen our reliance on landfills

Mattress and Box Spring Recovery for Recycling in Winthrop

What type(s) of mattresses are subject to the mattress waste disposal ban?

Mattresses are defined in the regulations as "any resilient material or combination of materials that is enclosed by ticking, used alone or in combination with other products, and that is intended for sleeping upon, except for mattresses that are contaminated with mold, bodily fluids, insects, oil, or hazardous substances. Mattress includes any foundation or box spring. "Mattress" does not include any mattress pad, mattress topper, sleeping bag, pillow, car bed, carriage, basket, dressing table, stroller, playpen, infant carrier, lounge pad, crib bumper, liquid, or gaseous filled ticking, including any waterbed and any air mattress that does not contain upholstery material between the ticking and the mattress core, and mattresses in futons and sofa beds." All sizes of mattresses are included under the ban: California king, king, queen, full, twin XL, twin, and crib mattresses. What about full-foam or latex mattresses, or "mattresses in a box"? Yes, those specific mattress products are included in the waste ban. What determines whether a mattress is "clean" enough to be recycled? This should be determined working with your mattress recycling vendor. Under the state contract for mattress recycling, customers shall adhere to all acceptance and storage criteria for mattresses as specified by the Vendor and will be responsible for the disposal of any mattresses that do not meet the recycling acceptance criteria. They shall not send for recycling:

- Excessively torn, punctured, soiled or moldy items
- Twisted or crushed mattresses or broken box springs
- Wet or frozen mattresses or box springs
- Mattresses or box springs infested with bed bugs or other pests
- Futon mattresses, fold-out sofa beds
- Mattress pads or toppers
- Infant sleeping pads; air or water beds; any other furniture or textiles

Capitol Waste is doing a bi-weekly collection of mattresses and box springs on Fridays. (Every other week.) This program will begin the first week of November. Residents must call Capitol Waste directly at 617-569-1718 to schedule and provide payment for pick up. Items must be on the curb before 7 am on the scheduled collection day. Items that are heavily soiled, moldy, mangled, infested with bed bugs or otherwise unrecyclable are not permitted. There will be a $35 surcharge for any items rejected at the facility, payable by the resident. Capitol Waste will charge $70 for the first item and $45 for each additional item. Up to 3 items at each address will be allowed per collection day. There will be a $25 surcharge to the resident for items scheduled for pickup and not at the curb when the truck arrives for collection. Cancellations must take place by the day before collection. Residents will not be charged for timely 24-hour advance cancellations.

The online sales of Orange Bulk Item Stickers mattresses and box springs will no longer be available after 10/12/22 and are void for mattress/box springs as of 10/31/22.

No mattresses will be collected by the regular trash pickup after 10/31/22.

All Winthrop residents of any size dwelling can call for mattress and box spring recovery with this program.

When purchasing a new box spring or mattress, check with the company from which you have made your purchase to see if they have removal options. This option is offered by many mattress and furniture companies.

Textile Recovery for Recycling in Winthrop

Textiles

No textiles can be placed in your trash for regular trash pickup.

What type of textiles are subject to the waste disposal ban? Textiles are defined in the regulations as "clothing, footwear, bedding, towels, curtains, fabric, and similar products, except for textiles that are contaminated with mold, bodily fluids, insects, oil, or hazardous substances." All uncontaminated cloth. Are used wiping clothes or "shop rags" considered textiles

ART 966 - REMEMBERING FRED POLSONETTI'S BARBER SHOP

It isn't often that someone is actively involved in their career for 67 years but Fred Polsonetti, born in 1912, did just that. Beginning his barbering profession at the age of 16, he worked in other peoples shops until 1937 at which time he opened his own barbershop in Winthrop Center at 65 Woodside Avenue, see picture #1. Note the window on the left bears the name of his shop and the traditional red and white striped Barber Pole is mounted on the right hand side of the store front. In the early 1950's, Fred relocated his shop to Hagman Road with the entrance on the left side of the walkway which runs from Woodside Avenue to Hagman Road as shown in picture #2. Picture #3 depicts Fred performing his trade in this shop. Fred lived in Winthrop, with his wife Catherine, on Birch Road where they raised their three children Joan,

Robert and Lois. He was active in various programs for children by serving on the Town's Recreation Commission and as Scoutmaster for the Elk's Boy Scout Troop. When I got my haircut in his shop on Hagman Road beginning in 1957, his sense of humor and stories of his summer home in Marshfield near the ocean just North of the cape were most enjoyable. He was also extremely dedicated to his customers and would make house calls, at no additional cost, to those who were confined to their homes for medical reasons. As long as there were customers in the shop, he would stay until they all had their haircuts completed. His family never made plans for Saturday evenings or New Years Eve when he often did not arrive home until long after supper was over. I remembering him telling of four customers waiting for haircuts at noon and the next one up said "you ought to be able to have your lunch". When Fred responded that these men were all waiting for their haircuts, the customer said "No! - you stop and eat your lunch when you have completed my haircut". (Fred finished all four before he ate). About 1970, Fred again relocated his shop in the Center to 17 Somerset Avenue, just two doors from where his daughter, Lois, at that time, operated the Winthrop Book Depot. When I asked her about memories people had of her Dad, she said that many mentioned the cigars he smoked as he cut hair. Ah yes, I too remember them. This last of Fred's barbershops was still in the hair cutting business in 2006 as JoAnne's Barber Shop, see picture #4. Once he gave up this shop in 1995, he enjoyed retirement for eleven years until his death in 2006 at 94.

As Mike Eruzione approached the podium to deliver a speech to the delegates at the Republican National Convention in Tampa, the chants of "USA, USA, USA," could be heard loudly and clearly from the convention floor. When the Winthrop resident and Olympic captain and gold medalist introduced himself with a simple, "Good evening, I'm Mike Eruzione," the crowd responded with wild cheers. Eruzione had joined other Olympic medalists on stage to salute Republican Presidential candidate Mitt Romney's outstanding performance as the president and CEO of the Salt Lake City Organizing Committee for the 2002 Winter Olympics. Eruzione was given a prime spot for his speech on the final night of the convention, preceding actor and director Clint Eastwood and U.S. Senator Marco Rubio at the podium.

Winthrop Police detectives Tim Callinan, Robert Jaworski, and Judy Racow and Lt. Det. With the only contest on the ballot being that for Governor's Council, the turnout for Tuesday's state primary election here was just 22 percent.

The town has been granted a 30 day extension by Bay State Health Care, the HMO that provides health insurance for town employees, to allow town officials to find a new health insurer. Bay State is increasing its premiums by 81 percent, forcing the town to find a company it can afford. Town Treasurer Arthur Flavin has suggested that the town use Tufts HMO, but even Tufts is raising its premiums by 37 percent.

Building Inspector David Hayden told the selectmen that there is little the town can do to force the owners of three empty buildings on Shirley St. either to raze the structures or repair them. The fire-damaged buildings have sat vacant for four years, leading area residents to voice complaints about them as eyesores and safety hazards. Town Meeting passed a by-law in 1991 which requires owners to remove or repair fire damaged properties, but Hayden said the by-law cannot be retroactive.

The Office of the Attorney General, which must decide on the legality of zoning law changes by all municipalities across the state, has given its blessing to the illegal apartment by-law passed by Town Meeting in the spring which gives owners of so-called illegal apartments a chance to come before the Winthrop Board of Appeals and seek a special permit that will have the effect of legalizing the additional units. However, the property owners have only a short time frame to file for the special permit and must bring the units up to code.

SPAGHETTI SQUASH PAD THAI

INGREDIENTS:

• 1 small spaghetti squash, halved and seeded

Sauce:

• 1½ cups chicken broth

• 3 tablespoons peanut butter

• 1 tablespoon chile-garlic sauce

• 1 tablespoon fish sauce

• 1 tablespoon soy sauce

• 1 tablespoon rice vinegar

• 1 tablespoon oyster sauce

• 1 teaspoon minced fresh ginger

• 1 teaspoon sesame oil

• ¼ teaspoon ground black pepper

• 3 tablespoons cold water

• 1 tablespoon cornstarch

Vegetables:

• 2 tablespoons olive oil

• 1 (12 ounce) package broccoli coleslaw mix

• 1 zucchini, diced

• 1 red bell pepper, diced

• ½ cup sliced green onions

• ¼ cup chopped fresh cilantro

• 2 cubed cooked chicken breasts

DIRECTIONS:

STEP 1: Preheat oven to 450 degrees F (230 degrees C). Place spaghetti squash, cut-side up, on a baking sheet.

STEP 2: Bake in the preheated oven until squash is tender, 30 to 45 minutes. Shred squash meat using a fork and discard the peel.

STEP 3: Combine chicken broth, peanut butter, chile-garlic sauce, fish sauce, soy sauce, rice vinegar, oyster sauce, ginger, sesame oil, and black pepper together in a saucepan; bring to a boil. Whisk water and cornstarch together in a bowl until smooth; add to broth mixture and continue boiling until sauce thickens, 5 to 10 minutes. Reduce heat to low and simmer sauce.

STEP 4: Heat olive oil in a large skillet over medium-high heat; saute broc-coli slaw, zucchini, red bell pepper, green onion, cilantro, and shredded spaghetti squash until tender, about 10 minutes. Add chicken and sauce to squash mixture; cook and stir until heated through, 3 to 5 minutes.

WHS GRADUATING CLASS OF 1971 HOSTS 50TH REUNION AT COTTAGE PARK YACHT CLUB

Recently, the WHS Class of 1971 gathered at the Cottage Park Yacht Club to celebrate 50 years. A little on the late side? Not really, Covid 19 kept many friends and family at arm's length or greater in some cases. The Class of 71 wasted no time and pulling n up their boot- straps and getting back in the swing of things. The Cottage Park yacht Club was the perfect place, and the classmates/ friends made good use of the facility, enjoying a fun night of eating and dancing, and best of all re- membering the great time of being a Viking.

Happily checking in the guests, Karen Acone and Sue DePrizzio.

Kevin Beranger, Beth Hogan, Ed Rossi and Colleen Rossi.

Classmates, Mike Goldberg, Bob Marino, Ellen MacNeil, and Charles Lehman.

Joe and Kathy Campbell having a great time.

Catching up on old times, Karen and Walter Schlichting, Steven Crombie and Peter Fenlon.

Doing his thing as Master of Ceremonies, John Costigan welcomes his classmates, thanks the committee, remembers those that have passed and heartfully thanked those who contributed generously to make the event happen.

Friends for life, Marty (Duyon) Bitetti, Barbara Goodearl Simone, Terry Muldoon Larrere, and Dayann Williams Kelley.

The WHS Class of 71 held this 50th reunion last Saturday evening at the Cottage Park yacht Club, a Covid-19 year late but none the less it was a great time for all.

WHS SPORTS ROUNDUP

WHS FALL SEASON SWINGS INTO HIGH GEAR

After a pre-season of dry and near-perfect weather, Mother Nature pulled a cruel trick on area high school athletes with a steady menu of rain for the first week of the 2022 fall athletic season.

But despite the inclement weather, Winthrop High athletes are set to get their season underway this week.

The Vikings girls and boys soccer teams were scheduled to kick off their seasons yesterday (Wednesday) against Northeastern Conference division rival Saugus.

Both the boys and girls soccer teams will be competing in the 10-school NEC, which once again will be split into two, five-school divisions.

The Winthrop soccer squads are in the same division as Saugus, Swampscott, Gloucester, and Salem. Winthrop will face each of those rivals twice.

The other division consists of Danvers, Beverly, Marblehead, Masconomet, and Peabody, all of whom Winthrop will play once.

For the girls' side, a quartet of senior captains, Mia Norris, Lily Tallent, Maddie Stiglets, and Abby Holmes, will lead the 2022 edition of the Lady Vikings.

"Our preseason went well," said veteran WHS girls head coach Tracey Martucci. "After graduating 14 seniors, we also have a big senior class this season with 11 seniors, so we will have a good number of new players on the field this year."

"Being in a tough NEC league, I think we have some amazing athletes who can compete against these tough teams," added Martucci. "As much as this is a year where we have players who may not have played together before, the team chemistry seems to be going well."

Sophomore Amelia Spencer will be the goalkeeper. Other members of the varsity team are: seniors Olivia Skomro, Elizabeth Quinn, Emma Holmes, Kira Diaz, Cori Powell, and Julia Holmes; juniors Hailey Forsyth, Carolina Gonzalez, Hannah Parker, Daniela Gomez, Samantha DiMento, Shannon Abbott, Kaylee Farrell, Reese Brodin, and Genesis Bueno; and sophomores Emily Hoxhaj, Talia Martucci, and Gabby Buonopane.

Assisting Martucci with the coaching duties will be Julie Dowson and Jerry Gliello.

Martucci and her crew will host Beverly Monday and non-league foe Excel Academy next Wednesday.

The boys' side, under the direction of new head coach Phil Ronan, also sprang into action yesterday (Wednesday) vs. Saugus. They entertain Swampscott tomorrow (Friday) and make the long trek to Beverly on Monday. They will return home to host St. Mary's of Lynn next Thursday.

The 2022 fall athletic season also accelerates into high gear this week for the other Winthrop High sports teams.

Coach Nik Besehere's boys and girls cross country teams were scheduled to host Beverly (yesterday) Wednesday at Deer Island in their season-opening meet. They will trek to Salem next Wednesday.

Coach Lauren Kelly and the WHS volleyball team also got their season underway yesterday (Wednesday) when they entertained Excel Academy. They will play at Revere tomorrow (Friday), host Swampscott next Tuesday, and entertain Marblehead next Thursday.

Coach Weston Lazarus and his golfers, who took their first swings of the new season last Tuesday against Salem and last Thursday vs. Peabody, had been scheduled to face Beverly this past Tuesday and Lynn Classical yesterday (Wednesday).

They are scheduled to host Marblehead today (Thursday) at the Winthrop Golf Club, travel to Kelly Green to meet Revere on Tuesday, and host Gloucester at the WGC next Wednesday.

Winthrop Vikings set to open season at Stoneham Friday night

By Cary Shuman

It won't be the John Macero Bowl as the former Winthrop and Stoneham superintendent of schools has retired after a distinguished 30-year career in education.

But Winthrop versus Stoneham (Friday at 7 p.m. at Stoneham) is still an intriguing intra-divisional football matchup between two highly regarded programs that should be in the mix come playoff time.

Two of the top players from last year's teams, both All-Scholastic linemen, 6-foot-5-inch Pete Jurovich (Curry) of Winthrop and 6-foot-6-inch Peter Godfrey (Wagner) of Stoneham, are now playing college football.

"They're still a very solid team," said Winthrop head coach Jon Cadigan about the Spartans.

"They're big up front, tough. Their quarterback is probably their best offensive player. It's going to be a tough matchup for us."

A win in a scrimmage

The Vikings have some momentum for the season opener following a 20-7 win over Manchester-Essex in their final pre-season scrimmage.

Welvis Acosta was the leading rusher with 9 carries for 120 yards. Nick Cappuccio (one rushing TD, one TD reception) and Robert Noonan (quarterback-keeper) accounted for the six-pointers.

Winthrop scored on three consecutive possessions after a slow start.

Winthrop's starting lineup

Coach Cadigan said that senior Robert Noonan will be the starting quarterback. Welvis Acosta (full-back), Robert Rich, Nick Cappuccio, and Demetri Koutsouflakis will be the running backs.

The offensive line includes center Phil Boncore, guards Danny Guauque and Alessio Marcoccio, and tackles Donovan Cassidy and Ryan Harris. Vasili Tsiotos will also see action at tackle or tight end. Dan Thomai is the starting tight end.

On defense against Stoneham's double-wing offense, the front line consists of Guauque, Harris, and Marcoccio. Acosta and Koutsouflakis are the outside linebackers while Robert Noonan and Cassidy are the inside linebackers. Matthew Noonan, younger brother of Robert, will also see action at linebacker. Boncore is also in the OLB rotation.

Interestingly, cornerbacks Mark Johnson,

George Galauris, and Michael Holgersen are also contending for wide receiver positions, looking to continue the excellence of Mikey Chaves in the Vikings' offense as the premier passing target for Robert Noonan.

Galauris and Rich are battling for the No. 1 placekicker's position.

Robert Noonan, Welvis Acosta, and Danny Guauque are the Winthrop captains. The Boston Herald named Noonan as a "Player to Watch" in its pre-season preview.

Back-to-back games versus the Spartans

In what is likely a first for Winthrop High football, the first two opponents on the schedule, Stoneham and St. Mary's (Sept. 16) share the same nickname: the Spartans.

Selectman A.F. Verney polled 678 votes to defeat incumbent State Representative Walter G. Baker in the Republican primary in Tuesday's State Primary election, but Baker, who also ran on the Democratic ballot, was unopposed on that side of the ballot, which means that the duo will face off again in November.

A good turnout of local voters is expected for the primary election next Tuesday.

The Winthrop Garden Club's recent exhibition in the Barn of the Deane Winthrop House was a big success.

Lawrence F. Quigley, the mayor of Chelsea and a summer resident of Pt. Shirley who has a summer cottage on Shirley St. on Yirrell Beach, will be the guest speaker at the dedication of the new Winthrop Post Office building in Metcalf Square on September 24. A large crowd is expected to be on hand, especially so because Mayor Quigley is known as one of the best orators in this area. Congressman Charles Underhill, who managed the Washington end of the application for the new building, also will speak.

More than 2000 persons were on hand for the very impressive ceremonies in Ingleside Park Saturday afternoon when 27 veterans of the World War were presented Purple Heart decorations by Adjutant General John H. Agnew. A moment of silence was held after the reading of the names of those who made the supreme sacrifice. The event was sponsored by the American Legion in conjunction with the carnival to benefit the Winthrop Community Hospital building fund.

Primary Day last Tuesday was a wet one for voters here. It was disappointing to see the poor showing of women in the early afternoon when it had been expected that they would flock to the voting places. However, they ended up waiting for the male members of the family to return home from Boston and then went arm-in-arm to the voting booths over the last three hours from 5-8 p.m., eventually forming such a long line that the last voters were not admitted until 8:40. All conceded that it was a mistake not to open the polls until 1:00 p.m. Gov. Channing Cox received a big vote in Winthrop with 2390 votes compared to 796 for his opponent. Elmer E. Dawson was renominated for State Representative, narrowly edging Joseph Harvey by just 12 votes after a retabulation by Town Clerk Preston Churchill on Wednesday morning took away what had been a victory by Harvey of eight votes. Churchill said that he had discovered an error in his addition. Harvey has demanded a full recount.

A horse and wagon went up over the sidewalk and onto the lawn of Mr. John Cusick, causing considerable damage to the lawn and shrubbery.

Harold Orcutt, David Floyd, and Alfred Tewksbury, a committee from the town, met with Boston city officials to discuss the long-awaited and long-talked about project of a new bridge across Belle Isle inlet.

Residents along Somerset Ave. were given a bad fire scare when a two-story wooden garage at 76 Somerset St., owned by Mrs. E. Tewksbury Bennett, was transformed into a raging furnace and threatened to spread further destruction to adjoining properties. However, firemen from the Center fire station put out the blaze in a matter of just 15 minutes.

Mrs. Joshua Small narrowly missed her eyes being scratched out when she was attacked by her pet cat. The cat sank its teeth and claws into her hands, prompting her to scream, upon which Patrolman Turner, who heard her screams, shot the cat.

The houses on Washington Ave. are well-situated not only for views of the sea, but of the well-kept lawns studded with trees, shrubbery, and flowers, making this section of town worth showing to visitors who pass over the avenue.

Master Gordon Brightman celebrated his eighth birthday at his home at 204 River Rd. The party was a novel affair, with about 40 young guests in masquerade costumes.

The Republicans of the town will caucus at Town Hall for the purpose of selecting four delegates to the state convention and to elect a town committee.

George T. Sleeper Winthrop's present State Representative and a candidate for State Senator, is the favorite of wage-earners in Massachusetts, having been endorsed by various labor unions.

The public schools opened last week. During the summer months, two rooms at the Pauline Street school were newly-furnished in a modern way so that now all of the rooms can be used for school work. In the high school, which has 111 students, a new library has been established and the chemical library has been greatly improved. There are 639 pupils at the Pauline Street school in grades 1 through 9 and 130 at the Highlands School in grades 1-5.

Mr. and Mrs. C.F. King of Beacon Villa sailed for Europe on the Ivernia Tuesday morning and were entertained by a few of their friends aboard the ship in the evening. (Ed. Note: Cardenio King was a financier and one of the wealthiest men in Winthrop at the turn of the century. However, within 10 years he was indicted and convicted of fraud and went to prison.)

The summer people are leaving us in flocks.

A hard winter may be made more endurable by the purchase of household stores such as canned fruits and vegetables, canned meats, and canned soups, which sell at surprisingly low prices. With meat so high and coal an almost impossible luxury, the average housewife will have to plan carefully to make ends meet.

This, the first edition of the Winthrop Sun, outlines its policies in an editorial by the publisher, F.J. Moses. "The establishment of the Winthrop Sun involves no reflection upon that clean and wholesome sheet, the Winthrop Visitor. The Sun's columns will be open to all, irrespective of race, color, or previous conditions of inservitude." The editorial goes on to list the town's most pressing need: a new Town Hall, better roads, a water system of our own, a permanent fire department, a breakwater or dyke for Crystal Bay, better police protection, a better system of sewage, and a better school course with prizes offered to schoolchildren in the upper grammar classes for the best essays or poems about Winthrop.

Town officials are being urged to make an appropriation so that Columbus Day can be observed appropriately by our townspeople.

The Republicans of Winthrop will raise two campaign flags on the evening of Tuesday next, one at Ocean Spray, the other at the Center, with speeches to be made at both locations, before they march to Town Hall, which has been rented for the occasion, where they will listen to two more speeches by prominent statesmen.

Malden Catholic Athletics Hall of Fame is reignited and renamed

Staff Report

In recognition of Malden Catholic’s longest serving Xaverian Brother, MC has dedicated its Athletic Hall Of Fame to Brother Daniel Cremin, C.F.X. who spent 23 years at the school coaching and teaching physical education instruction and 23 years at the school as a counselor. The school’s hall of fame was originally established in 1989 and it celebrated the institution’s strong athletic history and outstanding individual athlete, team, coach and volunteer accomplishments with a formal induction into the MC Hall of Fame for sixteen years. The newly reignited Brother Daniel Cremin, C.F.X. Hall of Fame will continue this rich history by accepting nominations for 2022 inductees, recognizing exemplary MC alumnus and Girls Catholic alumna, employees, coaches and volunteers until September 30, 2022 through this link: <https://forms.gle/TpWZxVB-8CGp3G6CR9>. The new roster of Hall of Fame inductees will be announced in the fall of 2022 and formally inducted at a banquet at the school in December.

John Thornburg, Malden Catholic President stated, “Brother Dan’s commitment to MC and his athletic accomplishments are unprecedented.

In light of Brother Dan’s retirement after 46 years, we are delighted to honor him for his lifelong dedication to the school and feature his outstanding success along with the positive athletic accomplishments of our talented alumni and alumnae who have who have performed so well over the years.”

Brother Daniel Cremin, C.F.X. holds the degree of Bachelor of Science in Education from Northeastern University, a graduate degree as Master of Education from Boston University, and a graduate degree as Master of Education in School Counseling from Suffolk University. A member of the Malden Catholic Athletics Hall of Fame, Brother Dan had an illustrious MC coaching career. He was the head varsity soccer coach from 1975 - 1983, leading the team into the Commonwealth Conference league play in 1978 and into a berth in the state tournament in 1979 with Co-Captains Frank Ciampa and Mike Killion.

In 1976 Brother Dan launched the school’s swimming and diving program, continuing as head coach until 1998 with able assistance from Brother Fred Eid. Brother Dan earned recognition in this sport as the Boston

Cheerleaders from Malden Catholic.

Globe’s Coach of the Year, North Division, in 1989. During that season, Joe Sheehan, our All-American, state champion and record holder in two events, led the Lancers to an eighth-place finish in the State Championships. Brother Dan served eight years as the President of the Eastern Mass. Swim Coaches Association and on the MIAA Swim Committee during that same time. In 2002-2003, the Eastern Mass. Swim Coaches Academy inducted Brother Dan into its Hall of Fame.

Brother Dan coached Cross Country from 1984 -1998, first as assistant to Bro. Myles McManus and then 10 years as head coach. During the 1990 season, the Lancers shattered Xaverian’s unbeaten streak of forty-five dual meets on its way to a first-place finish in the State Catholic High School Championship Meet and to fourth place at the All-State Meet, led by Kevin Carnabucci, ‘92. Brother Dan was also an assistant coach for Brother Tim Hoey for five seasons in outdoor track and field.

Since 1932, Malden Catholic High School has shaped emerging leaders in our community, claiming a Nobel Laureate, a Senator, two ambassadors and countless community and business heads among its alumni. Annually, graduates attend some of the nation’s most renown universities including Harvard, Dartmouth, Georgetown, Brown, Cornell, Tufts, Duke, Georgia Tech, Boston College, Northeastern, Boston University and

Amherst College. Foundational to student success is Malden Catholic’s codivisional model which offers the best of both worlds, single-gender academics during the day and integrated social and extracurricular opportunities after school. Malden Catholic is known in the community for its rigorous academics, SFX Scholars Program and award-winning STEM program (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math) with electives such as Robotics and Engineering Design. Malden Catholic curricula is designed to improve individual growth mindset, leadership principles, nd asuccess outcomes along with integrating the Xaverian values of trust, humility, compassion, simplicity and zeal. <https://www.maldencatholic.org/> strengths. All residents are invited to attend this free, non-partisan event.

The format of Meet the Candidates Night will be:

1. First, the Candidates will have two-three minutes each to describe their policies or say anything relevant about their candidacy that they chose.

2. Next, the Moderator will ask the candidates the same 6-8 questions and the candidate will have 2-3 minutes to answer.

3. Candidates will have 3-5 minutes at the end to summarize or address the audience.

4. Finally if time permits the audience will have an opportunity to ask questions of the candidates.

5. The event from start to finish is planned to be one hour long.

The WRTC hopes all residents will use this opportunity to understand the platform of their congressional candidates and be prepared to cast a well informed vote in our November election. (Any opinions or policies offered are of the individuals only and not WBZ or any of WBZ partners or personalities.) For more information about this event go to the Winthrop Republican Town Committee’s Facebook page.

Over 5,000 people take part in Save the Harbor/Save the Bay activities so far this year

Special to the Times

So far this year more than 5,000 people from 30 communities joined Save the Harbor/Save the Bay on free Marine Mammal Safaris in April, and free trips to Spectacle and Georges Island three days a week this summer as part of their expanded Share the Harbor and All Access Boston Harbor programs.

Though the summer is nearly over, the free fun on Boston Harbor will continue well into the fall.

In September and October, Save the Harbor/Save the Bay will host three free day trips to Spectacle Island from 10am - 2:30PM on Sunday September 18th, Sunday September 25th, and Sunday October 2nd. They will also host three free Sunset Cruises towards Boston Light from 5:30pm - 7:30pm on Tuesday September 27, Wednesday September 28th, and Saturday October 15th.

“Our free island adventures and harbor cruises give kids and families who might not otherwise have the opportunity to experience these beautiful natural resources firsthand,” said Save the Harbor/Save the Bay’s Executive Director Chris Mancini. “All of us are proud to share our spectacular harbor, beaches and islands with everyone.”

Mancini expects these trips to fill up fast, and urges people to make their reservation today at <https://tinyurl.com/sharetheharborcruise2022>.

“These free trips to the Boston Harbor Islands are my favorite part of our programs,” said Kristen Barry, Deputy Executive Director at Save the Harbor/Save the Bay. “No matter what community they come from or what group they are a part of, people always come back to shore with new experiences and a fresh perspective.”

These free Share the Harbor cruises are made possible with leadership support and partnership from Cronin Development, the Massachusetts Executive Office of Energy and Environmental Affairs, Massachusetts Office of Environmental Protection, Bay State Cruise Company, and Mass Bay Lines.

According to Save the Harbor/Save the Bay’s Director of Development Patricia Salic, “The work Save the Harbor/Save the Bay does would not be possible without the support of our 2022 Youth Program Champions, including the Liberty Mutual Foundation, Blue Cross Blue Shield of MA, The Coca-Cola Company, Eastern Salt Company, Inc., National Grid, Comcast Foundation, Constellation Generation, John Hancock Financial Services and JetBlue.

“We are also grateful to our Youth Program Sponsors the Massachusetts Convention Center Authority, Alexandria, The Boston Foundation, Boston Consulting Group, Boston Properties – Atlantic Wharf, Camp Harbor View Foundation, Cell Signaling Technology, City of Boston Department of Youth, Engagement & Employment, Comcast Foundation, Cronin Group, LLC, Exelon Generation, Goody Clancy, Hood Business Park, HYM Investment Group, Income Research and Management Charitable Fund, Leader Bank Pavilion/Live Nation, Massachusetts Water Resources Authority, Massport, National Development, National Grid Foundation and Vertex.”

You can find a full list of Save the Harbor’s 2022 Youth Program Funders at <http://blog.savetheharbor.org/2022/07/thanks-to-our-2022-youth-program.html>

To find out more about Save the Harbor/Save the Bay and the work they do to restore, protect and share Boston Harbor, the Harbor Islands and the region’s public beaches, visit their website at www.savetheharbor.org, their blog “Sea, Sand & Sky” at <http://blog.savetheharbor.org> or follow savetheharbor on Facebook, Instagram or Twitter.

More than 5,000 kids set sail to Spectacle and Georges Islands on Bay State Cruise Company’s flagship Provincetown II and Mass Bay Lines Freedom as part of Save The Harbor/Save the Bay’s free All Access Boston Harbor and Share the Harbor Program expansion.

THE WHS CLASS OF 1962 HOSTS 60TH REUNION AT THE HISTORIC WINTHROP ARMS

Recently the Winthrop High School Class of 1962 gathered at the Winthrop Arms Restaurant to celebrate 60 years since their graduation. Though many in attendance still reside in Winthrop, it's still a special time to meet in a formal group as classmates. A delicious meal was served to all and coffee and a special graduation cake was cut. It was a grand event for these WHS graduates and a good time was had by all. Congratulations of your 60 year celebration.
