Council votes to maintain single tax rate

By Adam Swift

The Town Council voted to keep to a single tax rate for residential and commercial property, and not to adopt a residential or small commercial property tax exemption for Fiscal Year 2024 at Tuesday night's meeting.

By keeping with the status quo, the average single family property tax bill will increase by $495 for FY2024.

Residential property, which also includes multi-family homes and apartment buildings, makes up 94 percent of the property tax base in Winthrop, compared to only 6 percent for commercial and industrial property.

Because of an increase in property values of town properties, the tax rate is going down slightly even though the average bill is increasing.

The tax rate for FY23 was $10.70 with an average value for a single family home at $624,954, according to Nate Cramer of Municipal Finance Services. The bill for a single-family home at that value was $6,687.

This year, Cramer said the rate is going down to $10.42, but the average value of a single-family home is $689,206. The average bill for a single-family bill would be $7,182.

Council Finance Committee Chair Richard Fucillo said his committee met on Monday night to discuss the possibility of the town moving toward a split residential-commercial tax rate or providing residential and small commercial exemptions.

"One of the big things was, is this worth it for Winthrop?" said Fucillo.

Fucillo said those actions could be valuable at a future date, but the finance committee determined they would not be impactful at this time. The finance committee recommended that the town maintain the single tax rate, a recommendation the full council approved.

Online troll hurls antisemitic slur at council meeting

By Adam Swift

It was a chaotic end to an already emotional Town Council meeting Tuesday night as a masked, online troll hurled vulgarity and an antisemitic slur during public speaking over Zoom at the end of the meeting.

Much of the meeting had been dominated by a discussion of the town's flag policy, specifically relating to the potential raising of the Israeli flag and a subsequent motion for the council to support a proclamation in solidarity with the Jewish people introduced by Councilor Rob DeMarco.

The council typically holds two public speaking portions of its meetings, one toward the beginning and another near the end.

While there were varying opinions expressed during both public speaking portions of the meeting and during debate among the councilors, the discussion had largely remained within the bounds of public meeting decorum.

At about 8:40 p.m., resident Todd Sacco was addressing the council over Zoom, criticizing the council for approving an unwieldy flag policy earlier this year and then not moving forward with a vote on DeMarco's proclamation.

At that point, another participant watching the meeting through Zoom broke in and shouted "Say her name you _____," using a vulgarity and an antisemitic slur.

In the confusion, several councilors shouted to shut down the Zoom video while others tried to identify who made the comment, one noted that it was an online troll and that he was masked during the on-line outbreak.

Following the online attack, Rabbi Benjamin Flax of Temple Tifereth asked to address the council.

"I live in Beachmont and I realize I am not represented on this council," said Flax. "But as a religious leader in our community, I just want to make clear that it is situ-

OUR Opinions

PEARL HARBOR WAS 82 YEARS AGO, BUT HAS LESSONS FOR US TODAY

It was 82 years ago this week that the nation of Japan launched its attack on the United States at the Pearl Harbor Naval base in Hawaii on December 7, 1941. The very next day, President Franklin D. Roosevelt convened a joint session of Congress in which he famously declared the attack, “A day that will live in infamy,” and asked Congress for a Declaration of War against Japan. Germany and Italy, allies of Japan who collectively were known as the Axis, then declared war on the U.S., setting the stage for World War II, the most destructive war in world history.

A total of 407,316 American soldiers made the Supreme Sacrifice (in addition to more than 10,000 members of the Merchant Marine) and another 671,278 were wounded in battlefronts stretching from Africa to the European continent to the jungle islands of the Pacific over the next three and one-half years before the German and Japanese war machines finally were subdued.

For more than two years prior to the attack, America had stayed out of the war that already had engulfed most of the rest of the world in the aftermath of the German invasion of Poland on September 1, 1939. By the time of the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, Hitler’s Nazis had conquered all of continental Europe and much of Africa, while the Japanese had invaded almost all of Asia, save for the U.S. outposts in the Philippines and other small islands in the Pacific.

Americans clung to the belief that our isolation, separated from the rest of the world by two oceans, would keep us out of the war. Americans had no appetite for re-engaging in another conflict just 23 years removed from the memories of World War I that still were fresh in our nation’s psyche. But after Pearl Harbor, we no longer could keep our heads buried in the sand. Although the United State had re-instituted the draft some months prior to Pearl Harbor and had ramped up our military production capabilities, the suddenness of the Japanese sneak attack still came as a shock to every American.

Americans realized that thanks to the capabilities of modern armaments such as Japanese aircraft carriers and German U-boats, even the continental United States was not insulated from an attack by a foreign enemy. Citizens on the West Coast braced for a Japanese invasion in the aftermath of Pearl Harbor and curfews were instituted on the Eastern Seaboard.

Thanks to the countless number of documentaries and movies over the past 25 years that have told the stories of the brave Americans who fought in WWII, we are fortunate to have a living history of the sacrifices made by The Greatest Generation.

In 1941, the Axis of Evil was formed by Germany under Hitler, Italy under Mussolini, and Japan under Tojo. Eighty-two years later, we similarly are facing a new Axis of Evil: Putin in Russia, Xi in China, and Aya-tollah Khameini in Iran (including its terrorist proxies of Hamas, Hezbollah, and the Houthis), who are threatening the peace and security of democracies and freedom-loving people everywhere.

The lessons of Pearl Harbor are many, but chief among them is that freedom isn’t free. We always must be vigilant to recognize the forces of evil that seek to destroy our way of life. That is a lesson that is as true today as it was in 1941.

HAPPY HANUKKAH

The eight-day observance of Hanukkah, also known as the Festival of Lights, starts this Thursday evening, December 7, and will culminate on Friday, December 15.

Hanukkah is observed for eight nights and days by lighting the candles of the Menorah, one on each day of the eight-day celebration. (The Menorah itself consists of nine candles, one of which typically stands above the rest and is used to light the other eight.)

Hanukkah commemorates the victory of the Maccabees in 166 BCE when the Maccabees liberated the Jewish people from the Greek-based rulers who essentially had outlawed the Jewish religion.

When the triumphant Maccabees captured the city of Jerusalem, they quickly entered the Holy Temple, tossing out the images of the Greek gods that had been installed there by the occupying rulers. When the Maccabees went to light the Menorah candles in the Temple, they thought they only had one day’s worth of oil. However, the candles remained lit for eight days -- hence the miracle of the Festival of Lights.

Hanukkah is a joyous occasion for Jews world-wide, marked by gatherings of friends and families and the playing of traditional games such as the dreidel and eating traditional -- and delicious! -- foods such as latkes. Needless to say, in the aftermath of the events of October 7, as well as the appalling subsequent increase in anti-semitic incidents in America and around the world, Hanukkah this year will have special meaning for Jews the world over.

We wish to take this opportunity to wish our friends and readers of the Jewish community a happy, healthy, and joyful Hanukkah season and we join them in solidarity against anti-semitism in all its forms.

THANKS COUNCILOR HONAN

Dear Editor,

Councilor at Large Tracey Honan will soon be stepping down from her post on the Winthrop Town Council. I feel impelled to thank Councilor Honan for her fortitude and leadership during some seriously difficult times here in our town.

Tracey has been Councilor at Large during the COVID pandemic. She’s been an outspoken leader and supporter of both civil rights and human rights across the board. She physically stepped up during the infamous Diana Ploss Thursday “visits” to Winthrop a few years back. Tracey actively protested against Ploss’s spirit of hate and intolerance of people different than herself and her beliefs.

Tracey continued representation on the Winthrop Council when both David Green and Ramona Cooper were gunned down by a hate-inspired perpetrator on 06-26-2021.

Not only was Tracey Honan outspoken on issues of human rights of all

The Winthrop opponents of the Revere-only casino proposal for Suffolk Downs had wanted the Town Council to send an official correspondence to the Mass. Gaming Commission (MGC) in advance of its crucial meeting next week when the commission is expected to rule on whether the new Mohegan Sun casino project at Suffolk Downs can move forward in the application process for the one Greater Boston-area gaming license. But there will be no letter to the MGC from the Town Council as a result of Councilor Nicholas DelVento's decision to postpone any action until the next meeting of the council on Dec. 16 -- which will be a week after the MGC's hearing.

The special election to fill the Congressional seat that was vacated by our long-time Congressman, Ed Markey, who now is our U.S. Senator, will be held Tuesday. The contest pits Democrat Katherine Clark, a state senator from Melrose who is a graduate of Cornell University Law School and Harvard's Kennedy School of Government, against the Republican nominee, Frank Addivino.

At Monday night's School Committee meeting, member Todd Sacco will receive a citation commending him for his years of service and dedication on the committee. Superintendent of Schools John Macero and the School Committee will make the presentation to Sacco at the outset of the meeting.

House Speaker Robert DeLeo and the House unanimously passed a bill last week that will establish early voting for presidential elections and provide resources to local officials and residents to make the voting process more efficient. Under the bill pushed by DeLeo and other legislators, early voting for presidential elections will begin in 2016. It is expected to significantly decrease wait times on Election Day and allow more individuals to vote. The bill also creates a secure online portal through which individuals can register and view their registration status.

An early-season blizzard dumped up to two feet of snow in Winthrop and more than three feet in Peabody and other areas north of Boston on Sunday. Minor flooding of Shore Drive and adjacent streets occurred at one point during the storm. The huge storm already has spent nearly the entire amount of money that the town has budgeted for snow removal in this fiscal year.

After a hotly-debated proposal by Selectman Martin O'Brien to split Winthrop's tax rate into commercial and residential rates, the selectmen voted 2-1 against the motion with selectmen Ron Vecchia and Richard DiMento casting the negative votes. The Board of Assessors, led by Chairman Peter Martino, also expressed their opposition to the idea.

The selectmen have approved spending up to $1000 for the Parks and Rec. Department to build an outdoor skating rink at Ingleside Park.

This seemingly endless debate over whether other flags be allowed to fly with our red, white and blue is absurd.

ON FLAGS: THIS IS NOT THE JOB OF TOWN COUNCIL

Dear Editor:

I read with interest a recent article in the Winthrop Transcript, titled “Council Debates Town Flag Policy”. The issue came up at the Winthrop town council meeting on November 28, 2023 as a result of the vicious attack on Israel by Hamas terrorists from Gaza and Israel’s response to the unprovoked attack on its civilians.

The Hamas attack on Israel and Israel’s response was followed in various locations in the United States by several antisemitic and anti-Israel demonstrations purportedly in support of the residents of Gaza who were caught in the retaliatory strikes against Hamas by Israel.

I would like to express my thoughts on the Matter. I am strongly of the opinion that raising an Israeli flag – or the flag of any other nation or international entity other than that of the United States is not a proper town council function. The town council has other more appropriate actions to debate and act upon.

Flying an Israeli flag can be done by any resident or organization in the Town of Winthrop. They can place an Israeli flag, or other appropriate symbol, in their window, on their front lawn, on the back of their shirts or wherever they wish. They can also make a more significant statement about their support for Israel and, at the same time, help the victims of the Hamas terrorism. By donating to any one of a number of Jewish, Israeli, American or international charities. One such charity is Magen David Adom, which is the Israeli version of the American Red Cross.

Respectfully,

Burton Figler

State Rep. Jeff Turco brings Coats 4 Veterans to Winthrop Veterans for the winter months

By Al Terminiello Jr.

Last Saturday morning, State Representative Jeff Turco was at the Winthrop Veterans Service Office located at the EB Newton School. His purpose was to bring 50 coats to be given out to Winthrop's veterans. Winthrop's Veterans Service Officer Phil Ronan greet the representative as well as a contingency of veterans. Coffee and donuts were offered to all, before Representative Turco spoke to the gathering, explaining where they came from, besides the 50 coats donated to Winthrop, Turco, along with Representative Jessica Giannino also delivered 100 coats to Revere's Beaumont VFW Post 6712 a week ago.

Representative Turco explained that a grant from the Patriots Foundation in conjunction with Massachusetts Military Support Foundation made possible the obtaining the 150 coats for Winthrop and Revere veterans. Home Depot supplies their signature orange buckets with lids, because unfortunately some of the veterans in this country that they served valiantly are homeless, the buckets serve as a carry all for their possessions. Also included in the buckets of coats are much needed personal care items and sox.

There are other contributors as well, Massachusetts State Police, and Job Lots, whose logo also appears on the bucket label. It's always a great thing when people and businesses step up and offer help to our nation's heroes, these coats mean much to so many, just in time as the winter temperatures drop

State Representative Jeff Turco, VSO Phil Ronan and veterans advocate Richard Honan join some of Winthrop's veterans that turned out last Saturday morning at the Veterans Service Office at the EB Newton School basement to enjoy each other company, have a cup of coffee and receive a winter coat, thanks to the generosity of many supports of our veterans. Sonny (the dog) did not get a coat but was able to grab a few snacks from the vets for his support.

While all good for veterans was being discusses and a hearty thank you was given to the donors, there was also disturbing news in the Winthrop community. Memorial plaques, dedicated to Winthrop deceased veterans for their service to county and community were being torn down, broken, and discarded along the streets. Behavior like this is unacceptable and brings dishonor to our veterans that severed with distinction. So far, just two, one at the corner of Lewis Terrace and Lewis Ave, in memory of LTC. Louis G. Maglio -US ARMY, the second, at Buchanan and Freemont Streets, in memory of S/SGT. Libero "Lee" Laura- US ARMY.

Memorial signs of Winthrop's combat veterans were destroyed recently by vandals. State Representative Jeff Turco looks on in disappointment at the broken memorials. Also shown are veterans Richard Honan, US Marine Rich Barry, and VSO Phil Ronan. These memorial plaques will be restored and replaced, vowed VSO Ronan.

Representative Jeff Turco spoke to veterans last Saturday morning at the EB Newton School, after delivering 50 coats. Turco addressed his position on veterans benefits, the rise in veteran homelessness, the need for more state and national legislation, and his total frustration over the destruction of Winthrop's Veteran Memorials.

Northeast students serve up lunch for veterans

Special to the Journal

Superintendent David DiBarri is pleased to announce that Northeast Metro Tech Culinary students served a special Thanksgiving luncheon for local veterans.

On Tuesday, Nov. 21, Culinary students opened the Breakheart Inn to 58 veterans from the Town of Wakefield and Saugus Veterans group and the Veteran's Administration. Culinary students have been providing lunch to veterans on Thanksgiving for over five years.

"Serving this lunch to our Veterans is the highlight of our year," said Culinary Department Head Elizabeth Beals HENDERSON. "We consider it an exceptional honor to serve those that have served our country."

The lunch menu included salad with balsamic vinaigrette, followed by a roasted turkey dinner with mashed potatoes, gravy, house-made cornbread stuffing, roasted butternut squash and house-made cranberry sauce. Dessert consisted of coffee and freshly baked pumpkin pie with whipped cream.

Beals said students were excited to serve and meet local veterans, and that they especially enjoyed that two Northeast Metro Tech faculty, Mark Rooney and Jim Clark, were among the veterans that were served.

"This luncheon is very special to us because it is so important to show our appreciation to those who have served our country," said Principal and Deputy Director Carla Scuzzarella, who also attended the luncheon to speak with veterans. "I am proud of our Culinary students for producing such a great meal, and for showing so much respect to those who have earned it."

GIRLS, BOYS HOCKEY OPEN SEASON SATURDAY AFTERNOON AT LARSEN

The Winthrop High girls and boys hockey teams will open their 2024 seasons this Saturday afternoon with a double-header against Shawsheen Tech at Larsen Rink. The season-opening face-off for Coach Anthony Martucci's Lady Vikings is set for 1 p.m., with coach Dale Dunbar's boys' contest slated for a 3 p.m. start.

Leading the way for the 2024 edition of the Lady Vikings will be a trio of senior captains, Hannah Parker, Sami Dimento, and Adrianna Rizzotto. They will be joined by juniors Talia Martucci, Izi Hain, Gabby Buonapane, Tori Bates, Hanna Barrett, Amelia Spencer, and Izzy Cash; sophomores Reese Ferrara, Avalina Coffey, Tegan Periera, Chloe Couture, Stella Pelletier, Avery Shea, Riley Towse, and Mia Currier; freshmen Angela Coscia, Amelia Serino, Claudia Alquinta, and Francesca Indresano; and eighth-grader Abby Githinji.

Winthrop has engaged in one scrimmage thus far in the pre-season, a 5-1 victory over Weymouth this past Saturday at Larsen.

"We played well," said Martucci, whose 2023 squad won the Northeastern Hockey League (NHL) title with a perfect 16-0 record, completed an overall 18-0 season, and advanced to the Elite Eight of the Division 1 state tournament. "We got goals from five different players, Talia Martucci, Sami DiMento, Amelia Spencer, Tegan Periera, and Angela Coscia. Riley Towse finished with 11 saves.

"We are very lucky to have the captains that we do," added Martucci. "Hannah Parker, Sami Dimento, and Adrianna Rizzotto are heart-and-soul leaders. They have led this team since being named captains at the banquet and it has really helped us grow together."

Martucci and his crew were scheduled to scrimmage Boston Latin yesterday (Wednesday) prior to Saturday's season-opener.

The WHS girls will play their eight NHL opponents (Shawsheen, Newburyport, Beverly, Marblehead, Peabody, Gloucester, Medford, and Masconomet) twice each and will face non-league opponents Winchester and Falmouth to round out their 18-game schedule.

On the boys' side, head coach Dale Dunbar's squad, which won the Northeastern Conference (NEC) title last year, will be led by senior captains Petey Silverman (who was the MVP of the NEC last year) and Billy Hayes and senior assistant captains Robert Rich and Hunter Fife.

The other members of the 2024 edition of the Vikings for Dunbar, who will be joined behind the bench once again by longtime assistant coach Mike Norris, are: Michael Donahue /Jr /G; Luke Gthinji /Jr /F; Thomas Babine /So /D; Nicholas Ramano /So /F; Phillip Boncore /Jr /F; Bertle Kline /So/F; Jackson Andy /Sr /D; Nolan Upton /Jr/ F; Joe Rich /Sr/ F; Aidan Survilas /Jr /F; Jay Fotiades /Jr /F; Michael Holgersen /Jr/F; Colin O'Leary /So /D; Glen Calla /Sr /F; Stephen Lindinger /Jr/G; and Robert Biancardi /Jr/G.

In addition, a group of Viking freshmen will alternate between the varsity and junior varsity teams: Paul Ferrara /Fr /D; Rick MacKenzie /Fr /D; Nate Previte /Fr/D; Joe Pumphret /Fr/F; Dom Spinale /Fr/F; Antonio Bordonaro /Fr/F; Charlie Ferrara /Fr /D; and Michael D'Ambrosio /Fr/ F.

After winning the NEC title last year, the Vikings advanced to the second round of the MIAA state tournament and Dunbar's crew will be looking forward both to repeating as NEC champs and making some noise in the post-season.

will play Saturday afternoon in either the championship or consolation contest.

"We have an outstanding group of young men who are committed to bringing a winning culture back to the Winthrop basketball program," said the 29 year-old Dale, who played at Wheaton College, where he was a starter and all-NEWMAC selection, after his outstanding career at WHS. "They've embraced the new staff and have risen to the challenge of learning a completely new system on the fly. I expect us to be an extremely competitive team this year and we should be able to make some noise come tournament time."

Dale and his crew scrimmaged Mystic Valley this past Saturday. "We lost by one point in overtime, but battled back from down 10 at halftime to force OT, and had an opportunity to take the lead with three seconds left. Unfortunately, we missed the shot," said Dale, whose Vikings were scheduled to engage in a three-team scrimmage at Winchester High School vs. Winchester and Lowell Catholic this past Monday. The Winthrop boys will be road warriors through the first week of the season. After the weekend's contests in Salem, they will be making the long journey to non-league rival Ipswich this coming Monday and trekking to Arlington Catholic next Wednesday.

The Vikings will face their Northeastern Conference (NEC) South Division foes (Saugus, Gloucester, Danvers, and Swampscott) twice each and NEC North rivals Salem, Marblehead, Beverly, Masconomet, and Peabody once. Non-league opponents who will round out their 20-game schedule include Ipswich (twice), Fenway, Arlington Catholic, Bishop Fenwick, and two as-yet-to-be determined opponents in tournament games this weekend and over the Christmas break.

WHS GIRLS HOOP READY FOR SEASON

The Winthrop High girls basketball team will open its season tomorrow (Friday) evening when coach Anthony Hatzisavas and his crew host Cambridge Rindge and Latin at the WHS gym. The season-opening tip-off on the Chris Tsiotos Court Floor at the WHS gym is set for 6:00.

"I am excited to return for my second season as the girls' head basketball coach," said Hatzisavas. "We have had a great off-season and pre-season so far and I am really looking forward to this upcoming season."

The 2024 edition of the Lady Viking squad will be led by a quartet of four senior captains, Grace Fleuriel, Kaylee Farrell, Reese Brodin, and Hailey Forsyth. Kaylee, Grace, and Reese are returning Northeastern Conference (NEC) all-stars. Rounding out the varsity roster are juniors Sophia Lindinger, Zoey Bogusz, Lilly Conway, Kate Brodin, and Tina Fabiano; sophomores Bailey Ferguson, Poli Tsiotos, Amina Barry, Giada Gergerian, Jenna Whitehead, and Josie Barry; and freshman Angela Tshowa.

"One thing I'm very happy about is how we handled our opening weekend," said Hatzisavas. "Friday night we had an Alumni Night at WHS. First we kicked off with the alumni girls playing, which turned out to be a competitive game. At halftime we honored Peg Bailey for her 50th season with the Winthrop Vikings girls basketball program. We had the boys alumni finish the night which turned out to be a great competitive game. It was a great opportunity for the girls and boys of Winthrop High School to interact with the alumni who were once in the spot they are in.

"For years Winthrop basketball has adopted the family culture and that was in full display Friday night, and as a former player and current coach, I couldn't be happier with how it went," Hatzisavas added.

On Saturday morning, Hatzisavas and his crew drove to the Cape for an overnight trip. "It was great for team bonding and the girls really enjoyed themselves," said the coach. "We scrimmaged Bourne High School, which also is a Division 4 team, on Saturday and then Sunday we had a tri-scrimmage with Groton-Dunstable and Bourne. Overall it was a great experience and the hope is to have this kickoff weekend become a part of the Winthrop basketball tradition."

Winthrop was set to engage in a scrimmage this week with Manchester-Essex ahead of tomorrow night's season-opener. "I am very excited about this team we have," said Hatzisavas. "I feel like we have a very deep and talented roster and have enough experience to help us get to where we want to go."

The Lady Vikings will travel to Hamiton-Wenham next Tuesday. They will face their NEC South Division foes (Saugus, Gloucester, Danvers, and Swampscott) twice each and NEC North rivals Salem, Marblehead, Beverly, Masconomet, and Peabody once. Non-league opponents who will round out their 20-game schedule include Cambridge, Hamilton-Wenham, Fontbonne, Malden Catholic, Watertown (twice), and an opponent to be determined in a Christmas holiday vacation week tournament.

Healey Admin. announces no-cost calls for state, county inmates

Special to the Transcript

The Massachusetts Department of Correction (DOC) implemented no cost phone calls across its 14 correctional facilities to provide equitable access to sustained communication between incarcerated individuals and their loved ones. The move results from legislation signed by Governor Maura Healey requiring calls be made available free of charge for individuals in state and county prisons. The Healey-Driscoll Administration supported this initiative in recognition that maintaining a connection between incarcerated individuals and their families is vital to enhancing rehabilitation, reducing recidivism, and improving community safety.

Beginning today, December 1, 2023, all calls from the standard facility wall phone will use the same call procedures outlined in the Department's Telephone Access and Use Policy. However, phone calls will no longer incur any charge. Previously, the incarcerated individual or the person receiving the call would pay the fee. Under the change, there is no cap on the number of calls.

"The Massachusetts Department of Correction recognizes the importance of incarcerated individuals maintaining bonds with their loved ones. No cost calls will alleviate the financial burden and remove barriers for an individual in MA DOC custody to stay connected with their outside support system. Strong family support helps to advance the rehabilitative process, reduces recidivism, and contributes to successful reentry upon release," said DOC Commissioner Carol Mici.

To raise awareness about this change, DOC provided the population with written notification, posted signage in all residential units, and uploaded a message to each person's department-issued educational tablet.

In anticipation of increased demand and call volume within each housing unit, DOC has proactively engaged the phone vendor, Securus Technologies, to identify locations across the agency that may benefit from additional wall phones. DOC is also exploring ways to facilitate additional access, including the ability to make calls through tablets. In addition, the Department provides other opportunities for incarcerated individuals to stay connected with loved ones through in-person visits, letters, and electronic messaging.

The Department has published an FAQ to provide families and loved ones with more information about the implementation of the no cost call initiative.

Edwin Varley

September 28, 1927 - November 27, 2023

Edwin P. Varley, 96, of Madison, CT, loving husband of Barbara L. Varley, passed away peacefully at home with his family by his side on November 27.

Edwin grew up in Point Shirley and graduated from Winthrop High School in 1946. He held numerous jobs he truly enjoyed as a teenager. He told stories about his long "Coal Shoveling" days, while working at the Deer Island Water Treatment and "catching leather soles" right side, left side off the conveyor belts in Boston's Leather District, for pennies. He also recalled coaxing the fishing trawlers to "Hey, can you throw me a cod fish, sir?" on Easter Sunday, dressed in his church clothes! He enlisted in the U.S. Navy before graduating from high school. He served with honor and pride in World War II and the Korean War.

After World War II, he earned his B.S. in mechanical engineering from Tufts College 1951, in MA through the V-12 Navy College Training Program.

He worked briefly for Goodyear Tire & Rubber in Akron, Ohio, then began his career in 1952 at Grain Dealers Mutual in Indianapolis, IN where he served as a Special Agent and Loss Prevention Engineer. He joined Industrial Risk Insurers in 1970 and retired in 1992.

After retirement, he spent time singing in barbershop quartets S.P.E.B.S.Q.U.A and in the City of the Elms Barbershop Chorus in New Haven. He also sang in the St. Margaret's Church Choir for over 60 years as they commenced the weekend of JFK's funeral in 1963. After a health scare in 1986, he began his rowing career and started competing in the C.R.A.S.H.B's in Boston for over 20 years. He also earned the title in 2002 of British Indoor Rowing Champion for 75-79 LWT division. He logged over 55 million meters. Those on the Shoreline all knew the quiet man constantly rowing.

He and Barbara travelled to Hawaii, Ireland, Bermuda, and wherever the families resided. Edwin and Barbara's love of the water and beach led them to Madison, in 1956. They settled in Lee Manor Association, where they still had "Party Lines" and only an RFD for an address. A TRUE slice of heaven, where they led a steady, consistent life, surrounded by amazing families, friends and community. They established an incredible place for generations to flourish. Edwin carried himself with Dignity and Grace. He was a true gentleman, rarely seen today. He will be missed.

Edwin was born in Brighton, MA. on Sept. 28, 1927. He was the oldest son of Edwin C. and Margaret E. Boughan Varley. He was predeceased by his only son, Paul Varley; grandson, Christopher Edwin Glisson and his sister, Pauline Frances V. Houhlihan. Edwin is survived by his loving wife, Barbara L. Varley, 95, of Madison, having shared over 70 years of blissful marriage. They shared a life like no other. They met while roller skating in Revere Beach at a Sadie Hawkins Skate. It was love at first sight for Edwin. The phrase opposites attract fits Barb and Ed perfectly. They are completely different in terms of personalities; however, they shared similar beliefs when it came to values, faith, fairness and consistency. A wonderful combination for raising a family.

Edwin is also survived by his daughters, Judith-Anne Varley, Barbara-Jean/Kevin Glisson, Mary-Patrice "Meb"/Robert Cusumano; grandsons: Matthew Varley, Timothy Joseph and Andrew Alexander Powaleny/partner Jessada Watanasuntornku, James Paul/Jennie Thibodaux and Joshua Michael Glisson; six great-grandchildren: Edwin John, Margaret Roy, Eli James of Louisiana, Christopher Lane, Jeffrey Cole and Caroline Beau Glisson of Georgia. He is also survived by his younger brother David A./Cecilia Varley of Virginia.

Edwin carried himself with Dignity and Grace. He was a true gentleman, rarely seen today. He will be missed. Calling hours were held from 11 to 12:30 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 2, at the Swan Funeral Home, 825 Boston Post Road, Madison, followed by a Mass of Christian Burial at 1 p.m. at St. Margaret's Church, 24 Academy Road, Madison. Burial followed at West Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, please consider making donations to Madison Ambulance Association, 9 Old Rte. 79, Madison, CT 04443. ## All types of services for all types of people.

Some people prefer traditional funeral services. Others prefer cremation. Some want an elaborate ceremony. Then there are others who don't want any ceremony at all. When it comes to funerals, there are as many options as there are people. And we take pride in being able to say we offer them all.

Pie for Breakfast

By Penny & Ed Cherubino

“A Yankee is someone who eats pie for breakfast.” That’s an old New England saying popularized by Robert Frost and used as a punchline by E.B. White. That would make many Americans “Yankees” on the day after Thanksgiving. We bet a few of you had a bit of pie with or for breakfast on Thanksgiving weekend.

History of Pie for Breakfast

Writing for the Library of Congress, Jennifer Harbster noted, “The A-Z of Food and Drink (2002) suggests that the word pie (pye) first appeared in English in the early fourteenth century, and by the middle of the century, it became commonplace. In 1378, Richard II issued an ordinance controlling pie prices in London.” At this time, many pies were encased in a non-edible crust called a coffin, a word that initially just meant casing.

Many people who settled in New England came from Old England, which was then and is now a pie culture. This area of the country has been called the “pie belt.”

What is a Pie?

Wikipedia says, “A pie is a baked dish which is usually made of a pastry dough casing that contains a filling of various sweet or savoury ingredients.” That definition is broad enough to allow us to indulge in many pie versions for breakfast, including crostatas, flans, pizzas, calzones, or Jamaican Patties.

Looking at a recent list of the most popular pies in the United Kingdom, we found many pie forms. We agree! Our love for pies goes beyond what most people think of as pie.

Holdovers from earlier times are items like the Cornish Pasty, which today has Protected Designation of Origin (PDO) and Protected Geographical Indication (PGI) status. This handheld pie can only be made in Cornwall, and ingredients are limited to beef, potato, rutabaga, onion, salt, and pepper. Other handheld traditions include pork, meat, and mince pies. And even sausage rolls would make excellent breakfast items.

Open-faced custard pies are also high on the UK favorites list. We haven’t had an open-faced cheese and onion pie, a British comfort food classic. However, we love eggy pies like Quiche Lorraine for breakfast.

Potato-topped pies, popular in the UK and here, include Shepherd and Cottage pies, often made from leftovers. The Brits have taken that one step beyond with their fish pies made from a selection of the best fish they can find at the market, a creamy sauce, and a blanket of golden mashed potatoes. If there were leftovers from that one, it would be gobbled up for breakfast.

Our Pie Traditions

Another special occasion when we might have pie for breakfast is the day after our birthdays. When she was a youngster, a neighbor baked a lemon meringue pie for Penny for her birthday every year. In honor of this delightful baker, we often seek out lemon meringue when her birthday arrives.

Last year, Penny presented Ed with a blueberry pie for his birthday instead of a cake. It was such a hit that we’ve added that to our pie traditions.

Penny’s Great Aunt used to add a French Canadian Tourtière to any holiday meal. This tradition has slipped off our menus in the last few years, but now we may make them purely for their breakfast appeal.

The final pie-for-breakfast confession that many of you may have to make is scoffing down a slice of leftover pizza pie on your way out the door the morning after a gathering of friends. Come on, admit it. You’ve done it!

During Saint John’s Episcopal Church Snowflake Fair, on December 2, three siblings picked a “World’s Best Daddy” mug for their father’s Christmas gift; and a volunteer emphasized her favorite ornament on display:

a homemade reindeer painted on a clothes pin. Parishioners shopped for toys, jewelry, and holiday essentials, such as kissing balls and wreathes. Toll House chocolate chips were the most popular cookie, sold out within the first hour of the bazaar.

Edwards appointed to the Special Commission on Unaccompanied Homeless Youth

Special to the Transcript

The Office of Senator Edwards is pleased to announce her recent appointment by Senate President Spilka to the Special Commission on Unaccompanied Homeless Youth (UHYC), which has been reconvened under the Healey Administration.

The UHYC, established through Outside Section 208 of the Fiscal Year 2013 (FY13) Budget and reconstituted in 2014, aims to study and make recommendations concerning services for unaccompanied homeless youth. Its goal is to provide a comprehensive and effective response to the unique needs of this population. The Commission conducts its meetings both virtually and in-person, convening quarterly. A key initiative of the UHYC is the MA Youth Count, an annual state-wide survey that provides valuable data on young adults experiencing homelessness, helping to shape effective responses and policies. Additionally, the Commission is supported by the State-wide Youth Advisory Council (YAC), comprising young adults with lived experience of homelessness, who provide insights and guidance on state-level policies and programming.

“The reconvening of the UHYC is a critical step towards addressing the complex issue of youth homelessness in our state,” said Senator Lydia Edwards (D-East Boston). “I am honored to join this commission and am committed to working collaboratively to develop and implement effective strategies that will provide essential support to unaccompanied homeless youth. This is not just a matter of policy – it’s about ensuring the well-being and future of our young people.”

Senator Edwards is eager to collaborate with the Commission, leveraging her experience and insights to help advance the work of preventing and ending youth homelessness in Massachusetts. This issue is a priority for Senator Edwards, who is dedicated to ensuring that all young people have access to the support and resources they need to not only survive but thrive. The Commission is dedicated to examining and recommending strategies to improve services for unaccompanied homeless youth in Massachusetts. It plays a critical role in shaping policies and programs that address the needs of this vulnerable population. For more information regarding the MA Unaccompanied Homeless Youth Commission, please visit: <https://www.mass.gov/orgs/ma-unaccompanied-homeless-youth-commission>
