Turco will seek re-election as State Representative

By Cary Shuman

Jeff Turco has announced that he will be a candidate for re-election to the state representative seat in the 19th Suffolk District this fall.

Turco was sworn in by Gov. Charlie Baker on April 7, 2021, after winning a special election. Turco, 50, won a four-way race in the Democratic Primary and defeated two opponents in the final election for the seat that had been held by Robert A. DeLeo, the state's longest-serving House Speaker who had stepped down to take a teaching position at Northeastern.

Turco's newly structured district includes approximately 40 percent of Revere (the Beachmont, Revere Beach, Point of Pines, Riverside, Oak Island, and Revere Street) neighborhoods) and all of Winthrop.

"It's been a little bit over a year that I was elected," said Turco, a graduate of UMass Amherst and Quinnipiac Law School who has his own law practice in Chelsea. "I really like the job as state representative. Ninety percent of what I do is help people, whether it's with unemployment and housing issues – things that affect people on a daily basis, and it's nice to be in a position to help people; even if I can't get them the answer they want, to be able to direct them so they can get an answer – it really is the privilege of a life to be in that position to be able to do that."

His biggest accomplishment: no meters on Revere Beach Boulevard

Turco, who stands 6 feet, 6 inches tall, said unquestionably his biggest accomplishment during his year in office was the dismantling of the parking meters that the DCR had installed on Revere Beach Boulevard for a paid parking program.

Following an uprising by Revere residents, including Wayne Rose, Pat Melchionno, Niko Kostopoulos, and Peter Martino, among others, Turco led the passage

School Committee decides to move ahead with ELPAC

By Laura Plummer

The Winthrop School Committee met on Monday, April 25, where it decided to move ahead with its English Language Parent Advisory Committee (ELPAC).

The WPS ELPAC is an organization for the parents of the district's roughly 160 English Language Learners (ELLs). It was initially implemented prior to the pandemic and is finally getting off the ground.

According to the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education (DESE), "ELPACs provide advice and insight on topics that are important to ELs in their school or district community." WPS will advisor the ELPAC when it comes to planning and meeting their needs.

The WPS ELPAC will operate similarly to the district's Special Education Parent Advisory Committee (SEPAC). Like SEPAC, it will have its own bylaws and elected officers.

The School Committee honored the Winthrop Middle School Quiz Bowl team for its recent victory. Erik Briggs, Joseph Disney, Eloise Farnsworth, Roy Konopaska and Majira Shehu posed for a photograph alongside their advisors Chris Farnsworth and Erica Foley.

There will be two ELPAC meetings before the end of the school year, on May 11 and June 8, at 6 pm, in the Cummings School Cafeteria. Parents and guardians of current and former ELL students are invited to attend.

"This is an opportunity for parents and former ELL students to be involved in the school community." See SCHOOL COMM. Page 3

EASTIE Coalition sponsors Drug Take Back event Saturday

By John Lynds

Today, you will notice there are plastic pharmacy bags in this week's Winthrop Transcript but don't throw them away because they are part of a "Drug Take Back" effort by the EASTIE Coalition to remove dangerous unused prescription drugs from your home that may end up in the hands of children, young adults or those struggling with substance abuse disorder.

The EASTIE Coalition (East Boston Alliance for Support, Treatment, Intervention and Education), an initiative of the East Boston Neighborhood Health Center, with support from the Mass General Brigham Centers for Community Health Improvement office and the national Drug Free Communities support program, is sponsoring this safe medication disposal effort.

Winthrop Transcript readers can use the bags to collect unused prescription medications and drop them off at one of two locations in neighboring East Boston on Saturday, April 30.

Residents can drop off unused medication to staff and volunteers on Saturday at the East Boston Neighborhood Health Center's 20 Maverick Square location from 10 am-12 pm, and at Recovery on the Harbor at 983 Bennington St., from 12:30 pm-2 pm.

EASTIE Coalition Coordinator Joanna Cataldo this is second time the coalition has run this event, which coincides with the DEA's National Drug Take Back Program. The first was during the DEA's National Drug Take Back Program back in October.

"We are doing this during the DEA's national event as part of our overall prevention strategy," said Cataldo. "This event is to raise awareness on multiple fronts. This event is to bring awareness to parents and guardians about the hazard within their own homes."

Cataldo said during the last drug take back event in the fall, the coalition had over 60 people drop off the bags.

"It may not seem a lot but each bag had several bottles in them," said Cataldo. "So we collected about 200 pill bottles and if there were 10, or 20, or 30 or 40 pillars in them that's a lot of dangerous drugs that got taken out of homes and out of circulation."

Cataldo said it is important to have events like this because it educates the public on the dangers of hanging onto unused medications.

"We are working to keep these prescription medications out of the hands of kids, grandkids, adults or individuals struggling with addiction," she said. "This is a way to clear out medicine cabinets of medications that some people might not even realize could lead a loved one to addiction."

A 2019 National Survey on Drug Use and Health, 9.7 million people in the U.S. misused prescription pain relievers in 2019. The survey also showed that a majority of misused prescription drugs were obtained from family and friends, often from the home medicine cabinet.

Having Recovery on the Harbor as a drop off location will also give residents the opportunity to learn more about the new recovery support center in Orient Heights.

Cataldo reminded residents that no liquids or needles will be accepted at the drop off locations and those looking for treatment services for a loved one can visit the EASTIE Coalition website at www.eastiecoalition.org. Residents can also reach out to Joanna Cataldo at 617-568-6492 or email cataldoj@ebnhc.org if there are any questions.

WINTHROP MARKETPLACE CHICKEN SALTIMBOCCA

INGREDIENTS:

- 8 skinless, boneless chicken breast halves - pounded thin
- 3 tablespoons olive oil, divided
- salt and black pepper to taste
- 1 (10 oz) package frozen

- chopped spinach, thawed and drained well
- 8 slices thinly sliced prosciutto
- 8 slices provolone cheese
- ½ cup freshly grated Parmesan cheese
- 1½ cups dry white wine

DIRECTIONS:

STEP 1: Brush each chicken cutlet with olive oil and season with salt and pepper.

STEP 2: Squeeze excess water out of the frozen spinach, then season with olive oil, salt, and pepper.

STEP 3: Place 1 piece of prosciutto, 1 piece of provolone, and a thin layer of spinach on each chicken cutlet. Then sprinkle Parmesan over the tops.

STEP 4: Beginning at the short, tapered end, roll up each chicken cutlet, and secure with a toothpick.

STEP 5: Heat 2 tablespoons olive oil in a large skillet over medium heat. Place chicken in the skillet, then pour in wine. Cook, turning the chicken, until the wine evaporates, and the chicken is cooked through and its juices run clear, about 20 minutes.

DA HAYDEN ANNOUNCES GRANT FUNDING OPPORTUNITY FOR NONPROFITS

District Attorney Kevin Hayden today invited Suffolk County nonprofits to apply for grant funding to support violence and substance use prevention and treatment programming.

"I have had the privilege of serving on the board of several nonprofits, and I know the impact that my office's Community Reinvestment Grants can have on these nonprofits and the young people they serve," said Hayden, who is currently on the boards of YOU Boston and the Greater Boston YMCA. "The pandemic has placed added stress and demand on service providers as they responded increased need and adapted to new ways of delivering services. I'm grateful to the organizations that continue to do exceptional work every day supporting our young people and communities."

The Community Reinvestment Grant (CRG) program will provide funding of up to $10,000 to 501(c)3 nonprofits that provide programming designed to prevent youth violence or substance use treatment in Boston, Chelsea, Revere, and Winthrop. State law allows prosecutors to distribute up to 10 percent of assets seized in narcotics prosecutions to community-based organizations for crime prevention and substance use treatment.

"Prevention and treatment programs are key to public safety and building a more equitable society. Our community partners are among our most valuable institutions, and I'm proud to be able to offer this funding opportunity," Hayden said.

Interested nonprofits can find the RFP here. Applications are due no later than May 24, 2022.

of legislation that mandated that the parking meters on Revere Beach be taken down. Turco had attended the local protests held on Revere Beach and with the assistance of Rep. Jessica Giannino, they helped prevent parking meters from ever reaching the fully operational stage on America’s first public beach. Both Turco and Giannino received much gratitude from residents for their swift and effective action on the controversial issue.

“DCR frankly just announced that they were going to put in these parking stations and there was practically no consultation with the community,” recalled Turco. “They just did it, and I think they were taking advantage of the fact that Speaker DeLeo had stepped down and the area was going to have new representation. I think DCR thought they could just get away with it. They picked Revere to start the parking meter program, and I began to get phone calls from my constituents in Revere and Winthrop. In Winthrop, they were saying, ‘We know we’re next, and we don’t want to see this this, and we want you take the lead on this.’”

Other accomplishments

Turco also worked hard to push legislation for the rebuilding of the Chelsea and Holyoke Soldiers’ Homes and providing additional housing for veterans in central Massachusetts.

“When we honor our veterans and our soldiers by providing the services they need, they won’t have to be so far away from their families,” said Turco. “It sends a message that if there’s a group of people in our society that we owe a debt to, it’s soldiers and veterans that put their lives on the line and served our country. The Commonwealth going on record and saying that this is a top priority, I think is a great accomplishment.”

Turco said he was also pleased to receive a letter from the MassDEP commissioner that confirmed MassDEP’s position that there will be no further expansion of the landfill site in Saugus that environmentally affects his district.

A collaboration with local officials

Turco feels he has built strong working relationships with several officials, notably Ward 1 Councillor Joanne McKenna, Mayor Brian Arrigo, and House colleague Jessica Giannino. “Nothing gets done in politics without working together,” said Turco. “Joanne McKenna represents a big part of my district in Revere, and I probably get more phone calls from Councillor McKenna about issues relating to the district and how to improve the quality of life than I do from anyone. She’s just non-stop, and it ranges from small things like graffiti on a Mass. highway to how do we fix something on a roadway that could be a life-or-death issue for members of the public. She’s constantly expressing concern about the noise and pollution problems associated with Logan Airport. She’s just a tremendous asset and ally, more importantly.”

Turco said Mayor Arrigo is an outstanding leader who has been bold and transformative in his vision for the entire city.

“Mayor Arrigo has been a great team player working with Revere’s state delegation, Rep. Giannino, Sen. Lydia Edwards, and myself, and focusing on how we can make things better for Revere and increase opportunity for people in the city,” said Turco. “He deserves a lot of credit for the transformation of Revere Beach. I still smile that there’s a Starbucks on Revere Beach now. He has had a bold and consistent vision of what Revere should look like. The architecture, the design – it’s added a beauty to the beach.”

Jessica Giannino, who took office in January, 2021, and is also a candidate for re-election, drew praise from Turco.

“Representative Giannino is a tireless worker for the people of Revere,” lauded Turco. “We converse usually a couple times a day to talk about different issues in her district. She understands that you need to get people to support your efforts to get things done. She’s been a great friend and I’m inspired by her leadership.”

Interestingly, one of Turco’s new constituents is Congresswoman Katherine Clark, Assistant Speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives, who now lives in Revere.

“We’re obviously very fortunate to have the Assistant Speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives living in our district – it’s pretty amazing,” said Turco. “It highlights the advances the City of Revere has made in terms of becoming a place where people want to move.”

Talking about Winthrop

Turning his attention to Winthrop, Turco (who grew up in Revere) credited Terence Delehanty for his superb leadership as interim town manager. New Town Manager Anthony Marino takes office on May 23.

“He [Delehanty] did a great job as town manager and he does a great job as chief of police,” said Turco. “I think the town owes him a debt of gratitude. This is his second stint now as interim town manager. Every department head advocated for him, saying that there was nobody else that could step up and do the job, and I think that’s a credit to him as a lawyer, a lifelong Winthrop resident, and his work in the Police Department. I can’t say enough about Terry’s excellent service in the town.”

Turco added that Town Council President James Letterie is deserving of commendation for the search process for the new town manager.

“I’ve gotten calls from colleagues in the Legislature about how wonderful he [Marino] is to work with, that he’s a hard worker and the town cannot go wrong with a guy like Tony Marino. I think Jim Letterie has acquitted himself tremendously well with the search process that was put in in place, and with his choice of Tony Martino as town manager.”

Turco said Marino could become “the most consequential town manager” in the history of Winthrop.

“The reason for that is he’s going to be able to pick his own team – the new CFO, the new treasurer, and the new assessor,” related Turco. “He’s going to be able to pick certain key people that can help him get the job done and move the town forward.”

Turco’s legislative aide is Winthrop resident Jake Letterie, who was brought on board in May, 2021, before his father, James Letterie, was elected council president. Jake has been highly visible in Winthrop and Revere, most recently at the forum on Win Waste held at the Point of Pines Yacht Club and the $18 million federal grant ceremony for the Casassa Overpass in Revere. Jake’s sister, Jenna, just led Middlebury College to an undefeated national ice hockey championship, so it’s been quite a year for the Letterie family.

His term as town council president in Winthrop

Jeff Turco served as president of the Winthrop Town Council in 2010 and 2011.

“We got a lot done as council president,” said Turco. “I think my proudest accomplishment was making full-day kindergarten free in Winthrop.”

Turco was somewhat of a visionary when during his term as council president, he proposed that the meetings of all town boards be televised live. Today cable TV stations in many cities and towns televise multiple subcommittee and board meetings, a practice that increased exponentially on Zoom during the pandemic.

“In 2010, I looked up a company from California that was called Granicus and I wanted them to livestream online every Winthrop board, commission, and committee meeting so the public could participate in and view the meetings,” related Turco. “Fast forward all these years later, and here we are with all these meetings being put on online so the public can see them, and there is transparency and openness. I think it’s great.”

Turco said he moved to Winthrop 18 years ago.

“It’s an incredible place to raise a family,” said Turco, who with his wife, Melissa, has six children ages 6 to 16, who attend Malden Catholic and Immaculate Conception in Revere. “Winthrop is what I grew up in Revere in terms of a good family community to raise a child.”

A tribute to the Speaker

Reflecting on the decades of public service by his legendary predecessor, Robert A. DeLeo, Turco said, “Speaker DeLeo has been a tremendous mentor. He’s giving me advice and counsel. He’s made my transition into the job a lot easier because it’s nice to have someone who was on Beacon Hill for a long time and is highly respected across the Commonwealth to give you ideas on how to approach tough issues and how to work within the system. When you look at Speaker DeLeo’s legacy for Winthrop and Revere, people will be talking about it for decades. He has a pretty tremendous record.”

Turco hopes to continue to build on DeLeo’s “legacy of excellence” as he seeks re-election to the state representative seat for Revere and Winthrop.

State Rep. Jeff Turco, pictured in the House Chamber at the State House, has announced that he will be running for re-election to the seat in the 19th Suffolk District.

OUR Opinions

OUR DRIVING IS WORSE THAN EVER, SO THIS IS NO TIME TO REDUCE TRAFFIC STOPS

Pundits and some politicians recently have been calling for a reduction in the enforcement of minor traffic offenses by our police.

We respectfully, and strongly, disagree.

Thanks to a number of factors, our roadways are more dangerous than ever. In 2020, there were 38,680 deaths on U.S. roadways, the most since 2007, even though pandemic precautions had dramatically reduced driving because people were staying at home.

In 2021, overall traffic fatalities continued to rise at a record pace. Nearly 32,000 people were killed in vehicle crashes in the first nine months of 2021, a 12 percent increase from the same period in 2020, according to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.

It was the highest number of fatalities during the first nine months of any year since 2006 and the highest percentage increase during the first nine months of a year in the reporting system’s history.

Why are Americans driving more recklessly than ever?

We believe a number of factors are at play, including an increase in drug and alcohol use during the pandemic, the decline in the use of seat belts, a huge increase in distracted driving because of the use of electronic devices, and a general disdain for societal restrictions that have spilled-over into a disregard for speed limits, stop signs, etc. on our roadways.

The rise in motor vehicle deaths follows other pandemic-era trends: Alcohol sales have soared, drug overdoses have set new records, and homicides have seen their biggest year-over-year increase on record.

In light of these alarming trends and statistics, suggesting that our police should curtail traffic-law enforcement is nonsensical.

We realize that routine traffic stops often are fraught with peril, both for the officers and for members of the public, as happened once again with the recent tragic shooting of a Black man by a white officer in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

However, in an interview with 60 Minutes on Sunday, the new mayor of New York, Eric Adams, noted that we must do more to ensure that effective police enforcement is coupled with respectful, non-abusive police behavior. Those concepts are not inherently mutually-exclusive.

Moreover, said Adams, “If you don’t have public safety, everything crumbles.”

The ancient Romans put it this way, “Let the safety of the people be the highest law of the land.”

That is as true today as it was 2100 years ago -- and that is especially true on our streets and highways.

PUTIN’S UKRAINIAN GENOCIDE

If you listen to chatter of the pundits and politicians, there seems to a debate about whether Russia is engaging in genocide in Ukraine.

Obviously, we aren’t experts in international law. So we looked up the definition of genocide according to the Genocide Convention, which came together in the aftermath of WWII.

Genocide is defined as any of the following acts committed with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national, ethnic, racial, or religious group:

- Killing members of the group;
- Causing serious bodily or mental harm to members of the group; or
- Deliberately inflicting on the group conditions of life calculated to bring about its physical destruction in whole or in part.

Putin is perpetrating all of these acts upon the people of Ukraine. From the outset of the invasion, he said that Ukraine “is not even a country” and that Russia needed to “de-Nazify” it -- codewords for obliterating Ukraine and its people.

Russian forces are indiscriminately bombing, murdering, torturing, starving, and raping civilians. Russian forces have herded hundreds of thousands of Ukrainian citizens onto trains and forcibly transported them to central Russia, where they await an uncertain fate.

The ceaseless bombing campaign against non-military targets has the only goal of wiping Ukrainian cities and towns from the face of the earth. Russian soldiers even have been going into libraries and destroying any books written in the Ukrainian language.

In short, Vladimir Putin is the 21st century equivalent of Hitler and Stalin, both of whom were genocidal sociopaths.

We hope and pray that our government and the rest of the civilized world will do everything conceivable to stop Putin’s barbarous genocide of the Ukrainian people.

GUEST OP-ED

By Dr. Glenn Mollette

Most of us have wondered about life beyond the grave. Many today are in search of life before the grave. Given what many people traditionally believe about heaven, eternity and life beyond, it would certainly seem very valuable to think about a life beyond. However, what about life here?

The Ukrainian people wake up every day to fight, survive or hide another day. They fight for life and freedom. Why? Life and freedom are worth something.

How much are life and freedom worth? What does it mean to you to hug your spouse or loved one? How much do you enjoy laughing with family, friends or at a funny tv show? How good does it feel to do something you enjoy? Cooking a meal,

Finding hope and life before death music, reading, your faith assembly, grandkids or enjoying a sunny or rainy day. Life is living and enjoying our living.

God didn’t make us to be miserable. We make ourselves miserable. Sickness makes us miserable. Addictions destroy us and others. Death of the people we love zaps us and creates major voids in our lives. Yet, life can only be lived forward and often this is where we get stuck. Too often we put our cars in park and start watching the world go by us. We look in the rear view mirror. Life is whizzing by and we can’t seem to get our foot back on the accelerator to start moving again. This becomes a very stagnate and unhappy way to live. Actually, it’s not a life at all.

Living before you die must have some routine. Go to work. Go someplace. Do something. It doesn’t have to be exotic or glorious. Often routine is the same thing every day. There is some peace in routine. When our routine and entire lives are shaken, like what is happening in Ukraine, then every minute is about surviving another day.

Survival mode for you may be doctor’s visits. Making a plan for the next five years or year of your life. Reconnecting to some family or a friend or two. Making peace with the past and embracing today.

The key word for life is hope. Peace is another key word but peace doesn’t exist without hope. If we have hope we can look forward to life. We hope we have enough health. We hope we have enough money. The people of Ukraine have hope they can overcome Russia. This keeps many of them going. Many have fled the country in search of hope.

Find the hope you need to embrace the rest of your life. Hope in family, friends, hobbies and much more is good. Just be very aware, even they may disappoint you. Mainly, find hope in you. God didn’t make junk. Too often, life, events, mistakes, and sometimes even people we are close to make it difficult for us to see our worth and it tarnishes our spirit.

Hope is an inside job that starts now.

The Hatchet publication elects Winthrop’s Wardwell as Editor in Chief

Special to the Transcript

The Hatchet’s staff elected junior Jarrod Wardwell as the next editor.

Wardwell, a journalism and mass communication major hailing from Boston, MA, will lead the paper’s 119th volume, which starts in May.

He currently leads The Hatchet’s news coverage as the senior news editor, where he’s overseen reporting on the departure of former University President Thomas LeBlanc, GW’s campus reopening and allegations of racism and ableism in the classroom.

The previous year, Wardwell covered the 2020 election, police reform, local COVID-19 transmission concerns and documents that cataloged former GW President Cloyd Heck Marvin’s racist University policies as the assistant news editor overseeing Metro coverage.

Wardwell’s goals for the paper include building diversity, equity and inclusion, addressing mental health among staff members and fostering partnerships with student organizations.

When he’s not editing stories you can find him running on the National Mall, cheering on the Boston Red Sox and finding the best Italian restaurants the D.C. area has to offer.

He will also become the president of Hatchet Publications, Inc., pending approval by The Hatchet’s Board of Directors.

The Hatchet is an editorially and financially independent student newspaper serving the GW and Foggy Bottom community. It is the second oldest D.C. newspaper after The Washington Post.

ART 954 - The DeOane Hotel, Winthrop Shore Drive

Many were the summer vacation lodgings in Winthrop that were built from the mid 1800’s until World War I. While one, the famous Taft Inn at Point Shirley appeared about 1840, the rest were opened between 1875 and 1915. Most establishments catered to families in Boston and other inland communities who would rent rooms for one or more weeks while the husband continued to work in the city and either commuted daily or joined his family here on the weekends. There were fifty-five such buildings that served from full fledged luxury hotels down to comfortable bed and breakfast establishments that operated under some seventy five different names depending on who owned them at any given time. Several have been the subject of previous Then & Now articles and this week the DeOane Hotel is being featured. The current basic structure of this building was built about 1902 and owned by George/Elizabeth Seymore. By 1905 it was called the Collyer Hotel after the then owner Sara Collyer. By 1915, it was renamed the DeOane as shown in picture one which is printed from a 1916 postcard. Note the two story bay window to the right of the tree and the rectangular flat roofed rear section that extends out to the sidewalk on Underhill Street. The roof of the main building has its ridgepole peak running the same direction as Winthrop Shore Drive. The “foot print” of this building, as it appeared about 1916 in the map of picture two, depicts the previously referred to bay window structure and rectangular rear portion of the original building. Looking at the current structure in pictures three and four, one can see it still has the same footprint and general appearance on the first two floors but the third floor roof line now parallels Underhill Street. The original building experienced a fire on the third floor and, when rebuilt, the roof line was reoriented. During more recent times, this building was named for a while “The Inn at Ocean Spray”. It is interesting to note that this area was not part of Doctor Samuel Ingalls’ Ocean Spray Resort built in 1875 which ran from Dolphin Ave, north some eight streets with nautical names, to Neptune Ave. Comparing pictures one and three, we can also see that the building to the left of the subject inn has not experienced much change during the past 90 years. If any of our readers have information of any sort on other hotels along Winthrop Shore Drive, please call me at 846-2901 and we will add it to future descriptions currently being planned for Winthrop’s resort areas.

The success and popularity of the first two years of ferry service to Boston from Winthrop Public Landing, has the town of Winthrop exploring the possibility of initiating year-round service, as well as the feasibility of procuring a town-owned vessel to provide service into the future. According to Winthrop Grants Administrator Peter Lombardi, the Request for Service procurement for privately managed ferry service for Winthrop was posted on April 9 and the proposal process closes on April 30, at which the time the town will have the ability to review the proposals and make a determination of which proposal is most beneficial to the town.

Winthrop residents considering an addition to their homes and local property developers may soon have a new set of building energy codes to contend with, as the Town Council considers a proposal to adopt the Massachusetts Stretch Energy Code, in an effort to achieve ‘Green Community’ status with the State Department of Energy Resources and qualify for more than $150,000 in non-competitive grant funds.

The Shirley St. business area has undergone a revitalization in recent years, including new businesses that have taken place just within the last calendar year, such as major remodeling of the the Lucky Garden restaurant on Shirley Street; the Hi-Tide Restaurant has remodeled and extended its hours to include dinner service; the Quick Food Mart convenience store has completed a major renovation and upgrade and under new ownership; and a new restaurant, The Rustic Table, which has opened in the former site of Gary’s Crystal Cove restaurant.

The Massachusetts Port Authority board has voted to spend $44,000 to undertake a hearing testing program for schoolchildren in Winthrop and East Boston who may be affected by jet noise from Logan Airport. The move was prompted by recent testimony at a public hearing sponsored by Massport which suggested that schoolchildren’s hearing may be affected by noise pollution.

The selectmen voted this week to ask State Rep. Fred A. Baumeister to file a bill that would abolish the Winthrop Redevelopment Authority. The move by the selectmen would be conditioned upon the voters approving the measure at the next state election. The selectmen recently voted to not to accept the authority’s controversial urban renewal plan for the Winthrop Beach area, which would have bulldozed the entire area, resulting in the evictions of hundreds of families and businesses.

The sharp eyes of guards and inmates at the Deer Island jail and the swift work of the Winthrop Fire Department rescue crew averted a tragedy when four Winthrop men in their 20s were taken from the cold waters off Deer Island after their 20-foot outboard

An alert Winthrop youngster, 12 year-old Charles Monahan of 99 Winthrop St., identified a delivery truck that struck and damaged a town fire box pole Friday morning at 6:00. Armed with information from the boy, the town was able to track down the hit-and-run operator and recover the $250 in damages to the pole.

A threatened strike by the 60 drivers and mechanics of the Rapid Transit Bus line was averted this week when agreement was reached to submit 13 disputed contract items to arbitration. A wage increase will be dependent upon the amount allowed by the Wage Stabilization board. Garage workers presently earn $1.36 per hour. First Class mechanics earn $1.69 per hour and drivers earn $1.61 per hour.

The worst fire in the town in more than a decade forced 14 persons to flee their homes and caused injuries to six firemen at 250-252 Shore Drive Sunday afternoon. The top of the three and one-half story structure was gutted and damage was estimated at $25,000. Only a high wind that whipped seaward prevented a possible conflagration of the six other wooden structures on the block.

The sudden issuance of orders from Army Headquarters mandating that all lights along shoreline areas be dimmed, shielded, or blacked out in order to prevent ship from being silhouetted and made easy targets for enemy submarines found the protective division of the Winthrop Committee on Public Safety ready and on the alert. The message was received by Chief Air Raid Warden John Fielding at 7:34 p.m., and by 8:00 p.m., the entire warden units of precincts 4 and 5, numbering some 500 men, were assembled in the Community Building and went on duty.

Priscilla Budreau

She will be remembered by all for her witty humor and spirit up to the end

Priscilla (Sue) H. Budreau passed away in her sleep on April 18 just three months after celebrating her 90th birthday.

Sue and her late husband, Bill, lived their entire lives in Winthrop where they raised their three children: Ken, Jim, and Aimee, as well as an assortment of cats and dogs. Sue worked at Lahive & Cockfield, a patent law firm in Boston, for almost twenty years where she zealously managed a program that provided paid internships to inner city high school graduates. Sue lived in her Johnson Ave home with her late daughter, son-in-law and three of her grandchildren before moving to the Parc at Harborview in 2017. In the past five years, she enjoyed playing cards with friends and spending quality time with family. She will be remembered by all for her witty humor and spirit up to the end. In addition to her two surviving children, their spouses, Elaine Mahoney and Donna Griffith, Sue leaves her son-in-law, Tim Boudrow, as well as six grandchildren: Tori, Dillon and Ethan Budreau, and Joshua, Lauren and Jessica Boudrow. Sue will be missed deeply by her family, friends and staff at the Parc.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to their favorite foundation.

WINTHROP CATHOLIC WOMEN’S CLUB AND FRIENDS HOST 11TH ANNUAL CHARITY BOWL AND A TASTE OF ITALY

Last Monday evening the Winthrop Catholic Women’s Club (WCWC) hosted the drawing of the 11th Annual Charity Bowl at St. John’s Church and held a dinner as a Taste of Italy, prepared by Executive Chef of Cheesecake Factory in Peabody, Michael Pantano. Pantano prepared a delicious chicken cutlet and pasta dish and salad. Prior to dinner being served, Chef Pantano held a demonstration on the proper way to prepare the chicken filets for the tastiest results. This annual Charity Bowl brings in monies to the WCWC so they can continue to donate to local charities and God’s work where needed. A few of the regularly awarded charities are veterans’ groups, the charity of St. Vincent De-Paul, and the food pantry. With a purchase of a ticket there were 3 cash prizes (250-100-and 50) and over 30 gift baskets of assorted gift cards and items, donated from local merchants and businesses.

ing victory over Finland was selected by Sports Illustrated as “the greatest sports moment of the 21st century.” Last Wednesday Eruzione visited the Larsen Rink at the Mike Eruzione Center to welcome Dempsey into an exclusive club: having a permanent display for your hockey jersey at the Winthrop rink.

“I’ve always said that Jillian’s the unkept secret in Winthrop not only as a player having a great hockey career, but as a person, teacher, educator, Harvard graduate, and a role model for the girls and boys in the town,” said Eruzione, an alumnus of Boston University. “She has demonstrated what you can accomplish when you work hard and do the right things and Jillian’s clearly done that. I think her jersey being in the rink is a tribute to her career and what’s she done.”

Glancing at her jersey, Dempsey said, “It’s just an incredible honor. Actually, some of my students had told me that they saw my jersey in the rink. When I came into the rink and I saw it, I was just amazed and so honored. I’m grateful for everything the town has done for me, and Mike has been so supportive and so wonderful. I’m just really touched by this recognition.”

CAPTAINS AND CHAMPIONS: Olympic gold medalist and USA hockey captain Mike Eruzione and Boston Pride captain Jillian Dempsey, a three-time Isobel Cup champion, are pictured in the lobby at the Larsen Rink at the Mike Eruzione Center where Dempsey’s Pride Jersey No. 14 is on permanent display.

HOME AT LAST: Colin Kinsella kicks up a cloud of dust as he slides across home plate to give the Vikings a 5-4 win over Danvers.

YOU DA' MAN!: Joe Ferullo is surrounded by jubilant teammates after his walk-off single capped a seventh-inning two-run Vikings rally and led to a come-from-behind 5-4 win over Danvers Friday at Veterans Field.

WHS SPORTS ROUNDUP

WHS BASEBALL TEAM KNOCKS OFF DANVERS WITH WALK-OFF VICTORY

The Winthrop High baseball team scored two runs in the bottom of the seventh inning to stun previously-undefeated Northeastern Conference (NEC) rival Danvers, 5-4, last Friday morning at Veterans Field.

Trailing 4-3 entering their final at-bat, the Vikings received clutch RBI base hits from Colin Kinsella to tie the game and from Joe Ferullo, who brought in Kinsella with the game-winner.

Kinsella was 2-for-4 on the day with a triple and two RBI. "Colin has been tearing the cover off the ball for us this year," said WHS head coach Mark DeGregorio. "He is batting .473 this year through the first eight games."

Pete Silverman had a solid day at the plate, going 2-for-4 with two runs scored. "Pete has been a great tone-setter for us all year as our lead-off hitter. He is hitting .333 with a .416 on base percentage. He consistently gets on base and leads the team in runs scored."

Joe Hayes also had a good day swinging the bat. Joe went 2-for-4 with a stolen base and got the Winthrop offense going in the second inning with an RBI single.

Senior Zach Bogusz delivered an outstanding pitching performance for the Vikings against the hard-hitting Falcons, limiting them to three earned runs and striking out eight in his six innings of work.

"Zach has been someone whom we have had a lot of trust in on the mound," said DeGregorio. "Zach wants the ball in pressure situations. He did not care that it was Danvers coming to town and that they were undefeated in the conference standings.

"We knew going in that Danvers was one of the better-hitting teams we will face all year," added DeGregorio. "Zach was able to attack the strike zone and keep the hitters off-balance. His breaking ball was the sharpest it has been all year and he was able to locate his pitches."

Jay Fotiadis picked up the win after spinning a scoreless top of the seventh.

"Jay is a freshman who does not get flustered," said DeGregorio. "We told him to go in and just throw strikes and trust his teammates behind him. After allowing no runs in the top of the seventh inning, he came off the field and said, 'Coach, I wasn't nervous.' It made me laugh. He is a competitor."

The Vikings overall played well in the field. Winthrop turned a picture-perfect double play in the fifth when third baseman Ferullo stopped a ball and threw to second from his knee and second baseman Chris Gibbons made a quick turn-around.

"The speed at which Joe was able to get rid of the ball is something we have practiced and it was great to see him be able to execute it in a pressure situation," said DeGregorio.

"We also got some great defense from Joe Hayes at shortstop," added the coach. "He was all over the field today and was the leader of the infield. It was great baseball to watch."

"From the outset of the game, the one word we stressed to our team was, 'Compete'," DeGregorio said. "The coaches and I have been expressing that it is the 'we' and not the 'me' that makes great teams. We cannot get upset over errors as one run can quickly turn into five. We cannot get stressed-out about strikeouts because there is another person that is ready to pick you up."

"The only way to compete against good teams in the NEC is to play for each other and stop worrying about the name on the front of the opponents' shirts," DeGregorio continued. "The only one that matters is the name on the front of ours. We saw that as we were able to hand Danvers their first conference loss of the season. This was the challenge that I gave to the team after a tough loss to Peabody. The challenge was answered by every single person that put on the Winthrop uniform on Friday."

Two days earlier against Peabody, another of the stronger teams in the NEC this season, the Vikings started well, but eventually came up short.

"We took a tough loss as Peabody's bats were just too much for us on the day," noted DeGregorio. "We faced a tough lefty with a strong breaking ball that kept our batters off-balance most of the day. Matt DeCarney started the game for us and battled through the first four innings of work.

He only allowed two earned runs on the day, but their bats were just too much for our defense as we were put on our heels early on and we were unable to recover.

"The important lesson was that we wanted to bounce back and get ready for the Danvers game," DeGregorio added. "We play Peabody later on this year and we hope to have better success against them at home."

The Vikings, who now stand at 5-3 (3-2 in the NEC) on the year, were scheduled to meet NEC foe Swampscott yesterday (Wednesday) and will host non-league opponent Lowell Catholic Saturday morning at 11:00 at Veterans Field. DeGregorio and his crew will travel to Massconomet next Wednesday.

check until Winthrop's last inning heroics, and Matt DeCarney picked up the win with his one-hit seventh inning relief appearance.

Winthrop fell behind 2-0 after an inning-and-a-half at the windswept field, but the Vikings bounced back when a two-out base hit by Evan Rockefeller ignited a three-run Winthrop rally in the bottom of the second. Danvers tied the game in the third inning and threatened more, loading the bases before Bogusz struck out the Falcons' Evan Currie to end the inning. Danvers took a 4-3 lead in the fifth inning, and that's how the scoreboard read as Winthrop came to bat in the 7th. Pete Silverman started things off with a base hit and moved to second on a Joe Hayes fielder's choice to second base. Colin Kinsella singled, scoring Silverman to tie the game at 4, and Kinsella raced to second when his hit was misplayed by the Danvers centerfielder. Cam Martin walked, setting up Ferullo's walk-off hit and Kinsella's triumphant slide home with the winning run.

NOTHING GETS PAST: Catcher Colin Kinsella keeps a low pitch from bounding into danger.

START OF SOMETHING BIG: Evan Rockefeller watches his hit land safely in left-center field with two outs in the Winthrop second inning, starting a Viking 3-run rally that erased a 2-0 deficit.

LOOKING GOOD: Joe Ferullo watches his seventh-inning walk-off single land safely in the outfield, giving the Vikings a come-from-behind 5-4 win over Danvers Friday at Veterans Field.

LATE ARRIVAL: Pete Silverman is forced out at third as Danvers third baseman Caleb White takes the throw.

ON THE WAY HOME: Joe Hayes is in high gear rounding second base on his way to scoring the Vikings third run of the second inning that gave them a 3-2 lead.

NOT ON MY WATCH: Second baseman Chris Gibbons puts a stop to a first-inning attempted steal of second by Danvers John Curran.

MAN IN CHARGE: Zach Bogusz struck out 8 Danvers batters during a solid six-inning stint against the powerful Falcons.

WHS SPORTS Through the Years

Thursday and then spinning a dazzling one hitter against Saugus on Tuesday. Alex struck out 10 batters in both contests.

Winthrop won the encounter with Latin, 2-0, pushing across solo tallies in the third and fifth innings. Sophomore catcher Jen Adamson scored in the third frame when she singled and tried to stretch the hit into a double. The Latin throw went wild and Adamson was able to come home. In the fifth, Rachel DelSolio doubled, moved to third on ground out, and then came home on a double steal in which she took advantage of the rundown for the runner trying to go from first to second. However, Ferri and her teammates did not fare as well against Saugus, coming out on the short end of a 2-1 decision. The Lady Vikings grabbed a 1-0 lead in the first inning when Brittany Lento singled. A sacrifice bunt by Liana Ferullo then proved Lento's ticket home when the throw to get Liana at first sailed wide and into right field.

The Winthrop High girls track team is on a roll. After dropping its first meet of the season to Swampscott, the Lady Vikings have bounced back with two wins, defeating Salem and Gloucester/Manchester, to position themselves for another run at the NEC South Division title. Leading the way in Winthrop's 69-53 triumph over Salem was Amy Sena, who scored 14 points by taking a first in the high jump with a leap of 4-10, a second in the 200 dash in 29.2, a second in the 400 low hurdles in 72.4, and a third in the triple jump with a total distance of 28-6. Ashley Jurovich was a double winner for the Lady Vikings, placing 10 points onto the Winthrop side of the score sheet with firsts in the shot-put with a throw of 31-7 and the discus with a toss of 86-0. Christa Vaccaro enjoyed a fine day with nine points, taking first in the long jump with a leap of 13-9, second in the mile in 6:41, and third in the 400 low hurdles in 77.0. Other winners for Winthrop were Carly O'Keefe in the 100 high hurdles in 17.8 and Maria Rago in the 800 in 2:51. Facing a combined Gloucester/Manchester team for the first time, the girls responded by stepping up and defeating their first South Division opponent. Sena once again was the top scorer for the Lady Vikings with 18 points. Amy finished first in three events, the 400 hurdles in 72.0, the 400 dash in 66.0, and the high jump with a leap of 4-8. She also added a second in the triple jump with a distance of 29-10.

The Winthrop High baseball team defeated non league rival East Boston, 15-2 last week. Zack Mills did it all for the Vikings, tossing five strong innings in the starting role and smacking a two run homer. Tyler Gillis also socked a roundtripper for the Vikings that accounted for three RBI. The triumph was sandwiched between a pair of losses to NEC rivals Marblehead and Saugus. Winthrop is now 2-5 overall.

The WHS baseball team rallied for two runs in the top of the seventh to edge Salem, 3-2. Lucas Guarino had two hits, two runs scored, and stole three bases. Sophomore righthander Matt Driscoll tossed a five hitter and fanned seven.

Freshman Marie Trainor went 3-for-4 with two doubles, but the WHS softball team dropped a 3-2 decision to Gloucester. Jenna Perrotti hurled a no-hitter for 5 and 1/3 innings for the Lady Vikings.

The quartet of seniors Chike Itezue, Newton Ikhariale, Dan Brennan, and Dan Dillard set a new WHS record in the 4 x 100 relay with a time of 45.3 seconds at the Haverhill Invitational Saturday. The foursome has been a key component for Coach Pat McGee's boys track team this spring.

David Melchionda ran his record to 4-0, tossing a 7-1 win over Danvers. Melchionda also contributed at the plate with two hits and two RBI to raise his batting average to .400. Tommy Serra and Dennis Ricupero also had two hits apiece for the Vikings.

Coach Pat McGee's WHS boys track team easily defeated Salem, 88-34. Kenny O'Connell was a triple winner in the 300 low hurdles, 120 high hurdles, and high jump. Donnie McElree and Joe Kearns finished 1-2 in both the shotput and the discus. John Mullane recorded a personal best in the 800 meters in 2:10.

After a rocky start with a 10-8 loss to Danvers in the season opener, the defending Class B state champion WHS baseball team, which has virtually all of its returning starters back, blasted Lynn Classical, 12-3. John Tiano was the winning pitcher.

Lisa Monteleone's strong pitching efforts led the WHS softball team to three straight wins to open the season. Mary Wood, Charlene Hannaford, Joan Matsumoto, and Michelle DiPasquale were the hitting stars for the Lady Vikings.

Mike Bornstein won three events to lead the WHS track team to a 77-49 win over Gloucester in the season opener. Mike Brenner won the shotput and

Newburyport has announced that it is leaving the Northeastern Conference to join the Cape Ann League next year, joining Woburn and Amesbury who have departed from the NEC in recent years. Chelsea and Lynn English reportedly are vying to fill the eighth slot in the league with Newburyport's departure.

Jim Evans and the WHS baseball team are ready to open the season this week. Swampscott, behind the big right arm of Larry Moran, is the favorite to win the NEC title.

60 years ago May 3, 1962

Poor hitting, mediocre pitching, and the loss of shortstop Dick Thibeault contributed to three losses for Coach John Domenico's WHS baseball team to start the season this week.

Carleton Gray won the 100 dash and the discus, Billy Richter took the 440, Capt. Billy Kneeland captured the mile, and Joe Pike won the half mile to pace Coach Matt Boyle's WHS track team to a season opening win over Chelsea.

WHS head basketball coach John Sheehan was the guest speaker and Temple President Nathan Andelman was the Toastmaster at the banquet honoring the basketball teams and cheerleaders of the Temple Tifereth Israel's youth basketball program.

This may be vacation week for Winthrop students, but for 25 baseball hopefuls, this is make or break week in their bids for starting berths on the Winthrop High baseball team. Coach Gordon Connor and his squad will be looking to make it a clean sweep of championships in the Northeastern Conference, hopefully following in the footpaths of the champion football and basketball teams.

80 years ago April 30, 1942

The WHS baseball team will open its season Tuesday at Ingleside Park. Coach Gordon Connor has yet to select his starting nine, with four berth still as unsettled as the current world conditions.

GIRLS LACROSSE TOPS GLOUCESTER

The Winthrop High girls lacrosse team split its two contests in the past week.

Last Thursday the Lady Vikings made the long bus ride to Gloucester worth the effort, bringing home a 5-2 victory.

Mia Martucci and Emma Holmes scored two goals apiece and Talia Martucci added the fifth Winthrop tally.

"It was a hard-fought win," said WHS head coach Emma Marrs. "Abby Holmes came up on top with interceptions. She continues to thrive on defense, as well as Mia Norris."

This past Monday the Lady Vikings came up on the short end of a 21-6 decision to a powerful Masconomet squad.

Mia Martucci once again led the way for the Winthrop offense with three goals. Emma Holmes reached the back of the Masco net for two goals and Hannah Parker added a single score.

"Talia Martucci stepped up this week and put her team first by playing in net for the first time," said Marrs. "She had nine saves during the game against Masco. It is really awesome to have a player who is willing to give it her all and step up for her team when they need her."

Marrs and her crew were scheduled to play at Swampscott yesterday (Wednesday) and will trek to Mystic Valley tomorrow (Friday). They will host Marblehead on the turf at Miller Field at 4:00 on Monday and travel to Peabody next Thursday.

BOYS LACROSSE DEFEATS SAUGUS

The Winthrop High boys lacrosse team, which is competing as a club sport this season, enjoyed a successful week, defeating the Medford junior varsity team and then earning a very exciting, close victory on the road against the Saugus varsity, 7-4.

"Sophomore midfield captain Robert Rich and freshman midfielder Michael Holgerson continue to meld, leading our offense," said WHS head coach Brian Donnelly. "Sophomore Donovan Cassidy has been leading our defense and sophomore captain Hunter Fife continues to deliver amazing performances in goal."

The Vikings will be bolstered by the return this week of junior captain Jack Hayes, who has been sidelined for the past three weeks with a foot injury.

"Having Jack back will really help our young and inexperienced attack position," noted Donnelly.

The Vikings are scheduled to host the Essex Tech JV today (Thursday) on the turf at Miller Field at 4:00. They will make the short trek to Revere on Monday and will entertain Medford on Wednesday.

CAPPUCCIO SHINES FOR BOYS TRACK

Nicholas Cappuccio continued his stellar spring track season by scoring 18 points for the Winthrop High boys outdoor track and field team in the Vikings' meet with Gloucester last week.

Nicholas took first place in three events, the 100 meter dash with a sprint of 11.10; the 200 dash with a time of 23.30; and the long jump with a flight of 19'-10." He also grabbed second place in the high jump with a leap of 5'-2"

Peter Jurovich took first place in the shot-put with a toss of 37'-0". Peter also earned second place in the discus with a spin of 79'-2" to score eight points on the day.

Benjamin Prew also scored eight points for the Vikings, winning the javelin with a throw of 107'-9" and taking second in the 400 dash in 63.30.

Adding three points to the Winthrop side of the scoresheet with second-place performances were Eric Azbegu with a long jump of 16'-10.5" and Daniel Guauque with a triple jump of 30'-3".

Contributing one point to the Viking cause with third-place efforts were: Luke Riley in the javelin (101'-0) and in the 400 dash (66.40); Guauque in the discus (78'-4") and 100 dash (12.10); Azbegu in the 200 dash (26.60); and Joseph Navarro in the two-mile in 14:03.3.

The final tally showed the Fishermen winning the meet, 80-46.

The Vikings were scheduled to take on Salem yesterday (Wednesday) and will meet Danvers next Wednesday.

WHS GIRLS TRACK LED BY MUNSON

Although the Winthrop High girls outdoor track and field team came up on the short end of an 89-33 decision to Gloucester last week, a number of Lady Vikings came through with fine performances.

Sophia Munson led Winthrop with 13 points. Sophia sprinted to victory in the 100 dash in a time of 13.5 and in the 200 dash in a clocking of 28.6. She also grabbed second in the long jump with a leap of 14'-4".

Teammate Adrianna Cappuccio won the long jump with a flight of 14'-9" and dashed to a second-place finish in the 100 meters in 14.2 to score eight points.

April Ferguson came through with a first-place in the two-mile run in 13:45.8. April also grabbed a third in the javelin with a throw of 50'-9" to tally six points.

Cori Powell added three points to the Winthrop scoresheet with a second in the 400 hurdles in 86.0.

Julia Hurley scored a third-place point in the shotput with a toss of 16'-4"; Juliana Demers took third in the 200 dash in 33.2; and Libby Carney came across the line in third in the 400 dash in 78.6.

The Lady Vikings were scheduled to take on Salem yesterday (Wednesday) and will meet Danvers next Wednesday.

WHS SOFTBALL DROPS 12-10 DECISION TO WAYLAND

The Winthrop High softball team turned in a strong outing, but came up on the short end of a 12-10 decision at non-league opponent Wayland this past Saturday.

The contest was a seesaw affair. The Lady Warriors took an early 1-0 in the second inning, but the Lady Vikings battled back to draw even at 4-4 after three frames. Wayland moved ahead, 9-6, with three runs in the fourth, but Winthrop responded with a four run rally in the fifth to take a 10-9 advantage. However, the Lady Warriors scored thrice in the sixth to put the game on ice.

Senior Summer Tallent had a nice day at the plate, going 3-for-4 with two RBI and two runs scored. Lily Tallent was 2-for-4 (a single and a double), drew a base on balls, and scored three runs with two RBI. Juliana Guzman had a pair of triples and scored two runs.

Earlier in the week, the Lady Vikings dropped contests to Northeastern Conference rivals Salem and Peabody. Winthrop was tied with Salem at 5-5 through the middle of the third, but the Witches plated nine runs in their half of the third and added eight more in the fourth.

Lily Tallent was 3-for-3 with three runs scored and two stolen bases. Izzy Cash also was 3-for-3 (two singles and a double), scored a run, and had two RBI.

In the loss to Peabody, a base hit by Summer Tallent proved to be the only safety for Winthrop.

Coach Dave Guffey and his crew, who stand at 1-7 on the season, were scheduled to play Masconomet yesterday (Wednesday) and will host Saugus tomorrow (Friday) at the Little League field. They will travel to Swampscott next Wednesday.

You are hereby notified that a civil action has been filed by the above-named plaintiffs in which you are named as a defendant, wherein they are seeking alternative service of process by publication. This complaint concerns a certain parcel of land in Winthrop, Suffolk County, and said Commonwealth being a parcel of land known as and numbered 150 Hermon Street, Winthrop and being more particularly described in a deed dated November 15, 2007 and recorded in the Suffolk Registry of Deeds in Book 42696, Page 328. Plaintiffs seek a declaratory judgment concerning deeds in the chain of title, including reformation of a deed, and declaration that they hold record and marketable title to 100% of the property free of any claims of the defendants, and such further relief as is just and proper. This complaint may be examined at the Suffolk County Superior Court, Boston, Massachusetts, or a copy obtained from plaintiff's attorney. If you intend to make any defense, you are hereby required to serve upon the plaintiff's attorney, Kaleena Machado, Esq., Dalton & Finegold, LLP, whose address is 34 Essex Street, Andover, MA 01810 an answer to the complaint on or before the 31st day of May, next, the return day, hereof, and a copy thereof must be filed in this court on or before said day. If you fail to do so, judgment by default will be taken against you for relief demanded in the complaint. Unless otherwise provided by Rule 13(a), your answer must state as a counterclaim any claim which you may have against the plaintiff which arise out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiffs' claim, or you will thereafter be barred from making such claim in any other action. It appearing to this Court that no personal service of the Complaint has been made on the defendants identified herein above that after diligent search Plaintiffs can find no such persons upon whom they can lawfully make service, it is ORDERED that notice of this suit be given to them by publishing a copy of this notice three (3) times in the Winthrop Sun Transcript, a newspaper published in Winthrop in the County of Suffolk and said Commonwealth with the last publication at least 20 days before the above responsive pleading due date. Dated at Boston, Massachusetts, this 8th day of April, 2022.

SAINT MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL DRAMA PRESENTS “KIDS MUSICAL REVUE”

By Marianne Salza

Saint Michael the Archangel Drama will be presenting a “Kids Musical Revue,” on Saturday, May 14, at 5pm, and Sunday, May 15, at 11am, at St. John the Evangelist School gym. Parish youth will be performing songs and parable skits, including scenes from “Godspell, Jr.,” and “Sister Act 2.” Admission is free, and guests can enter to win a scratch ticket basket by visiting go.rallyup.com/saintmichaels. “The dancing numbers are my favorite,” said 12-year-old, Brianna Connolly, who has been dancing for almost 10 years. “I do five types on my own, but in the show, we do hip hop. It gives a little pop to the songs. I’ve always wanted to join a drama program, and I really like it.”

“Parable of the Good Samaritan” with Brianna Connolly and Giuliana Graygor.
