UPCOMING ROAD
DETOURS AND CONSTRUCTION

Residents are advised that night time road construction near the Winthrop St / Revere St intersection is scheduled for this week.

Paving on Pauline and Pleasant Streets took place on Wednesday.

Paving will begin on Pauline Street and continue onto Pleasant. Access to the Center Business District (CBD) will be maintained, however, detours will be in place as needed. Stamped asphalt and line striping work throughout the CBD will occur on Thursday and Friday following the completion of the paving work. The stamped asphalt and line striping will require temporary closures in the area of the work.

Modifications to the bus route on Pleasant Street can be expected due to paving.

Danny Eruzione signs pro contract with Italian Hockey League

By Cary Shuman

The Eruzione family has produced so many athletic thrills for multiple generations, from Miller Field in Winthrop to Fittin Field in Worcester to the Olympic Center in Lake Placid.

Danny Eruzione will now bring that storied tradition to an international destination as he begins his professional career in the Italian Hockey League (IHL).

Eruzione, 26, who had an excellent career at Salve Regina University, has signed a contract with the Brixen Falcons Hockey Club and will leave for Italy later this month. He will begin training camp on Sept. 1.

Eruzione said that each team in the IHL is allowed to have two or three players who are non-citizens of Italy. The Falcons will play a 45-game regular season schedule.

Eruzione is excited about beginning his pro hockey career.

"It's a dream-come-true to play professional hockey and I've always wanted to go to Europe," said Eruzione. "I can't wait to start playing. To finally get

Review Committee proposes changes

By Cary Shuman

The nine-member Winthrop Charter/Ordinance Review Committee, chaired by Marc Chapdelaine, presented a report to the Town Council Tuesday, suggesting some key changes to the election process and the membership of the Council itself.

Chapdelaine appeared at the Council meeting to submit the months-long work of the Charter/Ordinance Review Committee. The committee recommended upwards of 20 changes between the town charter and town ordinances.

Change the council to eight at-large members

"One of their recommendations is to change the composition of the Council from six precincts and two at-large councillors to having all at-large councillors," said Town Council President James Letterie.

Letterie said the ORC's reasoning for the change is to encourage more people to seek election to the Council. It is believed that

For a century Eastie has played host to Logan Airport, a significant source of noise and air pollution to the surrounding communities. According to studies, exposure to degraded air quality is responsible for 1 in 8 deaths globally, and in the United States air pollution accounts for approximately three times as many deaths as drug overdose and six times as many deaths as traffic accidents annually. These deaths are concentrated in communities near major sources of fuel combustion.

OUR Opinions

BILL RUSSELL WAS A BEAUTIFUL PERSON

For those of us who were Boston sports fans in our childhood while growing up in the 1960s, there was only one real hero -- and that was Bill Russell.

With 11 NBA titles in 13 seasons, the Celtics and Bill Russell were the epitome of success, especially in comparison to the other Boston sports teams of that era.

However, even at our young age, there was something about Bill Russell that we recognized as transcending the typical athlete of that period. We recall that when he published his autobiographical memoir in the mid-60s, Go Up for Glory, we eagerly bought the paperback. It was one of the few (if any) books that we read outside of our required school reading.

We knew instinctively, even at our young age, that if Bill Russell had something to say, it would be important and would be told in a straightforward and honest way that often was lacking in the turbulent era that was the 1960s.

The hippies proclaimed, “Don’t trust anyone over the age of 30,” but that did not apply to Bill Russell, who won his final NBA title as the Celtics’ player-coach in 1969 at the age of 35. Bill Russell’s honesty and integrity were unquestioned.

To paraphrase a popular TV commercial, “When Bill Russell spoke, people listened.”

Bill Russell was as elegant and graceful in his demeanor off the court as he was in his athleticism on the court. Just as his emphasis on defense, rebounding, and leading the fast break not only revolutionized the game of basketball, but also set the standard for the definition of selflessness and the concept of a team player, so too, did his truthful outspokenness on the subject of racism in America set a new standard in the sports world for elevating our national conversation about race and other social topics.

As we grew into adulthood, if we were hanging out with friends, whenever we might be playing the, “If you could have dinner with anyone famous, who would it be?” game, our answer always would be, “Bill Russell.”

Bill Russell will be missed, both in the world of sports and in the realm of life.

GINA RAIMONDO

FOR PRESIDENT

This past week, Congress finally passed the CHIPS (Creating Helpful Incentives for the Production of Semiconductors) and Science Act, legislation that will provide $280 billion in federal funding to ensure that the making of semiconductors, which are crucial to every aspect of our everyday life, will be manufactured here in America.

It is estimated that only 12 percent of the computer chips that are essential to the products that are sold in America, including our defense industry, actually are made in America.

Ominously, the largest maker of computer chips in the world is the Taiwan Semiconductor Company, which has its largest manufacturing plant in its home country of Taiwan -- a nation that could be overrun by mainland China in a matter of days.

The CHIPS Act overcame opposition from both progressives and conservatives in the House and Senate thanks largely to the tireless efforts of Commerce Secretary Gina Raimondo, the former governor of Rhode Island. Raimondo was forceful, eloquent, and politically savvy in her pitch to legislators on all sides of the political spectrum to garner support for the legislation.

Her efforts almost single-handedly saved the bill from defeat.

Raimondo graduated from Harvard and then went to Yale Law School. She also was a Rhodes Scholar and ran her own venture capital firm before running for State Treasurer and then Governor of Rhode Island.

Yet despite her Ivy League education, Raimondo grew up in a working class family in Rhode Island. She never had anything handed to her and worked hard for her success in life.

Gina Raimondo often is described as a centrist Democrat. When (hopefully) Joe Biden announces that he will not be running for re-election, there is no one on the Democratic side who would be better suited to running for President than Gina Raimondo.

Gina Raimondo is smart, articulate, and can speak the language of ordinary Americans. In short, she is a star among a bunch of also-rans.

REGARDING THE MBTA BETTER BUS PROJECT

Dear Editor,

The following letter was sent to the Better Bus Project, Steve Poftak (MBTA), James Tesler (MassDOT), as well as, Winthrop Town Manager Anthony Marino, State Senator Lydia Edwards, State Representative Jeffrey Turco, Governor Charlie Baker, Lt. Governor Karen Polito, Secretary of Transportation Stephanie Pollack, Assistant Speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives Katherine Clark, U.S. Senator Edward Markey, U.S. Senator Elizabeth Warren

Thank you for the opportunity to respond to the proposed changes envisioned by the MBTA’s Better Bus Project. We will gladly take this opportunity to comment on your proposed network redesign. This letter’s primary focus is addressing the massive changes proposed for Winthrop through the Bus Network Redesign and will also highlight what we see from a broader perspective of mobility regarding our views of the MBTA and MassDOT as related to Winthrop. To best serve the people of the Commonwealth and the residents of Winthrop, we would encourage the various parties within MASSDOT and MBTA to coordinate their activities to facilitate changes in how these two governmental entities work within our community.

The bus network redesign uses an analysis that is divorced from reality. Several areas are pointedly disadvantaged by the new routes – most notably the Point Shirley neighborhood. Other serious issues with the proposed redesign include the disconnect of service to our Center Business District, the elimination of a stop that provides access to one of our most densely populated areas, as well as potential disruption to already strained roadway traffic. From the proposed replacement of the 712/713 routes with the 119/120 routes, Winthrop’s rider needs are ignored for the benefit of ‘knitting together’ the communities of Revere’s Beachmont area and East Boston – using Winthrop as a mechanism to connect larger transportation hubs while undeniably disadvantaging our residents cannot - and will not - be accepted by this Council. Below is our commentary on the proposed network changes.

Point Shirley Service

Discontinuing service to Point Shirley would require up to a 2 mile walk between the proposed public transit stop and a rider’s destination. It is wholly unacceptable to expect residents and visitors to Winthrop to do this simply to access transit options currently existing within a half mile walk. This is a challenge in the best of circumstances, in fair weather, with mobility issues, strollers, or other baggage. Residents utilize bus service to access work, shopping, doctors’ appointments, and recreation both in Winthrop and beyond – requiring a 2 mile walk to do so is unacceptable. This redesign is quite literally moving progress backwards for public transit in Winthrop.

Point Shirley is also home to the Winthrop Ferry & Public Landing, Yirrell Beach, and the Deer Island Public Access Area/MWRA Facility, all of which are heavily accessed by public transit and the current bus routes. It is objectionable to lose public transit access to these locations.

Bus service to Point Shirley MUST remain in place. Tangentially related and highly dependent on retained bus service to Point Shirley, the MWRA should be required to submit to MassDOT a program that cuts vehicle traffic to the Plant by 20% within the next three years. This would have both safety and environmental benefits to Winthrop.

Diminished Level of Service Proposed

The two current bus routes (712/713) must be retained in their entirety or the MBTA must present an opportunity for a greater level of service than currently exists. The bus routes should facilitate travel to our Center Business District, as well as allow for other intra-town trips. With the redesigned routes, it overly complicates access to our Center Business District (CBD) from stops along the 120 route, requiring a bus change to the 119. With a town that is barely greater than 1 square mile, it is nearly inconceivable to require a change in bus line to reach the center of town as well as other areas accessible on the two proposed bus routes.

We welcome and want bus service from Winthrop to Revere including the proposed Suffolk Downs development and Beachmont station, however, this service must be additive to the 2019 baseline level of service as provided by the 712/713 routes as they presently exist.

The proposed network eliminates the bus stop at the intersection of Governor’s Drive and Revere Street – a highly trafficked stop. This bus stop sits at the entrance of Winthrop’s largest housing complex, Governor’s Park. Governor’s Park hosts 393 residential units, is 60% owner occupied and ranges between 2 and 10% Section 8 housing. This complex is home to a diverse population, of which many residents rely heavily on public transit. While stops for both the 119 and 120 bus routes are a short distance from the entrance of Governor’s Park, the residential buildings continue back into the complex for an additional quarter mile, creating a significant walk to bus service for any residents in the farthest buildings. This bus stop must remain operational.

Traffic Impacts

The traffic in Winthrop, specifically during peak commuting times, is an ongoing issue for residents. Given that there are only two roads in or out of Winthrop, we are eager to encourage public transit and minimize car traffic. We implore the MBTA to re-examine both current and proposed bus stops in order to implement measures that move buses more efficiently and minimize impact to other drivers, cyclists, and pedestrians. Considering the Suffolk Downs construction and habitation that are on the horizon, now is the time to ensure we are best utilizing public transit to maximize efficiency before the traffic conditions worsen. It is not uncommon for buses in Winthrop to require drivers to maneuver at intersections to give the bus enough space to turn – the MBTA should examine current and proposed bus routes and stops to ensure safe maneuverability of buses to enhance traffic and pedestrian safety.

The Bus Network Redesign is a significant portion, but not the entirety, of Winthrop’s public transit concerns. We are in dire need of action by the MBTA and MASSDOT to avoid a transportation crisis. Notably, continuation and financial support of our ferry service, as well as an increased focus on the blue-to-red line connector on the T.

As an MBTA community, while we are grateful for the access to public transit, it is not without cost. We incur additional traffic concerns from the buses, wear on our aging infrastructure, and sadly, several severe public health and safety incidents involving MBTA buses. The proposed Bus Network Redesign utilizes Winthrop to ‘knit together’ the communities of Revere and East Boston, but with flagrant disregard for the people of our own community. We appeal to MBTA to make a commitment to treating Winthrop fairly, and not as a ‘sacrificial’ community, as we have seen in our treatment by the MWRA and MassPort.

The Winthrop Town Council requests that a representative of the MBTA come before the council to discuss the contents of this letter as well as next steps to ensuring Winthrop is protected throughout this project. Please contact Denise Quist, Town Clerk, at dquist@town.winthrop.ma.us to schedule a meeting as soon as possible.

In conclusion, we see a mobility crisis on the horizon for Winthrop. This affects our quality of life, our property values, safety on our streets, and our mental health. We need a committed partner that understands the urgency of this moment. We hereby make ourselves available to work collaboratively to achieve the goals we have set forward in this letter.

THANK YOU

Dear Editor,

A huge thank you to my good friend, Julia Wallace and her friends Izzy, Kate and Brea from the Northeastern University’s accelerated nursing program. They helped me out tremendously filling mini-care packages, one quart Zip Lock bags filled with toiletries, snacks, playing cards and a note from home. These mini care packages will be placed in big care packages being shipped to United States troops serving all over the world. If you have a brother, aunt, daughter, uncle or friend serving overseas with the United States Military, I would be honored to write them and send them one of my care packages. I don’t have previously know them and they don’t have to be from Winthrop. What does it cost?? Nothing!

It’s tough being away from family and friends in a far away country. Besides the danger, the loneliness can be overwhelming. I’ll put a smile on their face, a smile in their heart and a smile in their stomach.

ARTICLE 960- REMEMBERING THE DEROO’S AND THEIR HOME

One of the subjects we enjoy writing about is the evolutionary changes over time especially where the families involved were prominent people in Winthrop and our community life. Today we have a group of pictures provided by Linda Costantino depicting the changes to her family homes that occurred from the 1860’s to 2010. It was in one of these homes that electrical contractor Abbott Deroo was raised and the second one that his daughter and her family have been living. Abbott’s great grandfather, William Winn, came to Winthrop in 1860 and built the family home at 78 Main Street as shown in picture one during what appears to be a Fourth of July celebration. Note the empty lot on the right hand side of the picture. The barn, which was behind this house, was moved in 1925 onto a foundation on the afore mentioned empty lot at 82 Main Street as shown in picture two. Note the two windows and doorway on the second floor. In picture three, these same windows and doorway can be seen in the reframed roof lines that depict a Gambrel type facade in the front of the second and third floors. Also, a new glassed in recreational porch is in the process of being added to the first floor at the front of the house along with a new side entry. When completed, the home at 82 Main Street appeared as shown in picture 4. This was the home that Abbott’s parents then moved into. When Abbott’s daughter Linda married Frank Costantino, they moved into #82 while Abbott and his wife Marion took up residence in #78 where they lived until they retired and moved to New Hampshire. Abbott ran his electrician business from 1932 to 1947 in the Winthrop Center building where Public Shoe operated until last year. He then ran an electrical contracting business out of his home. He was a Charter Member of the local Rotary Club and served as its president. He also was a president of the Winthrop Improvement and Historical Association and served on its board of directors for many years.

He was also active in the Local Elks club and Masonic Lodge. Marion served as Treasurer of the Winthrop Hospital Women’s League and was very active in the Women’s Garden Club. Upon retirement Abbott and Marion moved to New Hampshire where picture five was taken. The cane Abbott is holding is one of the 431 Boston Post Canes which were distributed in 1909 to many of the Towns, no cities, of Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Maine by Edwin A. Grozier of the Boston Post Newspaper, which ceased operation in 1956, for presentation to each community’s oldest living citizen. Today, only the location of about 50 such canes are still known and most are under the custodial care of local Historical organizations such as the Winthrop Improvement and Historical Association who now ceremonially present it by certificate to the eldest citizen in our town. Abbott received a citation award of his cane in 2001 from the New Hampshire town where he retired to. The full history of these canes was the subject of an earlier Then & Now article.

OBITUARIES

Ronald Zampanti

He will be missed more than words can say

Ronald “Ronnie” Zampanti of Falmouth died from complications after surgery on July 23, 2022 and entered eternal life. He was only 27 years old and the family is deeply saddened and shocked by his sudden death.

Ronnie was born on June 25, 1995 in Malden to Ronnie Zampanti of Mashpee, formerly of Winthrop, and Alexis White of Falmouth. He is the beloved brother of Lexa Zampanti of Falmouth.

He was a 2013 graduate of Falmouth High School where he excelled academically and athletically. He was captain of his football team, a stellar hockey player and ran track. He was accepted to Merrimack College with a scholarship where he went on to receive his bachelor’s degree in business with a minor in marketing. He maintained Dean’s List all four years. After college he found a passion for the use of solar energy and became one of the top ten sales managers for the two companies he worked for.

Coworkers, friends and family knew Ronnie as strong, loyal, generous and funny.

He was the beloved grandson of Joe Zampanti and the late Elaine Zampanti and Ronald Rossetti and the beloved nephew of the late Ralph Rossetti. Ronnie is survived by his parents, sister, grandfather, aunts, Tracy Caeran and her husband, James of Marblehead and Kristen Logan and her husband, James of Winthrop and he also leaves behind cousins: Craig Nolan and James Caeran of Marblehead and Laynie and Leah Logan of Winthrop as well many other aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

We will miss him more than words can say.

What a beautiful difference one single life made.

Lovingly missed and remembered by your family & friends.

Fly high our Angel.

All types of services for all types of people.

Some people prefer traditional funeral services. Others prefer cremation. Some want an elaborate ceremony. Then there are others who don’t want any ceremony at all. When it comes to funerals, there are as many options as there are people. And we take pride in being able to say we offer them all.

From present indications, the campaign for State Senate will be in full force within a few days. The friends of Geo. Sleeper, our State Representative, realize that Chelsea will be the battleground and that his interests are being looked after in a manner that will be a surprise to those who would like to see Winthrop win a state senatorship, but who sit on the fence and quote the old remark, “Winthrop can’t get anything; she is too small.” But the citizens of East Boston and Chelsea are realizing that Winthrop has grown faster than any town in the state in the past decade and that her vote, which is overwhelmingly Republican, is of vital importance when it comes to electing representatives and senators. We believe that the time has come when the citizens of Winthrop must take a decided stand and show the Republicans of the rest of the district that it is our turn to elect a state senator.

The Town Meeting was held August 7 to consider the matter of accepting as a town way a part of the street on the Crest along the beach at Ocean Spray. Mr. D. Floyd argued that since the non residents pay almost as much in taxes as residents, they deserve to take a benefit from the town in the form of a roadway. Floyd further said that if the road, if extended to Great Head, would benefit all of the town by contributing to the settlement of the beaches and highlands by permanent and summer residents. The vote was taken and the article passed, with only one or two dissenting.

Mr. Charles Burrill had the misfortune of losing 28 Java chickens, supposedly carted off by skunks.

FINAL FESTIVAL ENDS ON AUG. 13

The City of Malden has announced the musical line up for the final Summer Festival on August 13. Taking place between 12-4 p.m. in Malden Center, Pleasant and Exchange Streets transform into an open-air market that features artists and artisans, vintage clothing stores, a farmers market, and much more. The main stage located on the corner of Washington and Pleasant Streets — the line-up for August 13th features a musically diverse mix of bands.

12 p.m. The Mark Cataldo Quartet

1 p.m. Grupo Fantasia
2 p.m. The Reminisants
3 p.m. Borderline

In addition, August 13 will also be the date of the next Murder at the Malden Bank Pub Crawl. With three straight sell outs, this one-of-a-kind interactive game has proven to be a genuine crowd pleaser! Based upon the actual locations from the first bank robbery murder in the United States, the easy 17-minute walk takes you to multiple dining and drinking establishments connected to the murder of a member of the esteemed Converse family. At each location you will encounter interesting characters who will present you with challenges and puzzles to unlock the mystery behind the 1863 murder. Visit www.MaldenGamingDistrict.com for tickets and more information.

Located next to the Malden Center MBTA Orange Line station, the area is also home to Malden's Gaming District. This is the place to go if you want to quest at Boda Borg, conduct a science experiment that is a lot like mini-golf, play and stock up on Magic cards, shoot some billiards, try a racing simulator or sing your heart out at Karaoke. Easily accessible by Orange Line, but FREE Parking is available at both City garages at 170 Centre Street or 7 Jackson Street. These events are sponsored by the Office of Mayor Gary Christenson.

ANOTHER MAJOR EVENT SET FOR REVERE BEACH AUG. 13

Charles Giuffrida, director of Revere's Office of Travel and Tourism, has announced that Next Stop Revere will be celebrating the 126th summer of Revere Beach on Saturday, Aug. 13.

Revere Beach, which became the nation's first public beach in July, 1896, was home last month to the annual International Sand Sculpting Festival which attracted close to one million visitors.

The Office of Travel and Tourism was an initiative launched by Revere Mayor Brian Arrigo. Giuffrida, who is the assistant director of the Revere Parks and Recreation Department, was named as the first director of the new tourism department. Giuffrida will head the mayor's mission of bringing year-round event programming to the nation's first public beach.

Giuffrida said the celebration will begin at 2 p.m. and include day-long live music performances, food trucks on the Boulevard, and various amusement attractions such as a Ferris wheel and a giant slide.

Mayor Arrigo will lead a speaking program at 6 p.m. Gov. Charlie Baker, Lt. Gov. Karyn Polito, State Sen. Lydia Edwards, State Reps. Jessica Giannino and Jeff Turco, City Council President Gerry Visconti, and other local officials will be among the invited guests for the program.

"We'll be holding a fireworks show at 9 p.m.," said Giuffrida. "The whole day will be a great family event and fun for all ages."

JOE KENNEDY III ENDORSES RICARDO ARROYO FOR SUFFOLK COUNTY DA

Boston City Councilor Ricardo Arroyo announced that his campaign for Suffolk County District Attorney has been endorsed by Former Congressman Joe Kennedy III. The endorsement adds to Arroyo's growing momentum after his dominating performances in debates and forums in the last three weeks.

In a statement endorsing Councilor Arroyo, Former Congressman Kennedy said: "Deeply rooted in the community he serves, Ricardo Arroyo has steadfastly refused the false choice between public safety and equal justice, understanding that the law can — and must — be used to deliver both. From a public defender's desk to the Boston City Council, Ricardo has proven he has the integrity, public safety experience and policy vision needed to build a criminal legal system that protects us all. I'm proud to enthusiastically endorse him for Suffolk County District Attorney."

Kennedy's support is Arroyo's latest high-profile endorsement after previously earning the endorsements of Mayor Michelle Wu, Congresswoman Ayanna Pressley, Senator Elizabeth Warren, Senator Ed Markey, the Boston Teachers Union, Unite Here Local 26, and Iron Workers Local 7.

"I am deeply honored to be endorsed by Congressman Joe Kennedy," said Councilor Arroyo, who would be the first Latino District Attorney in Massachusetts. "Congressman Kennedy was a strong voice for us in Congress on immigrant and economic justice. As a former Assistant District Attorney, he understands that we can achieve long-lasting public safety by making sure people have housing, high-quality education, and jobs that pay living wages."

Since launching his campaign on February 8, Arroyo has earned endorsements from Boston Mayor Michelle Wu, Congresswoman Ayanna Pressley, U.S. Senator Elizabeth Warren, U.S. Senator Ed Markey, Former Boston Mayor Kim Janey, State Senator Sonia Chang-Diaz, State Senator Sal DiDomenico, State Senator Adam Gomez, State Representative Russell Holmes, State Representative Nika Eluardo, State Representative Jon Santiago, State Representative Andy Vargas, Boston City Council President Ed Flynn, Boston City Councilor Julia Mejia, Boston City Councilor Ruthzee Louijeune, Boston City Councilor Tania Fernandes Anderson, Boston City Councilor Kendra Lara, Boston City Councilor Gabriela Coletta, Former Boston City Councilor Tito Jackson, Revere City Councilor Steve Morabito, Chelsea City Council President Roy Avellana, Chelsea City Councilor Enio Lopez, Chelsea City Councilor Giovanni Recupero, Chelsea City Councilor Damali Vidot, UNITE HERE Local 26, Boston Teachers Union, Iron Workers Local 7, United Auto Workers Region 9A, Run For Something, and Mijente.

COLARUSSO TO HOST RECEPTION

A reception for Congressional Candidate Caroline Colarusso will be held on Monday, August 15 from 6:00-8:00pm at Alia Restaurant, 495 Shirley Street, Winthrop.

A requested donation is $50.

On the campaign trail Caroline says, "that she will promote your values and policies. Re-electing Caroline's opponent, Katherine Clark, would be like re-electing Joe Biden, $8.00 gasoline, 18% inflation and erasing our national borders." She also says, "current polling in Massachusetts is showing a 10 point edge (points) for Republicans over Democrats, (49 to 39 points.) Let's take advantage of finally having a conservative edge, let's win, and let's get Caroline over the top."

Join Caroline Colarusso, the Winthrop Republican Town Committee, The Fifth District and other local conservatives on August 15 at Alia's Restaurant in Winthrop. Respond now and help save our country.

Please provide: Name, Address, Occupation, Employer, email (info required by state law). For more information call Paul 617-846-1900.

Jobs fair for Suffolk Downs development draws 300

Special to the Journal

Thomas O'Brien, founding partner and managing director of the HYM Investment Group, was asked the following question at the July 26 jobs fair at Suffolk Downs: How many new construction jobs will there be for HYM's housing and commercial project on the 161-acre site of the former racetrack?

"There are going to be 14,000 total construction jobs, and then in the end there'll be about 20,000 permanent jobs in the buildings," replied O'Brien, whose project will ultimately deliver the largest single creation of housing by a redevelopment project in greater Boston history.

That's why the atmosphere at the jobs fair was so optimistic and inspiring for the close to 300 men and women who attended the event. Interestingly, the well-organized fair was held near the finish line of the former racetrack, but this event represented a potential new start for the many job seekers.

curbs, streets, and parking areas in support of public health, safe mobility, and community growth and revitalization. This round of funding placed particular emphasis on two new types of projects: those to reduce vehicle speeds in order to increase safety, and those to purchase equipment needed to improve and maintain infrastructure for active transportation.

“Our Shared Streets and Spaces grant program is just one of the many municipal grant programs that has demonstrated what we can accomplish by working together with our partners at the local level,” said Governor Charlie Baker. “Today’s announcement represents the largest award round since the program was launched and we are glad to be funding projects that reduce vehicular speeds and provide safe mobility for children, for seniors, to public transportation, housing, and to open space and parks.”

“We’ve been proud to award a total of $50 million dollars in grant funding to cities and towns to facilitate 494 projects since launching Shared Streets and Spaces during the COVID-19 pandemic in June of 2020,” said Lieutenant Governor Karyn Polito. “We are pleased to partner with local leaders to create safer and more connected cities and towns.”

This grant round also offered municipalities a new opportunity to apply for grants for up to $50,000 to purchase equipment to support active transportation. Eligible items include such things as snow removal equipment for pedestrian and bicycle facilities, speed feedback signs, pedestrian-activated warning devices such as Rectangular Rapid Flashing Beacons (RRFB), and bicycle lane delineators.

“With speeding and speeding-related crashes becoming more and more prevalent as we emerge from the pandemic, safety and driving at appropriate speeds has never been so important,” said Transportation Secretary and CEO Jamey Tesler. “MassDOT encourages municipalities to think strategically an implemented speed reduction measures to reduce crashes and the severity of injuries in crashes. Many of the projects funded in this grant round will make our streets safer for everyone, whether they are walking, bicycling, taking public transportation or driving.”

Today’s announcement represents the largest award round since the program was launched in June 2020. The awards made in this round provide funding to 138 municipalities and seven Regional Transit Authorities for a total of 184 individual grants. Of the awarded municipalities, 53% are designated Environmental Justice communities. A total of 31% of today’s award recipients have never received a Shared Streets and Spaces grant before.

Winthrop received $53,568.00 to install eight solar-powered speed feedback signs along a stretch of Route 145 experiencing high vehicular traffic.

RASPBERRY CRISP

INGREDIENTS:

• 4 cups fresh raspberries

• ½ cup white sugar

• 3 tablespoons all-purpose flour

Topping:

• ½ cup quick-cooking oats

• ⅓ cup all-purpose flour

• ⅓ cup packed brown sugar

• ¼ cup shredded coconut

• ¼ cup cold butter, cubed

DIRECTIONS:

STEP 1: Preheat the oven to 350 degrees F (175 degrees C). Grease an 8-inch square baking dish.

STEP 2: Gently toss raspberries with sugar and flour in a large bowl. Pour into the prepared baking dish.

STEP 3: Combine oats, flour, brown sugar, and coconut in another large bowl. Cut in cold butter with 2 knives or a pastry blender until the mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Lightly sprinkle the crumb mixture over the berries.

STEP 4: Bake in the preheated oven until golden brown, 30 to 40 minutes. Let cool.

in approximately 80 percent of the precinct council races, the incumbent has not faced an opponent.

Reducing length of terms

Another major change, according to Letterie, would be the reduction of a councilor’s term from four years to two years.

“That would mean that every two years, every councilor would be up for re-election,” said Letterie.

The thought is that prospective candidates might be willing to make a commitment to serving in office for two years, as opposed to four years.

Council president’s term would be lengthened to four years

Also generating conversation is the Ordinance Review’s Committee recommendation to extend the term of the Council President from two years to four years.

The thought is that it is difficult for the Council President to build an agenda in a two-year term, with the next election seemingly just around the corner.

The next step in the process

President Letterie explained that any change in the town charter would require a two-thirds vote (six votes) of the Town Council.

“Any major change, which they call substantive change, such as changing the composition of the Council, would require a two-thirds vote of the Council, and then on to the State Legislature for a home-rule petition – meaning the state would have to approve the change,” said Letterie. “It would then still have to go on the town ballot for the general public.”

The next possible time for a town-wide vote on any of the changes being proposed would be the November, 2023 election, which is a regularly scheduled election, as opposed to a special election.

Todd Sacco sends letter on serving on the Committee

First, let me thank Mr. Letterie for providing me the opportunity to be part of such an important committee. Town government is the most important government as all politics starts at the local level. I was honored to be part of such an important undertaking.

In the coming days you will be presented with the final product of our work. I am writing to strongly encourage you to consider presenting the proposal to the town for vote in its entirety and without change.

The reasons are simple. Our current Council President has the authority to appoint this board. The people of Winthrop overwhelmingly chose Jim Letterie as their leader. And, I remind you his victory was historic, he won every precinct, and won by over 600 votes.

Jim was thoughtful and meticulous in his selections and I thought we had a very diverse group that accurately represents the political makeup of our electorate.

It is because of these facts that it makes perfect sense, and it is the just thing to do, to move these questions to the ballot in their present form, for the people of Winthrop to decide. Anything else would demonstrate a lack of faith in the Ordinance Review Committee and the community at large.

ciates, the HYM Investment Group, and the City of Revere hosted the job information session that was designed to recruit and train the next generation of building trades workers.

Praise for Revere’s Mayor

Thomas O’Brien led off the brief speaking program at the fair by praising Revere Mayor Brian Arrigo, a theme carried forth by the union officials who also addressed the gathering.

“Among the most important partnerships we’ve had from the people who helped us and worked with us, there has been no better champion for us than Mayor Brian Arrigo, who’s been with us since the very beginning,” said O’Brien. “The mayor is leading the city in a way that is helping Revere develop a new direction for creating jobs, creating next tax revenue, rebuilding the school system, building a new physical high school in Revere. All these things are amazing and positive developments in Revere. We’re really excited about the work we’ve been able to do.”

Mayor Arrigo speaks at the job fair

Arrigo, who drew a significant ovation from the many union leaders and job candidates in attendance, said that when he first met with O’Brien in the Mayor’s Office in 2017, he told O’Brien that “I want to make something [at Suffolk Downs] where we’re creating jobs for the people in the City of Revere.”

The attendance at the job fair by scores of Revere residents affirms Arrigo’s vision.

“What we have before us is really a transformational opportunity for the people who live in Revere to have economic opportunities, not only in great-paying construction jobs and union construction jobs, but also the ability for us to have long-term investments and jobs for folks that are going to be able to work here and live here and enjoy themselves forever,” said Arrigo.

The mayor said the Revere economy was basically based around a dog track and a horse track, which are no longer in operation.

“So, when Tom O’Brien came knocking, it was really clear that we needed economic opportunity for our residents, your children, and your children’s children,” said Arrigo. “So that’s what we have here, and we’re excited about the opportunities.”

Also speaking at the job fair were Chris Brown, CEO of general contractor John Moriarty and Associates, Sprinkler Fitters Local 550 Business Agent Mark Fortune, and Carpenters Union Local 218 Business Manager Richard Pedi.

“Godmother of Environmental Justice”, the late Mary Ellen Welch, had for decades tried to force Massport to measure ultrafine particles or PMs.

Welch long argued that the airport’s runway and roadside operations pose too much of an environmental impact on the neighborhood not to be considered when Massport files environmental impact statements or operations reports.

PMs from car exhaust and jet aircraft have been shown to cause a wide array of adverse health impacts.

Last week, Massport joined Eastie’s elected officials to celebrate a new grant that aims to curb carbon emissions from airport related traffic and roadside operations that pollute our air.

Massport recently received a Massachusetts Clean Energy Center (MassCEC) grant to support planning and facilitating the transition to more electric vehicles (EVs) at Logan.

Getting more passengers in an electric vehicle is an important step as Massport moves toward becoming Net Zero by 2031.

According to Massport the grant comes from MassCEC’s Accelerating Clean Transportation for All (ACT4All) Program. ACT4All aims to equitably increase access to clean transportation across the Commonwealth, reduce emissions in overburdened areas, and build effective community partnerships. The Department of Energy Resources has contributed to program funding.

“Offering EVs through rentals and rideshares will catalyze the adoption of EVs and help us achieve our clean transportation and emissions reduction goals,” said MassCEC CEO Jen Daloisio. “The growing deployment of EVs at Logan Airport and accompanying infrastructure will both help to educate consumers and begin to reduce emissions in surrounding communities. MassCEC is proud to support this innovative program.”

In 2019, there were more than 1.3 million rental car transactions at Logan and 2022 is trending to near 1 million transactions. Today, passengers at Logan can rent more than 200 EVs from the Rental Car Center, or choose an EV option from Uber or Lyft. By renting an EV, passengers can see for themselves how easy these are to use and reduce fear about charging the vehicle.

The demand at Logan Airport for more EV charging both landside and airside continues to increase. Massport has more than 40 chargers landside available for the public, in our parking garages and Ride App and taxi pools. These chargers are funded through Massport’s capital budget as well as grant funding.

For those driving their own EV to Logan, there are 173 hybrid, electric, and alternative fuel only parking spaces available and charging ports are located conveniently near the terminals with no cost for electricity use. Massport is also working to transition its own fleet to EVs, and recently ordered 2 electric Ford F-150 trucks and 2 electric Ford Transit vans for use at Logan Airport.

“Shifting to electric vehicles is a crucial step toward improving air quality for East Boston and other airport adjacent communities and reducing the carbon footprint overall,” said State Senator Lydia Edwards. “I applaud Massport and the MassCEC for their efforts toward expanding sustainable ride options at Logan.”

At last week’s event, the speakers acknowledged the airport’s proximity to surrounding communities and how their ongoing efforts would reduce emissions for all. Hertz’ SVP of Operations Initiatives Jeff Nieman said his company already had 1,000 EVs in the Boston region, and Michael Chisolm, Lyft’s business development manager of airports, reiterated his company’s commitment to use EVs exclusively by 2030.

“Increasing the adoption of electric vehicles at Logan is another big step toward improving quality of life in neighboring communities,” said State Representative Adrian Madaro. “Thank you to MassCEC and Massport for their collaboration in transitioning our city toward environmentally-friendly transportation.”

In 2013, the Rental Car Center, a LEED Gold certified building with rooftop solar, was completed and consolidated multiple rental car company operations into one location. This move allowed Massport to cut hundreds of shuttle bus trips daily, reduce emissions and roadway congestion, and create a better experience for passengers renting vehicles.

“Through partnerships with our rental car and Ride App companies, we are able to offer more environmentally friendly, on-demand transportation options for our passengers. The MassCEC grant will help us prioritize our ongoing efforts to expand electric vehicle availability at Logan Airport,” said Massport CEO Lisa Wieland. “Reducing the emissions created at Logan is not only good for the environment, it helps us to be a good neighbor to surrounding communities, while providing our passengers with the sustainable transportation options they desire.”

The large number of deaths and other health problems associated with particulate pollution was first demonstrated in the early 1970s and has been reproduced many times since. PM pollution is estimated to cause 22,000-52,000 deaths per year in the United States and 200,000 deaths per year in Europe.

The effects of inhaling particulate matter that have been widely studied in humans and animals now include asthma, lung cancer, cardiovascular issues, birth defects, and premature death. The size of the particle is a main determinant of where in the respiratory tract the particle will come to rest when inhaled. Because of their small size, particles on the order of 10 micrometers or less (PM10) can penetrate the deepest part of the lungs such as the bronchioles or alveoli. Larger particles are generally filtered in the nose and throat via cilia and mucus, but particulate matter smaller than 10 micrometers, PM10, can settle in the bronchi and lungs and cause health problems.

A study published in the Journal of the American Medical Association showed that inhaling PM2.5 leads to high plaque deposits in the arteries causing cardiovascular problems. Researchers suggest that even short-term exposure at elevated concentrations could significantly contribute to heart disease and conclude that traffic car exhaust is the single most serious preventable cause of heart attack in the general public and is the cause of 7.4 percent of all heart attacks in the world.

FRESH & LOCAL

Potato Salads minus Mayo

By Penny & Ed Cherubino

Around here, potato salads are made without mayonnaise. This began because of an egg allergy, but continues because we prefer the alternative dressings we’ve used over the years. To add to our heretical potato salad ways, we are now experimenting with a range of recipes for sweet potato salads.

Variations on Vinaigrettes

Most of our favorite potato salads start exactly like mayo-dressed ones. We boil potatoes until cooked. Then we add crunchy additions like celery, onion, scallions, and herbs. While the potatoes are still warm, we add a typical oil and vinegar dressing. This helps the potatoes soak up the flavors from the additions. You can use your favorite dressing and opt for an Italian, Greek, or French flavor profile with oregano, dill, or mustard respectively.

Our potatoes of choice are Yukon Gold or red potatoes. Occasionally they are peeled, but most of the time, we just scrub them and keep that nutritious skin in place. Red potatoes add to the look of the salad. Red onion will also perk up the visual appeal. Penny always tastes the onion; if it’s too strong, she soaks it in white vinegar for a few minutes to take away the bite.

A few traditional German potato salads introduce some fun options. One recipe attributed to the Bavarian region adds beef broth, pickles, and crisp bacon to an oil and vinegar dressing.

The version best known in this country has a bacon-fat vinaigrette. You cook the bacon and remove all but a couple of tablespoons of fat from the pan. Cook the onion in that fat until soft, and then deglaze the pan with vinegar before adding seasonings. Pour the dressing over boiled potatoes and top it with bacon pieces and chopped scallion or herbs. You can serve this salad warm or cool.

Sweet Potato Salad

Both regular and sweet potatoes are healthy additions to your diet. Healthline.com says, “Both types of potatoes are rich in fi-

Winthrop’s Rizzotto participates in National Leadership Academy

Special to the Transcript

The Winthrop Police is proud to announce that Winthrop Police Cadet (Explorer) Adrianna Rizzotto was one of only 32 youths selected to participate in the Public Safety Cadet National Leadership Academy from July 24 to July 30 at Fort Leonard, Missouri.

The Academy consisted of interactive workshops, dynamic lectures, high intensity exposure to U.S. Army Military Police training and operations, and physical fitness. Lessons taught throughout the week provided context to critical leadership evaluation processes for training and law enforcement operations addressing successes and failures of leadership in law enforcement. Adrianna was given the academy leadership award by her peers.

“We are very proud of Adrianna” stated Lieutenant Steve Rogers. “she is following a long line of Winthrop Police Explorers who have attended national leadership academies and have gone onto successful careers many in law enforcement.”

ber, carbs, and vitamins B6 and C. White potatoes are higher in potassium, whereas sweet potatoes contain more vitamin A.” That’s a good reason to consider making both potato salads.

The most appealing recipes we’ve found take the sweet potato to exciting places with additions like orange juice for the acid, red onion and jalapeno for crunch, and cooked Mexican chorizo as a topping.

A recently published recipe for “Sweet Potato Salsa Salad” in the Washington Post ignited our interest in this topic. This one starts with roasted chunks of sweet potato and tops them with a flavorful and colorful salsa before serving.

Like most salsas, you can create your version. The original recipe includes jalapeño pepper, corn, black beans, red peppers, cherry tomatoes, avocado, garlic, and smoked paprika. It’s topped with toasted pumpkin seeds.

Testing for Food Allergies

An allergy to eggs was the original reason we didn’t use mayonnaise. Penny’s case was so severe that she was rushed to an emergency room after drinking eggnog. We both had hives from penicillin and were told we had allergies to that.

A few years ago, we learned about the allergy testing program at Massachusetts General Hospital. We decided it was worth a few hours of our time to use an essential set of antibiotics. We both underwent the testing and found that we had outgrown or never had a true allergy. We recommend a professional assessment of any long-ago food allergies.

Eruzione had an outstanding three-year career at Salve Regina University. As a junior team captain, he set a new program career record for assists (71) and was second in all-time scoring for the Seahawks with 101 points.

But the COVID-19 pandemic wiped out his senior season, denying the college star the honor of being the all-time scoring king.

Catalytic converter theft foiled by automobile collision

Special to the Transcript

Two Rhode Island men were arraigned last week for the alleged theft of a catalytic converter and other offenses after they crashed while fleeing through a West Roxbury rotary, District Attorney Kevin Hayden said.

Joshua Ortiz, 21, and Yahir Rodriguez, 19, both of Providence, were arraigned in the West Roxbury Division of Boston Municipal Court yesterday. Ortiz is charged with possession of burglarious instruments, conspiracy, receiving stolen property under $1,200 and trespass. ADA Alexander Jones requested bail of $5,000 and that Ortiz be ordered to stay away from his co-defendant in the event he is to be released on bail. Judge Stephen McClenon imposed $500 bail. Rodriguez is charged with possession of burglarious instruments, conspiracy, receiving stolen property under $1,200, attaching wrong plates to a motor vehicle and unlicensed operation. He was also cited for speeding and failure to yield at an intersection in connection with the Wednesday crash. Jones requested $500 bail and an order that Rodriguez stay away from his co-defendant; McClenon released him on personal recognition.

At approximately 10:46 p.m. Wednesday, State Police responded to the scene of a collision the rotary at the intersection of VFW Parkway and West Roxbury Parkway. Troopers received information that, following the crash, occupants of one of the involved vehicles replaced the Massachusetts license plate that had been on the red Toyota Rav4 and replaced it with Florida license plate, which could be observed hanging from the rear of the vehicle by a single screw. One of the occupants then fled through area yards with the Massachusetts plate and other items from the vehicle.

The vehicle's driver, Rodriguez, remained on scene. He was carrying a screwdriver in his pocket. During a search of the area where the second occupant of the vehicle fled, police located a bag containing a used catalytic converter, two black ski masks, a battery-operated handsaw, 33 new and used blades for the handsaw, a battery and charging dock for the tool and a wallet with a Rhode Island ID and credit cards in Rodriguez' name. A license plate was also located in a nearby yard; it was subsequently reported stolen from a vehicle registered in West Roxbury.

While handcuffed and in police custody, Rodriguez continued to attempt to look at his phone, which received a number of text communications from a contact who appeared in the phone as "Josh." The text chain was open on the phone and visible to police. Incoming messages referenced a car crash and stated that individuals were enroute to the crash scene to pick up Rodriguez. Troopers remained in the area and observed a vehicle pull into a driveway that none of the vehicle's occupants had any connection to. Among the occupants was Joshua Ortiz, who matched the physical description of the individual seen fleeing the crash.

Ortiz and Ramirez' arrests came as law enforcement have observed an increase in catalytic converter thefts.

"This was not a crime of opportunity, nor was it a crime of necessity. The facts reflect an organized, criminal conspiracy that brought these individuals into Boston from another state in order to take advantage of our communities and neighbors. My office will continue our work to hold accountable anyone who commits these offenses while working with our partners in law enforcement and government to protect our communities," Hayden said.

Ortiz and Ramirez return to court October 7.

All charged individuals are presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

DORR EARNS DEAN'S LIST HONORS AT PROVIDENCE COLLEGE

Maura Dorr, daughter of Jill and Jerry Dorr of Winthrop, MA has earned Dean's List honors at Providence College for the spring 2022 semester.

Dean's List honors are earned by full-time undergraduate students who, at the end of the semester, have attained a GPA of 3.55 or better (on a 4.0 scale), with no grade lower than "C," and with no incomplete grades ("I" or "NM").

Part-time students in the School of Continuing Education must be in good academic standing (defined as a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or above) and, at the end of the spring semester term, have attained an average of 3.25 or higher with no grade less than "C." They also must have carried a minimum of nine credit hours during that semester and be enrolled in a degree program.

Founded in 1917, Providence College is the only college or university in the United States administered by the Dominican Friars. The Catholic, liberal arts college has an undergraduate enrollment of approximately 4,100 students and offers degrees in 50 academic majors. Since 1997, Providence College consistently has been ranked among the top five regional universities in the North according to U.S. News & World Report's "America's Best Colleges."

Checklist: Reach for the off switch before you go on holiday!

Special to the Transcript

Hit movie Home Alone made waves about hapless holiday makers leaving their child behind. But in the real world, what gadgets are most likely to have been left on in the home when people head abroad?

The holiday car rental experts at StressFreeCarRental.com have researched online for the most likely items in the home to be left on and come up with a checklist of things that need to be turned off before leaving the house.

As well as saving vital energy and reducing the risk of accidents in your absence, these top tips will also help people save money during the current cost of living crisis.

A spokesperson for StressFreeCarRental.com said: "There is so much to think about when you are preparing for a holiday, in terms of packing the right things and remembering your passport.

"It is also worthwhile coming up with a routine to check around the house before you leave to ensure everything that needs to be switched or turned off is done so.

"No-one wants to return to an easily preventable flood or higher energy bill than necessary when you have not been in the home for two weeks. Our checklist should help guide holiday makers on what to do."

checked to see they are in good working order.

Here is StressFreeCarRental.com's guide to what to switch off at home before you head off on your travels:

Chargers

Unplugging chargers is a good tactic as they draw power into their power supplies constantly, so you can make an energy and cost saving.

Lights

You need to consider turning lights off, although weighing up if you will have a timer switch to factor in. Sometimes there are lights in the attic, garage or basement which are forgotten about and need to be turned off.

Modems and routers

By turning these off you can also prevent hackers from getting into your wifi as well as saving on power.

er.

Heating

It's a waste of money and energy to heat the house when you are away in the summer. Consider keeping the heating on very low if on holiday in the winter.

Kitchen appliances

Some of these are worth unplugging to save electricity and reduce the fire risk to your home. But not all - it would be unwise to turn off the fridge and freezer leaving you in a real mess on your return. Weigh up which appliances can safely be turned off.

Water

Locate the stopcock and turn off the water before leaving home on your holidays. It's important as it will help prevent water leaks that can result in expensive floods and damage.

5-foot-9-inch, 160-pound forward.

The dream beyond this dream

The son of a Holy Cross sports legend, Vinnie Eruzione, who played three Division 1 college sports and is now the athletic director at Curry College, and the nephew of Olympic gold medalist Mike Eruzione, it goes without saying that the last name Eruzione represents elite sports royalty.

The second tier of Danny's continuing hockey career could be awe-inspiring, though.

Danny said he intends to apply for dual citizenship in Italy, which is a 16-month process. And with the 2026 Winter Olympics being held in Milan and Italy receiving an automatic bid as the host country, the opportunity exists for Danny Eruzione to earn a spot on the Italian Olympic team.

"That's the hope, that's the dream and the plan," said Eruzione. "Hopefully, I'll be able to try out for the Olympic team."

The thought of another Eruzione playing ice hockey in the Olympics would be as big a sports story as it gets. Danny Eruzione would instantly become the most recognizable player in the entire Olympic tournament because of his uncle Mike's unforgettable reign as captain of the 1980 USA gold medal team.

"That would be special," said Danny understatedly. "I haven't seen the level of competition there yet, but if I keep developing on the right course, I think I would have a really good shot at least of being invited to [Olympic] camp. I'm going to give it my best shot."

LOCAL STUDENTS EARN ACADEMIC HONORS

LOCAL STUDENTS GRADUATE FROM EMERSON

Emerson College, the nation's premier institution for the arts, communication, and the liberal arts, awarded more than 1,000 undergraduate degrees during its 142nd Commencement at Agganis Arena in Boston.

- Joy Freeman from Winthrop, received a BS in Journalism.
- Richard Fucillo from Winthrop, received a BS in Communication Studies.

During the ceremony, the College honored three award-winning artists, innovators, and Emersonians for their contributions and efforts to the arts, communication, and greater humanity. Crazy Rich Asians and Raya and the Last Dragon screenwriter Adele Lim '96; composer and singer Toshi Reagon; and Emerson Trustee, founder and chairman of Samuels & Associates, and film producer Steve Samuels each received honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degrees. Lim '96 gave the commencement address.

"I admire your sense of community, of social justice, fairness, and your willingness to use your voice in the pursuit of those ideals," said Interim President William Gilligan in the President's Address at the ceremony. "The world needs you now to continue that with all the skills and knowledge you have acquired, the values you have developed and displayed, and that indomitable Emerson spirit that you have shown us often."

Commencement speaker Adele Lim '96, said, "I am far from done, but what I hope for myself, for all of us, for all of you, is what all great stories have: a journey that is authentic and meaningful, and if we're lucky, one that touches the lives of others."

LOCAL STUDENTS NAMED TO DEAN'S LIST AT MCPHS

MCPHS University is pleased to announce the student who has been named to the Dean's List for the Spring 2022 semester:

- Khalid Ekaidat is a native of Winthrop and is pursuing a Doctor of Pharmacy degree. Khalid will graduate from the Boston, Massachusetts campus in 2024.

The Dean's List recognizes those students with a full-time course load who have achieved outstanding scholarship with a 3.5 GPA or higher for the academic term.

The mission of MCPHS University is to prepare graduates to advance health and serve communities worldwide through excellence, innovation, and collaboration in teaching, practice, scholarship, and research. Founded in 1823, MCPHS University is the oldest institution of higher education in the City of Boston. In addition to the original Boston campus, the University has campuses in Worcester, Massachusetts, and Manchester, New Hampshire, as well as robust online learning options. The University currently offers more than 100 unique baccalaureate, masters, and doctoral degree programs and certificates covering a variety of health-related fields and professions.

WINTHROP CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ANNUAL FAMILY BEACH DAY AT YIRRELL BEACH

Last Saturday was a beautiful day for hitting the beach, Yirrell Beach to be exact. It was family day at Yirrell Beach, and plenty of Winthrop's beach goers, went. DJ Alan La-Bella kept every-one entertained with kids games for all ages, and of course plenty of music for the surroundings. There was a water slide for the kids and well as plenty of food and beverages offered as well.

Local vendors were on hand to offer information and pass out goodies for all to enjoy, from pens to sun screen and everything in-between.

The Arlauskas family was at Yirrell Beach.

“Emerald Tutu” floating biomass may help Eastie against sea level rise

By John Lynds

Last year, coastal engineer and professor, Julia Hopkins led a team to place a floating biomass mat off the shores of East Boston.

The mat tested were part of a larger National Science Foundation (NSF) funded research project dubbed the “Emerald Tutu” to see if these mats that resemble a ballerina’s tutu can help stave off coastal flooding and sea level rise in the neighborhood.

After a year of testing the mat in Eastie exceeded Hopkins expectations. Hopkins said the mats tested grew “so much vegetation” and her research team didn’t expect as much grass or seaweed to grow.

“We didn’t realize it would colonize that easily and that much,” she said.

The floating biomass, with marsh grass above the waterline and sinewy seaweed below, dampens incoming wave energy and retards storm surge in order to reduce crisis flooding ashore.

Based on the initial results, the research team is looking to design and implement biomass-based coastal protection infrastructure all around Eastie’s waterfront. The goal is to have a floating network of interconnected, anchored massive organic growing modules dampens wave energy and reduces flooding, storm damage, and erosion on shore while improving nearshore water quality. These biomass modules are seeded with marsh grass at the surface, and are home to many seaweeds below the waterline, all of which add significant mass and frictional surface area and provide habitat for many types of creatures, human and non-human.

“But it also draws people down to the coastline in fair weather; its green landscapes and floating pathways enable public access to new waterfronts,” said Hopkins.

Eastie and other coastal neighborhoods in the city already see some flooding, including on sunny days, and some new properties are being developed to adapt. Massachusetts had the third highest number of affordable housing units under threat of coastal flooding in the nation, according to a Climate Central analysis released last year.

An alarming report from a UN panel warns that the next two decades

National Science Foundation (NSF) funded research project dubbed the “Emerald Tutu” to see if these mats that resemble a ballerina’s tutu can help stave off coastal flooding and sea level rise in the neighborhood.

The goal is to have a floating network of interconnected, anchored massive organic growing modules that dampens wave energy and reduces flooding, storm damage, and erosion on shore while improving nearshore water quality.

will bring more damaging floods, worsening droughts and more dangerous heat waves.

Adaptive infrastructure that absorbs tidal energy from rising seas is considered a crucial way to adjust to life as climate change makes the world hotter and wetter and threatens waterfront communities.

According to the project team’s website they drew influence from landscape architect Frederick Law Olmsted’s 1,100-acre connected park system in Boston known as the Emerald Necklace. Olmsted envisioned the park system in Boston as a collective space where inhabitants of the crowded, chaotic city could find healthy activity and mental solace. A series of pleasant public spaces brought nature back to the city, where it could be enjoyed by all.

A byproduct of the Emerald Necklace is that it solved major drainage challenges of an industrializing city, and it integrated transit while balancing residential development.

According to the team the goal of the Emerald Tutu in Eastie is to provide a climate resilience infrastructure solution that is deployable, flexible, inexpensive, green, non-invasive, and a joy to experience.

“As is abundantly clear in our era, “gray infrastructure” coastal barriers and other traditional coastal engineering approaches are ineffective and even harmful, both ecologically and economically,” said the research team. “Civil infrastructure for climate resilience should be accessible to all people, encouraging everyday use and environmental benefits as well as protection during catastrophic storms. Furthermore, it should economically empower local populations during its implementation and upkeep.”
